

PRIZE-WINNING PAINTING

DR. EDWIN POTEAT SUMMARIZES LIFE OF ALBERT SCHWEITZER FOR RELIGION CLUB

"A Modern Saint" was the term used by Dr. Edwin McNeill Poteat, pastor of Pullen Memorial Baptist Church, to describe Albert Schweitzer last evening, November 3, at the Freeman Religion Club meeting. Dr. Poteat, who has made an extensive study of the life of this theologian, doctor, organist, and missionary, gave a review of Schweitzer from his early childhood to the present time.

Schweitzer, who began his career in the field of music by pumping the organ in the old home church, has become one of the world's greatest organists and a famed authority on Bach. At the age of thirty he was not only a renowned musician but a great theologian. He made the remark that he would do the things that he wished until he reached the age of thirty, and then he would seek to make some contribution to mankind.

Consequently, he entered medical school in order to prepare himself to be a missionary doctor. Such a decision brought forth critical remarks. Why should a man of such musical talent want to be a doctor?

The years that have followed in the life of Albert Schweitzer, most of them spent at Lamboene in Africa, have been years of service for others.

ANNUAL PALIO

Stunt Night, under the direction of the class presidents, will be presented in the auditorium. Under the leadership of Doris Concha, A. A. president, the class presidents who are responsible for this part of the celebration are Alice Tuttle, senior; Betty Jean Hedgepeth, junior; Jean Miller, sophomore; and Pat Smathers, freshman.

The present senior class won Stunt last year with their comedy about "Fowl Play."

MRS. WILLIAM IVEY

Carolina she has done graduate work at the University of Mexico in Mexico City and at Texas A. & M. At both institutions Senora Ivey took advanced courses in literature in which her classmates were Mexicans and all the lectures were in Spanish.

At present she is working on her master's degree at Duke. Her thesis is being done on the modern Spanish essayist and philosopher, Unamuno. She has also done biographical research on modern Spanish novelists for that department at Duke.

Senora Ivey has had wide teaching experience. Prior to coming to Meredith she taught high school classes of mixed Mexican and American students in La Feria, Texas. She also taught in the Presbyterian Mission School in Fort Worth.

During one summer she was asked by the Home Mission Department of the Christian Church to direct Vacation Bible Schools and teacher courses in Spanish churches.

Both she and her husband are intensely interested in languages. Mr. and Mrs. Ivey first met at Texas Christian, where he was an instructor and she was a student assistant in the Spanish department. They have been married three years and are now living in Durham, where Mr. Ivey is working on his Ph.D. in the Semitic language department, under the religion department at Duke.
