Alumnae Give Luncheon

Dr. Campbell Speaks; Sextette Featured

President Carlyle Campbell was the speaker on Wednesday, November 15, at the annual alumnae luncheon which, this fall, was held in Efrid's dining room in Charlotte. Special musical feature of the program was the Meredith Sextette composed of the following students: Anna Lou Toms of Shelby, Jane Watkins of Durham, Jean Davis of Selma, Rebecca Barnes of Black Creek, Betty Jean Donley of Davistown, Pennsylvania, and Virginia Holcomb of Winston-Salem. The sextette rendered several numbers accompanied by Emily Hine of Winston-Salem. Other music was furnished by local talent.

Rose Collins, president of the Charlotte chapter, presided, and introduced President Campbell. Dr. L. E. M. Freeman, head of the Department of religion, returned thanks. Among the guests who were especially recognized were Mrs. Carlyle Campbell of Raleigh, Mrs. Casper C. Warren, wife of the pastor of the First Baptist Church of Charlotte, alumnae president Marguerite Mason Wilkins (Mrs. R. Bruce), of Durham, alumnae secretary Mae Grimmer, of Meredith College, and Mattie Jenkins Henderson (Mrs. D. E.), first president of the Charlotte chapter.

Mrs. Foy Johnson Farmer (Mrs. J. S.) presented missionaries, Belle Tyner Johnson (Mrs. T. Neil), of Shanghai, China, and Rosa Hocutt Powell (Mrs. J. C.), of Oyo, Nigeria, West Africa; and Mr. R. H. Satterfield, director of the department of public relations in the college, presented the trustees present: Mr. W. A. Thomas of Statesville, Mr. C. T. Council of Durham, Mr. V. M. Dorsett, of Siler City, Mrs. J. S. Farmer and Mrs. J. Wilbur Bunn of Raleigh, Mrs. Gordon Maddrey of Ahoskie, and Mrs. Cooper E. Taylor of Charlotte. Also Director Satterfield introduced members of the Meredith faculty who were present: Dr. Benson W. Davis, academic dean, Dr. Das Kelley Barnette of the department of religion, and Mr. Zeno Martin, bursar.

The more than one hundred and twenty-five alumnae and friends attending this annual affair sang Alma Mater at the beginning and at the close of the program. Quantities of luxurious white chrysanthemums furnished the floral setting.

Among those who served on the luncheon committee were: Beth Carroll Taylor (Mrs. C. E.), Mary Browning Cromer (Mrs. Buford), Frances Morris Spurrier (Mrs. W. M.), Elsie Jackson Howard (Mrs. Vance), and Lois Massey Steger (Mrs. Emmett).
