

Social Emphasis Week Begins November Twelfth

Little Theatre Presents Four One-Act Plays

The Little Theatre will present "Tonight at Eight," a program of one-act plays, on November 16 and 17. These plays are "The Happy Journey" by Thornton Wilder; "They Are None of Them Perfect" by Sophia Kerr; "The Stronger" by August Strindberg; and "The Mousetrap" by William Dean Howells.

Both the plays and characters are varied in mood and scene. "The Happy Journey" is one of Thornton Wilder's non-scenery plays and has been chosen by him as his finest work. It is a warm, humorous portrayal of a family's journey to see the elder daughter who has been ill. All extra characters are played by a stage manager.

"They Are None of Them Perfect" is a clever, drawing room comedy in which a group of married women try to discourage their engaged friend by recounting her husband's weakness. "The Stronger" is a one-sided verbal battle between two women. The audience at the end may judge which of the two is the stronger. A mouse is the villain of "Mousetrap", a comedy of the Gay Nineties; the protagonists are six ladies, all at bay upon chairs, and tables.

Cast

The casts include—Ellen Westmoreland, Betsy Cannady, Fay Walker, Mary Jo Isaacs, Mary Evelyn Brown, Peggy Poole, Jo Ann Haithwaite, Ann Ipock, Bobbie Addy, Ruby Wiggins, Becky Callaway, Joyce Bailey, Barbara Harper, Lynette Adcock, Betty Winchester, Paul West, George Thomas and Mary Cobb Dickens.

The prices of admission are 75 and 50 cents. The curtain on

Included in the program for Social Emphasis Week is a panel discussion to be held in chapel Thursday, November 8. Four students and two members of the faculty will be on the panel. Shown placing questions to be used in the panel in the question box in Johnson Hall are Pat Murphy, Jean Joyner, and Mary Brooks Stone.

Former Teacher Chapel Speaker

Week Features Panel Discussion and Skit

The week of November 12-16 has been designated as Social Emphasis Week at Meredith. The name of the week was suggested by Mrs. Vera T. Marsh who previously taught a course in social etiquette at Mars Hill College.

Jean Joyner will head a committee of faculty and students to discuss problems on the campus. In a tentative committee meeting it was decided that Social Emphasis Week will parallel the Religious Emphasis Week that is held each year. The student members who are on the committee are freshman, Pat Murphy; sophomore, Mary Brooks Stone; junior, Janne Dawson; and senior, Jean Joyner. The faculty members are: Mrs. Vera Marsh, Miss Margaret Schwartz, Miss Ellen Brewer and Dr. Norma Rose. The committee which met once a week for three weeks will continue to meet throughout the week.

Chapel

Social Emphasis Week will be launched with a talk on social etiquette in chapel on Monday, November 12, by Mrs. J. Leroy Allen, an alumna of Meredith and a former teacher in English.

Each night during the week a humorous skit concerning our social life will be given in the dormitories. Beginning Monday

"WHO'S WHO"

Six seniors, Anne Creech, Marie Edwards, Sally Massey, Jean Miller, Rosalyn Poole, and Jane Slate, have been chosen for national recognition in "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." The six who will be included in the 1951-52 edition are selected on the basis of scholarship, co-operation and leadership in academic and extra-curricular activities, citizenship and service to the school, and promise of future usefulness.

both evenings is at 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium.

STUDENT BODY PARTICIPATES IN CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM CAMPAIGN

Final results of The Crusade for Freedom campaign held on the campus October 27-November 2, show that Meredith students contributed approximately $25.00.

The Crusade for Freedom is a challenge to the American people to help truth fight communism. The idea was launched last year by General Dwight D. Eisenhower. It was an effort to raise enough money to build a powerful radio transmitter in Germany which would fight Communist propaganda by broadcasting the truth to the people behind the Iron Curtain.

Sixteen million Americans responded immediately with over $1,000,000. Thus, the most powerful transmitter in the free world was built in Munich, Germany. On May 1, 1951, the station called Radio Free Europe began its broadcasts into communist Czechoslovakia.

Through its programs Radio Free Europe attempts to keep alive the hope for freedom of these imprisoned people and to encourage resistance against Communism. Its broadcasts give reports on missing persons, send messages from those who have escaped, and give news that the Soviets try to suppress. Concluding each program there are heard four notes on Radio Free Eu-

(Continued on page four)

Mrs. J. Leroy Allen

night the skit will be given in Springfield; Tuesday, Vann; Wednesday, Jones; and Thursday, Faircloth. Charleen Swan-

(Continued on page five)

Alumnae, Class of Fifty-one, Work in Various Occupations

Meredith alumnae of the class of 1951 are working in various occupations in different places.

A large number of girls have come back to Raleigh. Frances Almond is married and working at the Baptist Book Store. Jane Earl Burch is also married and with the North Carolina Survey of Public Education. Helen Brunson and Martha Hare, both married, are teaching in the second and sixth grades, respectively. Marilyn Rosser is teaching the fifth grade, Millicent Elliott is teaching the third grade, Martha Sue Smith, the second; and Pat Lawrence, the seventh. Working as secretaries in Raleigh are Sunny Burnham, Peggy Thornton, and Lurene Ransone. Rose Marie Killinger is married and living in Raleigh. Sarah Jane Newbern and Marcine Kinkead are in Raleigh as medical technologists, and Mattie Lou Lee is married and working as a junior laboratory technician with the State

Laboratory of Hygiene.

Three of last year's graduates are working at Meredith. Shirley Bone is assistant librarian, Nancy Walker is head of the News Bureau, and Helen Walker is manager of the Bee Hive.

Housewives

Those who list their occupations as housewives are Mary

(Continued on page three)

Delegates Chosen to Student Legislature

The North Carolina State Student Legislature will hold its fifteenth annual assembly in Raleigh on November 29, 30, and December 1, in the chambers of the House and Senate at the State Capitol.

Barney Schettler, Martha Holland, and Lynette Adcock will be Meredith delegates to the

(Continued on page four)

B.S.U. PRESENTS CHAPEL PROGRAM AT CAMPBELL

The B.S.U. council of Meredith College will present a chapel program at Campbell College at Buies Creek, November 15. The program, under the direction of Betty Jo Welch, will feature Mrs. Flora Freeman of Raleigh, formerly of India. She will speak on "The Life of a Christian Student in India" and demonstrate some methods of dress in that country.

This is the second of a series of exchange programs. The first was given on Sunday, October 21, at Shaw University. We feel this will strengthen the relation between the B. S. U. groups, as well as strengthen our work as a Baptist Student Union. In the near future, we are expecting a return program from both schools.

The monthly chapel program sponsored by the B. S. U. will be November 20. It will emphasize Thanksgiving, using the November theme, "The Christian Church in My Community." The aim of this program is to better understand our place in the fellowship of the local church.

Counselors Sponsor Special Social Program for Freshmen and Transfers

In connection with Social Emphasis Week, the freshmen and transfer counselors will sponsor a special social emphasis program for new students.

At council group meetings new students will be instructed in correct manners, appropriate dress, and planning for parties, dances, receptions, teas, and banquets. They will discuss correct social practices in entertaining, traveling, attending concerts and the theatre, and carrying on an interesting conversation. A list of available party material will be given to each new student.

At the November meeting each girl will join one of the following committees: invitations and hostess, entertainment, or refreshment and arrangement. These committees will meet separately in December under the direction of Mrs. Vera Marsh, Miss Doris Peterson, and Miss Ellen Brewer. With information from these discussions, the new students will plan and present a Christmas party before the Christmas recess.