

In the World of Sports

By B. J. JOHNSON

The tennis tournament is in full swing at present. Already plans are being made for the semi-finals in advanced singles to be run off among Jean Griffith, Jane Middleton, Bette Linney, and "Ree" Harmon. Credit goes to Addie Elliott and Betsy Anne Morgan for winning the beginner's doubles. As the "score" now stands Addie Elliott and Peggy Mitchell are ready for the finals in beginner's singles. Come on out and see the finals. They should be good.

The traditional game of softball between the sister classes was won by the Freshman-Junior team with a score of 8-3. As the softball season drew to a close, the honorable varsity were chosen. On the varsity this year are Jane Middleton, "Ree" Harmon, Ann Josey, Marty Davis, Lou Dobbins, Lela Butts, Ernelle Stanfield, Jean Griffith, and Bette Linney.

The following girls have completed their senior life-saving course: Kathleen Faulconer, Cindy Renner, "Lefty" Pugh, Marie Wilson, Geraldine Winfree, and Jean Griffith.

Say! There's nothing like an overnight trip out to Crabtree Creek, eh, "rough riders"! Well, that's what we've been hearing about the week-end of May seventeenth, anyway. Elaine Boggess reports that those who are interested in riding may do so every Monday and Thursday from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m.

Have you noticed the tennis courts for the past few nights after dinner? You haven't! Then take a peep out your window and come on out, for dusk is an ideal time to play.

Strapless Gown

Black pique makes an exciting new fabric for your summer evening dress. Shown above as pictured in the May issue of Junior Bazaar is a strapless evening gown with a tight bodice, very full skirt and long torso look. Over it the model is wearing a fitted midriff jacket of white pique with a small, round collar, lantern sleeves and white ivory buttons. Young American deb dress; Lillian Abbott jacket.

CLUB NEWS

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Things have been happening in a hurry in the Home Economics department recently. At the meeting of the State Student Home Economics Club at Eastern Carolina Teachers College in Greenville on May 2 and 3, Iva Hurst, incoming president of the club, Doris Mitchiner, and Miss Jennie Hanyen were representatives from Meredith. Doris Mitchiner was elected State vice president for next year. Also, it was only recently that Miss Hanyen and Miss Brewer attended the district Home Economists meeting in Burlington. Miss Brewer, State Counselor of the North Carolina Home Economists Association, stayed over for a meeting of the executive council. Then, to top off the year's work as a club, last Friday night the members enjoyed a hayride and picnic at Miss Brewer's cabin, The Cedar Chest.

McDOWELL MUSIC CLUB EDUCATION CLUB

The McDowell Music Club and the Education Club held a joint meeting Thursday night, May 15. Miriam Hill, president of the Education Club, presided. Elizabeth Stillwell, president of the Music Club, was in charge of the program. Mrs. Beavers introduced the speaker, Mrs. Frank McCall, of Chapel Hill. Mrs. McCall spoke to the group on the part that public school music should play in our schools today.

SOCIOLOGY CLUB

The Sociology Club held its annual picnic on Tuesday, May 20. The club's new officers entertained the group.

TEAS, PICNICS

Brewer promised the seniors to be at the Cedar Chest "in time to brush the cobwebs down and grease the creaking hinges and have the kettle singing when they come around the bend." Miss Brewer's tea for the graduating Senior Class is an annual event.

On the following Monday the members of the faculty and administrative staff will entertain the graduating seniors with a picnic at Allen's Pond from 5:00 until 8:00 p.m.
