

State Home Economics Workshop Meets Here Today and Saturday

The North Carolina Student Home Economics Club workshop is meeting on the campus today and tomorrow. The workshop is composed of the state officers and two student delegates and a faculty advisor from each of the college home economics clubs in the state. Present officers are Patty Hankley, Appalachian State Teachers College, president; Mary Jo Griffin, Meredith, vice-president; Sybil Lennon, Mars Hill, secretary; and Edna Lee Page, Campbell, treasurer. Faculty advisor for the state-wide group is Miss Marian Adams of Appalachian State Teachers College.

Friday's program will consist of registration from 4:00 to 5:00, a get-acquainted tea at 5:00, dinner in the college dining hall, and an evening meeting which begins at 7:30. Miss Frances Urban, field secretary of the American Home Economics Association, will be the speaker for this session, which will be followed by a social hour in the Hut.

At the Saturday morning business session the group will hear reports from the two N. C. delegates to the national convention in Kansas City last summer: Jane Williamson Teague of Meredith and Marceline Aycock of East Carolina College. A coffee hour in the faculty parlor will follow lunch.

The afternoon session will include two addresses, "Responsibilities of the Home Economist Today," by Miss Ruth Current, state home demonstration agent, and "Our State Association—A Goodly Heritage," by Miss Ellen Brewer, of the Meredith College Home Economics Department.

The group will visit homes of interest in Raleigh later Saturday and close their convention with a banquet at the S&W. Miss Catherine Dennis, president-elect of the American Home Economics Association, will bring the greeting at the banquet which will be followed by installation of officers for the coming year.

The delegates will be guests at the Folk Dance program on Saturday night.

The general committee in charge of arrangements for the convention is composed of Virginia Mumford,

FOLK DANCE CLUB PRESENTS CONCERT

Four of the girls who will perform in the Folk Dance Concert Saturday are pictured above. They are Patsy Bland, Lynn Belton, Dot White and Bonny Morgan, all seniors.

The eleventh annual Folk Dance Concert will be given March 20, 1954, at 8:00 p.m. in Jones Auditorium. The program, presented by the Meredith College Folk Dance Club, is being sponsored by the physical education department and Athletic Association of the college. Miss Doris Peterson, head of the physical education department, is director of the production with Miss Phyllis Cunningham, Miss Mary Mackay, Miss Helena Williams and Mrs. J. T. Lynn, accompanist, assisting her. Members of the Monogram Club will serve as marshals for the concert. Admission will be 35 cents for students, 50 cents for adults.

The Folk Dance Club, under the direction of Miss Peterson, is the only concert group of folk dancers in the state. Last year the group presented eighteen performances off the campus, in Raleigh and in various parts of the state. The club library contains 1,070 dances, and the list of former members now numbers 288. Seventeen dances will be presented by the fifty members of this year's Folk Dance Club. The program includes the following dances: L'Amour Isigane, a Romyany folk dance; Pragska Polka, a Cech folk dance; Cherry Blossoms, a Japanese dance; Inca Princess, an Indian ceremonial; Brahms 5th Hungarian Dance, a Hungarian Czardas; Irish Lilt, an Irish couple dance; Jarabe Tapitio, the national dance of Mexico; Minuet de la Riene, a French court dance; Jota Arazonesa, a Spanish bolero; Fliska, a Norwegian folk dance; Melinka Marurka, a Polish folk dance; Anitra's Dance, an Arabian dance; Moravian Dance, the national dance of Moravia; Sword Dance, a Scotch ceremonial; Schuhplatter, a Bavarian mock fighting dance; Bean Setting, a Morris Stick dance; Wyoming Varovianna, a Western cowboy dance; Cowboy Square, a Western cowboy dance.

BECKY CALLOWAY, NANCY DOHERTY ATTEND S. G. MEET

Becky Calloway, president-elect of the S. G. Council, and Nancy Doherty, president-elect of Brewer Dormitory, are attending the meeting of the National Association of Student Government at Florida

(Continued on page three)

Millie Green and Virginia Kime. Other committee chairmen include Evelyn Taylor, president of the local club; Mary Jo Griffin, vice-

(Continued on page three)

DR. G. PRIESTLY TO DELIVER LECTURE HERE ON APRIL 13

Dr. S. E. Gerard Priestley will deliver a lecture to the student body on April 13, in the auditorium at 8:00.

Dr. Priestley was born in the Royal Borough of Windsor, England, not far from where King John signed the Magna Charta in 1215. Educated at New College, University of London, he received his M.A. and Ph.D. in history and international economics from the Graduate School of Arts and Science, New York University. Dr. Priestley holds also the degrees of bachelor of divinity from the Hartford Theological Seminary, master of sacred theology from the Kennedy School of Mission, Hartford, Connecticut, and the advanced degree of master of social science in international relations.

Dr. Priestley's travels, which have taken him over wide areas of the world, have afforded him personal contact with many of the problem situations of the world. He is especially interested in the fight against illiteracy, disease, hunger and poverty in the under-developed areas of the world and in the problems of land reform.

Campus Officers for 1954-55 Elected

Seated are Ruth Jeanne Allen, Becky Calloway, Joyce Burns, and Shirley McLean. Standing are Susie Rucker, Mary Cobb Westbrook, Ernestine Cottrell, Phoebe Barnhardt, Bess Peeler, Ellen Moore, Betty Ball, Jean Forbes, June Vann, Sandra Peterson.

In campus elections held on March 4 and 11, Becky Calloway, of Concord, a rising senior, was elected president of the Student Government Association. Becky has served as president of the Junior Class and has held numerous other offices since she has been at Meredith. Ruth Jeanne Allen, of Creedmoor, was chosen president of the Athletic Association. Ruth Jeanne has previously been both secretary and treasurer of the A. A. Elected as president of the Baptist Student Union was Shirley McLean, of Maxton, who served as chairman of Religious Focus Week this year and who has been active in other B. S. U. work since she has been at Meredith. Joyce Burns, of Raleigh, was elected next president of the non-resident students. Joyce has taken an active part in the work of the Athletic Association and has been on the Dean's List.

Editors of the three Meredith publications were also elected. Betty Ball, of Scotland Neck, is to edit the Oak Leaves, the college annual; Bess Peeler, of Raleigh, will be editor of the Twig; and Jean Forbes, of Morrisville, is to edit the Acorn, the college literary publication.

Chief counselor for next year will be Sandra Peterson, of Clinton, who will also be chairman of the nominating committee. June Vann, of Washington, N. C., was elected chairman of the Social Standards Committee.

(Continued on page six)

BETTY MILLER PRESENTS RECITAL

Betty Miller, a senior organ major, will present her graduating recital Monday evening, March 22, at 8 o'clock. A reception will be held in the Blue Parlor after the recital.

Her recital program will consist of the following selections: Bach, Fantasia and Fugue in G Minor; Franck, Prelude, Fugue and Variation; Vierne, Clair de Lune; Langlais, Chant de Pais; Mendelssohn, Sixth Sonata.

An active member of Sigma Alpha Iota, Betty has been manager of the music store for two years. In addition to her activities in Sigma Alpha Iota, she is this year program chairman in the organ class. Betty is also on the Dean's List.

Classes Compete in Stunt

On March 27, one chief judge and three class judges, chosen from Meredith faculty and staff, along with one class judge, chosen from Meredith alumnae, will have the task of deciding the winner of the Stunt Cup, which is presented annually to one of the four classes on Stunt Night. The stunts will be presented in order, beginning with the seniors and ending with the freshmen. They are judged on the basis of originality, appropriateness, and presentation. Stunt Night, which has been a part of Meredith since 1913, is sponsored by the Athletic Association.

A stunt committee composed of Miss Fleming, Mrs. da Parma, Dr. Rose, Miss Brewer, and Miss Peterson has to approve each of the stunts. This committee is also present at the dress rehearsal.

The freshman committees are as follows: Script — Jean Grealish, Carolynne Harwell, Edith Johnson; Programs — Mary Helen Cooper, Annie Ransome, Pat Swan, Becky Miles, Anita Hiatt; Props — Martha Ann Roberts, Mary Edna Grimes, Nancy Corzine, Gwen Maddrey, Eleanor Clark, Pat Kerley, Peggy Jo Williams; Costumes — Nancy Young, Mary Jo Brown, Jo Ellen Williams, Lucy Atkinson; Lighting — Ann House, Kitty Brown, Kitty Holt, Libby Raynor, Barbara Churchill; Scenery — Annette Lee, Jo

(Continued on page seven)

Pictured are four script writers for stunt. They are Mary Cobb Westbrook, Ruth Barnes, Jeanne Grealish, and Margaret Layne.