

RICKER, WHITE, ATKINS ARE ELECTED

SILVER SHIELD TAPS 4 SENIORS

On Wednesday, March 15, the Silver Shield, Meredith's honorary leadership society, tapped into membership four seniors: Anne Britton, Betty Jo Kinlaw, Ann Rowe, and Kathleen Simmons.

These students were chosen by the society and the faculty on the basis of Christian character, constructive leadership, service to the school, and scholarship. The purpose of the Silver Shield is to foster a better spirit on the campus and to recognize outstanding girls who have contributed to life at Meredith.

As a part of the tapping service Dr. John M. Lewis, minister of Raleigh's First Baptist Church and formerly a member of the Meredith faculty, spoke concerning the essence of the qualities symbolized by the Silver Shield. The service was concluded with the singing of the Dedication Hymn.

Education Convention Attracts Students

The North Carolina Education Association Convention will be held on March 24 and March 25 in Asheville. The three voting delegates from Meredith College who will attend this convention are Margie Edwards, Anne Elder, and Barbara Sullivan.

At the opening meeting of this convention on Friday morning, the Meredith delegates will present the devotional thought. During this meeting Richard M. Carrigan, Assistant Secretary, National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards of the National Education Association, will address the group on the topic of "The 1970 Image."

Margie Edwards, president of the Meredith Chapter of the Student National Education Association, will be presented as a representative future teacher on Friday evening.

During the meeting on Saturday morning, there will be reports from the various chapters and election and installation of new officers.

Kappa Nu Sigma Taps Maness, Stuckey Society Recognizes Long and McGee

Kappa Nu Sigma, the honorary scholastic society on our campus, is pledged to the ideals of beauty, soundmindedness, and intelligence. Its aim is to encourage and uphold high scholastic excellence at Meredith.

Each year, Kappa Nu Sigma sponsors a chapel program in the fall and a lecture in the spring at which two members of the junior class are accepted as associate members, and two sophomores, holding the highest averages for their class, are recognized for their achievement.

This spring, the two new members are Martha Stuckey, of Raleigh, and Hilda Maness, from Thomasville. Martha, a history

Jubilant over their election to the three major campus offices and excited over prospects for a progressive 1961-62 are recently chosen Anne White, BSU president; Delores Atkins, AA president; and Nancy Ricker, SGA president.

ANNUAL SEMINAR TO BE TOMORROW

"Literary Pilgrimage" is the theme of the 19th annual Alumnae Seminar to be held at Meredith College on March 25. The seminar will be sponsored by the English department of the College.

The seminar will begin with a coffee hour to be held at 9:00 in the Alumnae House. At 10:00 in the small auditorium in Jones, Dr. Julia Harris, former head of the English department, will speak on the topic "Libraries Old and New." Next, President Carlyle Campbell will speak at 10:55 on "The Faust Legend."

After a brief question and answer period, the alumnae will go to Joyner Hall at 12:00 for the part of the program entitled "Wandering Paths." The women will choose among the activities of recording one's own voice, listening to poetry, and seeing slides of literary shrines.

At 1:00 lunch will be served in the College Dining Hall.

At 2:00, Dr. Mary Lynch Johnson will conclude the program with a lecture entitled "On Bokes for to Rede," in which she will discuss books read by important literary figures.

LeRoy Martin, Chairman Of Meredith's Board Of Trustees, Dies In Raleigh

On March 10, LeRoy B. Martin, chairman of the Meredith Board of Trustees, died at Rex Hospital after an extended illness. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Margaret C. Martin, a member of the Meredith faculty whose late husband served as business manager of the College for a number of years.

Vice-president and trust officer of the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company of Raleigh, Martin was a prominent leader in North Carolina educational and political circles. In addition to his interest in Meredith, he had served for more than 20 years as a member of the Raleigh School Board, which recently honored him by naming a new junior high school for him.

Martin, a graduate of Campbell College and Wake Forest College, had served as a coach and teacher at Campbell College. He was at one time Director of the State School Commission and later principle clerk to the State Senate. A founder and deacon of Hayes Barton Baptist Church of Raleigh, he was active throughout his life as a Baptist lay leader. At the time of his death he was vice-chairman of the State Baptist Convention's Committee for Advancement of Higher Education. In the city of Raleigh he was also prominent in civic organizations.

Martin participated in the work of the Young Men's Christian Association and was a member of the Raleigh Lions Club. He was influential in the work of the Democratic party both at the local level and at the state level.

He is survived by his wife, the former Miss Elva Arnold of Elkin, two sons and a daughter. The Martin family requested that contributions be made to the Meredith College Scholarship Fund in lieu of other expressions of sympathy.

Martha Stuckey and Hilda Maness, juniors recently inducted into Kappa Nu Sigma as associate members, chat informally in the Blue Parlor of Johnson Hall with Miss Lisa Sergio, who presented the annual Kappa Nu Sigma lecture on March 9.

OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN IN STUDENT ELECTIONS

With the advent of spring on the Meredith campus comes the annual election of the officers who will serve the school in the following year.

In the first slate elections Thursday, March 9, Nancy Ricker, Anne White, and Delores "Pedunk" Atkins were elected for the three chief positions in the school.

Nancy Ricker, who will serve as Student Government President next year, is a home economics major from Charlotte. While at Meredith Nancy has been very active in the Stunt activities of her class, serving on script committees two years and in the Stunt cast. She served last year as president of the sophomore class, and is currently serving on the Social Standards Committee.

Nancy is the junior representative to the Nominating Committee, and this fall she was one of two juniors inducted into Silver Shield for outstanding service in the Meredith community. Also this year Nancy acted as costume chairman for the Phi Supper Club, and this spring was chairman of classroom visitation for the religious Emphasis Week. Nancy serves in the Student Government Association as secretary.

Serving as the Baptist Student Union president next year will be Anne White. Anne is majoring in sociology and calls Oxford home. In her sophomore year Anne served as a freshman counselor as well as chaplain of the Phis. Anne is a member of the Sociology Club and is currently its vice-president.

She has worked with the B.S.U., this year serving as devotional chairman. Last semester Anne was the other junior inducted into Silver Shield for outstanding service to the school.

Delores Atkins from Durham, better known by her alias, "Pedunk," will pilot the Athletic Association next semester. Pedunk has worked extensively with Stunt since her freshman year when she was Stunt Chairman for her class. In her freshman year, also, Pedunk was chosen freshman representative to the A.A. Board.

A history major, Pedunk is a member of the International Relations Club and was chosen from Meredith for the State Student Legislature this year. Pedunk has high hopes for the A.A. next year. "One of our primary objectives for next year," she said, "will be to establish on the campus an even more enthusiastic attitude toward A.A. activities."

Rosa Lynn Gruits will be Acorn editor; Linda Kirby, Twig editor; Gwen Cooper, Oak Leaves editor; Ann Braswell, chief counselor; Jane Link, secretary of S.G.; Nicky Childrey, secretary of A.A.; and Peggy Klick, business manager of Oak Leaves.

Beth Woodall will be devotional chairman of BSU; Kathy Roberts, president of Day Students; Virginia Browning, secretary of Day Students; and Nancy Evans, secretary of B.S.U.

Carol Heck will be president of Stringfield Dorm, and there will be a run-off between Rachel Dailey and Mary Lou Nichols for president of Vann. Vann vice-presidents will be Pat Shuman, first floor; Elizabeth Haywood, second floor; Annette McFall, third floor; and Bobbie Heffner, fourth floor. The Stringfield vice-presidents will be Betsy York, first floor; Harriet Rivers, second floor; Brenda Bunn, third floor; and Ann Parker, fourth floor.
