

STUNT COMPETITION IS EVENT OF TONIGHT

Dinner Honors Past Presidents Of AA

The Athletic Association Board will be hostesses at a dinner held at six o'clock on the evening of November 18 in the college dining hall. The event is planned to honor former presidents of the Association; and Sybil Williams, social chairman for the Board, has made all arrangements for the dinner.

There are sixty-five past presidents who have been invited to attend. Other guests will include Dr. and Mrs. Carlyle Campbell, Dean and Mrs. L. A. Peacock, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deyton, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Belcher, Mr. and Mrs. William Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Synder, and Mr. Wilbur Massey. The faculty committee for Stunt, including Dr. Norma Rose, Dean Louise E. Fleming, Miss Velma Gorsage, and Mrs. Wilbur Massey, will be guests of the Athletic Association.

The group will further include Bette Liles, Rachel Dailey, Lynda Copley, and Joyce Stainback, class presidents; Zelma Greene, BSU president, Kathryn Rice, Student Government president, and the stunt judges.

The entire group of guests will be entertained at a coffee hour to be held in the Blue Parlor of Johnson Hall immediately following the dinner.

BAPTISTS PROPOSE $7 MILLION FOR MEREDITH

The Baptist State Convention opened in Asheville on Tuesday, November 15, and closed yesterday, November 17. Dr. Carlyle Campbell, Meredith's president, attended the meeting.

On Tuesday evening there was held a joint meeting of the alumni of the seven Baptist colleges of North Carolina. On Wednesday the Meredith alumnae held their annual convention meeting. The Convention elected, as is customary, one-fourth of the Meredith trustees for this year.

Dr. E. Norfleet Gardner presented a special committee report on "Advance for Colleges," which included a summary of the previous advance of the colleges and the basic purposes of the Christian college. It proposed an increase of enrollment to 1,200 students at Meredith in a long-range expansion program.

The Committee proposed an allocation of $7 million to Meredith College for a library, a student activities building, an infirmary, a chapel, a new heating plant, an additional dormitory, and the renovation of existing facilities. A campaign was proposed to be launched as soon as possible for $45 million for the seven Baptist colleges which includes the $7 million allocation for Meredith.

College Library Receives Two Memorial Volumes

Two memorial books have recently been presented to the Meredith College Library. Sue Rogers, a senior, has given in memory of Miss Sally Wills Holland The Love Poems and Sonnets of William Shakespeare. Miss Holland was a member of Meredith's department of English for several years prior to her death in 1959.

Also, the Oxford Book of Ameri-

Examining previously used stunt scenery and properties are Vickie Glenn, sophomore stunt chairman; Kathleen Simmons, president of the sponsoring Athletic Association; Sandy Brown, freshman stunt chairman; Linda Kirby, junior chairman; and Mary Carol Warwick, senior chairman.

Faculty Members Attend Conference

On November 3 and 4 several members of the Meredith faculty attended professional meetings in Durham. Two of these meetings, the North Carolina Deans Association, attended by Dr. L. A. Peacock, and the North Carolina Association of College Registrars, attended by Mrs. Vera T. Marsh, were held prior to the North Carolina College Conference which convened on Thursday afternoon.

At this conference, Dr. Carlyle Campbell represented Meredith with the assistance and participation of Dean Peacock, Registrar Marsh, Dean of Students Louise E. Fleming, and Dr. Lillian Parker Wallace, Secretary to the Co-operative Research Committee.

The main feature of the dinner meeting was an address by Dr. Gerald Wendt, President of the National Agency for International Publications in New York, on the subject "The Foreseeable World of the Future."

SENIORS TEACH IN CITY SCHOOLS

An important part of the education department's program is giving students a chance to observe and serve an apprenticeship in an education system in Raleigh. This semester there are a number of girls from Meredith teaching in various schools around the community.

At the Barbee School are Emily Dunn teaching third grade and Linda Edwards teaching fifth grade; at Emma Conn are Carole Hamrick teaching the sixth grade, Margaret Ricks teaching first grade, Joyce Ann Smith teaching the fifth grade, and Gaynelle Gray working with third grade.

Found at Frances Lacy are Bette Liles, first grade; Pat Rhue, second can Verse has been presented to the library by Mrs. W. R. Rand, the former Elizabeth Parnell, a 1926 graduate. The book was given in memory of Mrs. Viola Alderman Barrett, also an alumna of the college.

SUSAN SELF TO LEAD WORLD UNIVERSITY SERVICE DRIVE ON MEREDITH CAMPUS

World University Service is a name that each Meredith student will become very familiar with in the next two weeks on the campus. WUS is about to launch her 1960-61 drive for funds on this campus. On November 23 the chapel address will be given by Susan Self, introducing WUS to the student body. Susan will be employed by WUS beginning February 1, 1961, as a traveler for this branch of the Social Economic Council of the United Nations. The actual Meredith drive is to be held from November 28 to December 2.

What is WUS? Briefly, WUS is an international student service organization. It is dedicated to mutual assistance in meeting the most crucial needs of the university community throughout the world.

Education Is Concern Of WUS

WUS effort is rooted in the firm belief that education is the key to many of the world's problems. In the university students of today are the leaders of tomorrow. To guarantee their education is to guarantee a sounder future.

WUS is international; far more than a charity effort, it is a co-operative effort of students and professors in 41 countries. Meredith students will be asked to give to support WUS programs which range grade, and Bettie Fry, third; at Myrtle Underwood, Betty Lou Kennedy, first grade, and Gwen Spearman, third; at Albert Root, Mary Ruth Gordon, second, and Faye Carter, fourth.

Traveling out to Cary High School are Raney Bradshaw, math, Betty Zimmerlake, English, and Jacqueline Grady, Spanish. Teaching at Garner High School are Pauline Howell, English, Jenny Lou Taylor, home economics, and Julia Ann Forbes, English.

Class Spirit Mounts As Climax Approaches

The annual Stunt program of Meredith College will be presented on Friday, November 18, at eight o'clock in Jones Auditorium. Stunt is sponsored each year by the Meredith Athletic Association and is a student endeavor which is written, directed, and performed by the students.

Each of the original one-act skits of the four classes is judged on originality, plot, music, settings, programs, acting, and appropriateness. There can only be one change of scenery in each skit and themes of the programs can not consist of vaudeville, musical comedies, or take-offs on individuals.

Limits Set For Time, Expenses

The time limit for the freshmen and seniors is twenty-five minutes and thirty-minutes for the sophomores and juniors. No class can spend over sixty dollars in preparation of its stunt.

The faculty committee which previewed each stunt in its dress rehearsal included Dean Louise E. Fleming, chairman, Dr. Norma Rose, Miss Velma Gorsage, and Mrs. Wilbur Massey.

Names Of Judges Are Secret

Judges for Stunt are chosen by secret ballot by the Athletic Association Board. There are three judges from the Meredith faculty and two judges from outside the faculty. The names of these judges will not be revealed until the night of Stunt.

Kathleen Simmons, president of the Athletic Association, will preside at Stunt; and the order of presentation of the skits will be freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior.

Class Presidents, Chairmen Lead

The presidents and stunt chairmen of the respective classes are freshman: Joyce Stainback, president, and Sandy Brown, stunt chairman; sophomore: Linda Copley, president, and Vickie Glenn, stunt chairman; junior: Rachel Dailey, president, and Linda Kirby, stunt chairman; and senior: Bette Liles, president, and Mary Carol Warwick, stunt chairman.

The Meredith Ensemble, under the direction of Miss Beatrice Donley, will entertain during the judges' deliberation.

Sociology Students Engaged In Actual Social Work In Community

The sociology department of Meredith College under Dr. Leslie Syron offers "Introduction to Social Work," a pre-professional course that introduces students to the field of social work. This course is unique in comparison to other college courses in that it includes directed work in outside agencies.

Most students do not actually enter social work until doing graduate study; but by delving into different areas of social work, a student is more capable of selecting that branch for which she is best suited and which she finds most enjoyable.

Four Girls Work At Prison

The community of Raleigh has actively participated in letting the girls from Meredith who are taking the course, work in different organizations in the city. This year working on a research project at the Women's Prison are Carol Jones Barnes, Elizabeth Tucker, Barbara Jean Bumgarner, and Linda Marsh.

Group Helps With Therapy Program

Another group, Mary Margaret Fowler, Susan Self, and Helen

White, are doing recreational therapy at Dix Hospital. Working with young people at the Y.W.C.A. are Beth Boyette and Virginia Brooks. Linda Johnson is at the Wake County Employment Security Office, and Anice Martin is at the Wake County Department of Public Welfare.

One Student Is Located In Durham

Mary, Virginia Pittman is visiting clinics under the supervision of the Wake County Health Department. Ann Stallings is sitting in on staff discussions at the Mental Health Center, and Donna Tucker is working in the Raleigh Pre-School Clinic. In Durham Ann Hutchins Young is working with the Medical Social Service Department at the Veteran's Administration Hospital.

Underclassmen Participate

Dr. Syron states that she is also pleased by the fact that she has recruited three girls to work with the Girl Scouts and the Brownies. They are Kathryn Gravitt, a junior, and Mary Beth Hughes and Mary Alice Westall, both sophomores.
