

EIGHT COMPLETE REQUIREMENTS: WILL RECEIVE DIPLOMAS IN JUNE

INSTITUTE OF RELIGION IS IN SESSION

"Our Enlarging Responsibilities" will be the theme throughout the seven-week series of the annual Institute of Religion. For nineteen years the Institute of Religion lecture series, sponsored by the United Church has brought prominent thinkers to the Raleigh community. Speakers are chosen who strive to stimulate deep thought in their listeners. The whole program is an effort to help Christians think through their position in the world, and thereby arrive at a social ethic for their lives. The Rev. Mr. Gaylord Noyce, who outlined the forthcoming series in chapel, expressed the theme as "applied Christianity."

Every Monday evening during the series the schedule includes dinner at 6 p.m., study courses at 7, and lecture at 8. The public is cordially invited to any or all of these events.

The study courses are of special interest to a college student for they are concerned with the problems facing every individual: The titles are as follows:

1. The Raleigh Public School System
2. Our Enlarging Responsibilities in a Revolutionary World
3. Contemporary Religious Thought

4. Ethics in a Business Society
Informed leaders will be in charge of these study groups. The lecturers and their topics for the complete series are:

January 27 — R. Norris Wilson, "Christian Agility"
February 10 — Martin Luther King, "Non-Violence and Racial Justice"

February 17 — Ralph McGill, "It Tolls for Thee"

February 24 — Hubert H. Humphrey, "America's International Responsibilities"
March 3 — Victor G. Reuther, "The Problems, Challenges, and Responsibilities of Labor"

All of the lectures will be held at the United Church with the exception of the ones on February 10 and 24. Because of the expected crowd, these will be held at Broughton High School. A question and answer period at the end of each lecture has been planned. In past years many people have found this time to be the most helpful of the evening.

There is no charge for the lectures themselves. The Institute of Religion is supported entirely by voluntary contributions. Every student should consider this opportunity and make plans accordingly.

EXAMS BEGIN TOMORROW

The time has come for frantic study, dazed eyes, and blank expressions, for tomorrow initiates the dreaded ordeal of exams. Upperclassmen have survived this week at least twice, but the freshmen have a new experience to look forward to.

Actually, exam week isn't so bad. You never have to get up before 8:30, and you will have much more free time than you are accustomed to. Besides that, the lunch line is shorter. You may even have time to take in a movie or two.

THE TWIG advises you to sleep a lot, eat all you want, and study some. If you have found little consolation in this counsel, take comfort in the fact that it will all be over this time next week.

DR. CAMPBELL TO SPEAK AT COMMENCEMENT

Dr. Campbell has agreed to accept the invitation extended by the Senior Class to give the principal address at the commencement exercises in the spring. Peggy Bone, president of the class, announced yesterday. Peggy has said, "We feel that he will bring to our class a very special and personal message."

YWA FOCUS WEEK TO BE HELD FEBRUARY 9-14

February 9-14 will be Y.W.A. Focus Week as announced by Focus Week Chairman, Miriam Dempsey. The theme for the week is "Christ for the Whole Wide World."

The Y.W.A. will be in charge of all chapel programs and vesper services for the week with a Y.W.A. supper meeting on Wednesday night, February 11.

Chapel speakers will be Dr. Roger Crook, Miss Mary Littleton, a mission volunteer and secretary to Miriam Robinson, executive secretary of the W.M.U. in North Carolina, and Mrs. Elmo Scoggins, a former missionary now at Wake Forest.

Students will be in charge of vesper services Monday and Tuesday with a playlet, "Waiting Millions" and a special service "Christianity in Action." Mrs. Douglas Aldrich will speak on the theme "Christ for the Whole Wide World" as concerning Y.W.A. work on Thursday.

The student committee chairmen are Babs Howard, Cynthia Denny, Lela Cagle, Ann Allred, Miriam Hoffler, Nancy Whedbee, Jan Powell, Faye Everett, and Carol Deaton.

MEREDITH RECEIVES FUNDS FOR NEW SCIENCE BUILDING

Library Is Awarded Sub-Grant

The Meredith College Library has been awarded $200 in a sub-grant from the Association of College and Research Libraries from funds granted to it by United States Steel Foundation. A.C.R.L. is a division of the American Library Association.

Miss Baity, our librarian, states that the grant will be used to purchase books on far eastern politics and culture.

Our library is one of eighty-seven libraries to receive sub-grants in this year's program of awards by A.C.R.L. The purpose of the program is "to strengthen or modernize library, teaching, or learning tools in privately supported colleges and universities."

Art Department Exhibits Paintings

Mrs. Ruth Clarke, head of the art department, has announced that she is to have a showing of several paintings in February at Harrel's in Greensboro. This invitation was extended by the head of W. C.'s art department, Mr. Gregory Ivy. Her picture, "Fungus" is currently on exhibit in the Eastern Carolina Art Society Gallery in Greenville. An oil painting of rich colors, it was shown earlier in the North Carolina Art Museum.

"Morning Mist," an oil by Miss Martyvonne Dehoney, was exhibited in the New Jersey State Annual Art Show at Montclair, New Jersey. Miss Dehoney says the painting was taken from a sketch done of Harker's Island.

REGISTRATION IS SCHEDULED

Registration for second semester courses will be held on February 3 in the gymnasium beginning at 9:00. Seniors and juniors will register in the morning and sophomores and freshmen in the afternoon. A few sophomores may be permitted to register by 11:30.

Meredith College has been willed approximately $145,000 from the funds of the estate of J. Rufus Hunter and from the private funds of his wife. It has been decided that this money will help to erect the new science building which will house the science, home economics, and business departments. The new building will be named Hunter Hall in memory of this generosity.

Dr. Hunter was a professor of chemistry in Richmond and from there he came to Raleigh. Here he was a member of the Meredith Board of Trustees and of the Executive Committee of that Board from 1923-46 and from 1947 until his death on March 4, 1951. Active on numerous committees, he also served as President of the Board for many years. He willed funds from his estate to Meredith after the death of his wife. Mrs. Hunter died on November 30, 1957, and she contributed about $5,000 of her own to the college.

Plans are now under way for Hunter Hall to be located on the west side of the campus. Bids were due on January 22 and it has been announced that they will be decided upon by January 28.
