Mrs. Vera Tart Marsh Entertains Freshmen

The freshmen in the counsellor group of Mrs. Vera Tart Marsh, faculty adviser, and of Willa Grey Lewis, assistant counsellor, were entertained at a "fudge party" recently. The social was held in the kitchenette of Vann Hall. An informal business meeting was held, after which iced drinks and fudge were served.

Those freshmen included in the group were Frances Alexander, Goldsboro; Betty Brady, Ramseur; Margaret Ann Bell, Fayetteville; Nita Brewer, West Point, Ga.; Virginia Lee Campbell, Raleigh; Margaret H. Dover, Winston-Salem; Thelma Haigler, Monroe; Margaret Howell, Severn; Sara Lewis, High Point; Meredith Liles, Goldsboro; Carolyn Powers, Wallace; and Naomi Pugh, Camden.

Party Given for Students

Tabernacle Baptist Church will entertain students from Meredith, Peace, and State Colleges at a Hallowe'en party on Saturday, October 28, in the recreational room of the church. Boys from Camp Butner will also be guests at the party. The guests can go in masquerade if they choose. This is one of the three big social events of the year which Tabernacle plans for the college students. There will be a Christmas party and a Sweetheart banquet in the spring.

O. L. Stringfield raised the money for the building of Meredith in 1893 to 1899.

G.I. SENTIMENTS

(Printed by Request)

(Dedicated to those who have just recently had their physical, and who will soon swell the ranks of Uncle Sam.)

Sitting on my G. I. bed,
My G. I. hat upon my head,
My G. I. pants and G. I. comb.
G. I. wish that I were home!

They issue everything I need,
Paper to write on, books to read.
They issue food to make me grow.

G. I. want a long furlough!

My belt and shoes, and G. I. tie,
Everything's free, nothing to buy.

My food is served on G. I. plates,
My meals are served at G. I. rates.

It's G. I. this, and G. I. that:
G. I. haircut, G. I. hat.

Everything now is Government Issue—
All but you, Dear—
G. I. miss you !!!

Church Plans Supper

The Westminster Fellowship Group of the West Raleigh Presbyterian Church will entertain new Presbyterian students from State, Peace, and Meredith Colleges at the church tonight, October 27, at 6:30 o'clock. A supper will be served. The Woman's Auxiliary is planning and preparing the supper and also the recreation. The entertainment will include singing and group games.

The first graduating class was in 1902 and there were ten who received A.B. degrees.

STUNT AND PALIO HISTORIES TRACED

Stunts are judged on presentation and originality.

In 1935, at the suggestion of Miss Marian Warner, of the Physical Education Department, who had seen the Palio festival in Italy, Palio was combined with Stunt night. Since the Middle Ages, the Palio festival has been held in Sienna, Italy. The village divides into wards, with elaborate banners, which are skillfully used in dances, and a huge banner is given to the winner of a horse race. Before this race, all the racers, accompanied by the singing, banner-waving crowd, ride their horses down the church aisle to the altar, where both rider and horse are blessed by the priest. The Palio banner is cherished for the following year by the ward whose rider won the race.

Here at Meredith, Palio has become just as competitive as Stunt, with each class working night and day to present the cleverest idea. Palio begins at 2:00 P. M. on a chosen Saturday afternoon, with a parade of clowns, animals, faculty caricatures, bicycle and horse riders and class "horses." Down the front drive, each class stands, dressed in costumes. The fun is the surprise of seeing what each class is trying to represent and to make attempts at trying to judge which idea is the best. Robed spectators judge all the races, the best class performance, and the singing of original class songs.

Palio and Stunt are two of Meredith's most interesting traditions, in fact, as far as it is known, no other college has such an entertainment as Palio.

Future Social Planned

The young people at Pullen Memorial Baptist Church are planning socials for the near future. The first of these is a Hallowe'en Party scheduled for Sunday, October 29, immediately after the evening program. Lois Edinger is in charge of the party, and the chairmen of the decoration and food committees are Elizabeth Murray and Hildred Lewis.

The second event in the making is a Sunday school dinner to be held at the Church Saturday, November 11, at 6:30 o'clock. The theme of the dinner is Mother Goose with the varied characters who make up her retinue. The president of the class, Zelma Murray, is to be Mother Goose, and Ted Medlin from Carolina is Master of Ceremonies. The chairmen of the committees that are now working on the plans are: Entertainment—Lois Edinger; Invitations—Bruce Blackmon and Hildred Lewis; Decorations—Ruth Miller, and Elizabeth Teachey; Food—Zelma Murray; Costumes—Margaret Wilson; Programs—Betsy McMillan; and Music—Jean Davis. Mrs. Fred Ammons and women of the church will help in preparing the dinner, and several Deacons will be waiters. The teachers of the class, Dr. John A. Yarbrough and Dr. R. C. Bullock, and the pastor, Rev. Lee C. Sheppard, will contribute to the program.

MEREDITH LANGUAGE PROF IS FEATURED IN LOCAL RADIO STATION PUBLICATION

Dr Robert F. Brand, who is now on the Meredith faculty instructing in Spanish and French, was recently featured in an article in the WPTF Signal, publication of the local radio station at which he is also a part-time announcer. The magazine, which is published monthly, is printed for the staff of the radio station and for past members now in the service. The following article featuring Dr. Brand was run in the October number of the magazine:

"Dr. Robert F. Brand, part-time announcer, was born May 8, 1904 in Manila, P. I.; moved to Canada at an early age and has lived in the states for nearly 30 years—with the exception of a year spent in Strasbourg, France, studying.

Dr. Brand is a graduate of Cornell University where he received a Ph.D in Modern Foreign Languages. He majored in French and Spanish.

While teaching at a Junior College near Syracuse, N. Y., Dr. Brand devoted part of his time to newspaper correspondence work. He found it so interesting that upon moving to Charleston (where he taught foreign languages at the Citadel for a year and a half) he made contacts with the newspapers there, only to find that they were interested in correspondents who could devote their full time to newspaper work. However, WTMA, the 1000 watt Post-Courier station in Charleston was very much interested in a part-time announcer, and Dr. Brand began his career in radio. He worked there five months as a full-time announcer before coming to Raleigh.

Dr. Brand is a member of the faculty of Meredith College ... instructing in Spanish and French.

His hobbies are many and varied, but one is outstanding ... CHESS. Not only does Dr. Brand enjoy a good "Live" game of Chess, but he is president of the Correspondence Chess League of America. A member since 1934, Dr. Brand has a chess game going in every state in the union, in Canada, and until the advent of the war had many correspondents in Holland, England, Mexico and Cuba. Those games were discontinued at the insistence of the censors who found the "code" of the chess moves taking up too much of their time!

Students Study at Yale

Elizabeth J. Miller, of Irvington, N. J., is a member of the first-year class which entered the Yale Divinity School last Sept. 25, at the opening of the fall term marking the school's 123rd year.

Miss Miller, a graduate of Meredith College with the Class of 1944, was one of 51 first-year students entering the Divinity School at that time.

Addie E. Davis, of Covington, Va., is a member of the first-year class which entered the Yale Divinity School last September 25, at the opening of the fall term marking the school's 123rd year.

Miss Davis, a graduate of Meredith College with the Class of 1942, was one of 51 first-year students entering the Divinity School at that time.

F. M. FARMER HONORED

Fannie Memory Farmer, president of the Silver Shield in 1943-44, who is in law-school at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, is spending her vacation with her mother here in Raleigh. She was the dinner-guest of Miss Julia Hamlet Harris, Monday, October 16, in the Meredith College Dining Hall. All members of the Silver Shield sat together. After dinner Miss Harris gave a coffee honoring Miss Farmer. Another guest present was Miss Norma Rose, also a member of the Silver Shield.
