

CLUB NEWS

French Club

On Monday, November 6, Les Amies Francaises held their first meeting of the year. The meeting began with the election of officers which are as follows: president, Amelia Robinson; vice-president, Judy Avery; and secretary-treasurer, Margaret McGuirt.

Dr. Suzanne Freund, club sponsor, told the group of her summer trip to Paris for study at the Sorbonne and highlighted this by showing them pictures of the city.

The group decided to have only four meetings during the year, two per semester, as well as a Christmas party.

Business Club

Tomorrow's Business Club held its monthly meeting on November 8 in the Alumnae House. The guest speaker was Mr. Walter A. Watts of the firm Watts and Byrd, CPA in Raleigh. Mr. Watts' talk was concerned with accounting and graduate study which followed the club theme for the year, "Your Future in Business."

The club voted to sponsor the annual Christmas mailing list again

FACULTY MEMBERS ATTEND MEETINGS

On Thursday, November 2, Dr. Ethel Tilley of the Meredith faculty spoke at Salem College. The college presented a series of four addresses on "Identity and Anxiety in Contemporary Society." Dr. Tilley spoke from the viewpoint of social psychology.

Luncheon Held in Greensboro

Miss Mae Grimmer, Alumnae Secretary, was present at the Meredith luncheon at the Tropicana Steak House during the meeting of the Baptist State Convention in Greensboro on November 15. President Carlyle Campbell was speaker for the event.

Dr. Wallace Travels to Tennessee

Dr. Lillian Parker Wallace head of the department of history attended the twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Southern Historical Association in Chattanooga, Tennessee, November 9-11.

At the annual meeting, lectures were given on European history as well as Southern history. While Dr. Wallace was at the conference, she attended both the section lectures on European history headed by Dr. Carl Pegg, head of the department of history of the University of North Carolina, and the general session lectures.

Dr. Cooper Will Attend Convention

Dr. Harry E. Cooper will represent Meredith College at the thirty-seventh annual convention of the National Association of Schools of Music to be held in Denver the last week in November. The N.A.S.M. has been designated by the National Committee on Accrediting as the agency responsible for accreditation of all music degree curricula. Meredith has received a re-examination this year which continues its successful accreditation for another ten-year span. A former music student of Dr. Cooper's, Dr. George Howerton, chairman of the department of music at Northwestern University in Chicago will be one of the convention speakers.

this year and began making plans to complete this list in time for sale to Meredith students.

The Club's annual Christmas Party will be held on December 7 at the S&W cafeteria.

Home Economics

Sybill Williams, president of Meredith's Home Economics Club; Jean Davenport; and Elizabeth Haywood represented Meredith at the meeting of the North Carolina Home Economics Association, November 10-11 at the Greensboro Coliseum. They were accompanied by Miss Ellen Brewer, head of Meredith's home economics department and Miss Jennie M. Hanyen.

There were over four hundred representatives at the convention. The theme of the meeting was "Changing Values in a Changing World." Speakers for the meeting were Dr. Alfred P. Haake of General Motors, author and lecturer; Dr. William M. Smith, Jr., professor of family relations at Pennsylvania State; and Dr. Albert G. Edwards, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh. Miss Margaret Blee from the Public Health Department of UNC was the speaker at the last session.

In addition to this convention, the students representatives attended a special session of the North Carolina Home Economics Student Clubs.

Members of the home economics department helped with Meredith's annual Founder's Day reception on November 9.

HINSON, SIMMS GIVE PROGRAM AT MEREDITH

On November 8 a duo-recital was presented in Jones Auditorium. Dr. Grady Maurice Hinson, pianist, and Dr. John Norman Simms, tenor, presented a varied program of sacred and secular works. Dr. Hinson graduated from the University of Florida and later received his Doctorate of Music Arts from the University of Michigan. He has been an Assistant Professor of Church Music at the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville since 1957.

Dr. Simms graduated from Stetson University and later received his Doctorate of Sacred Music from Union Theological Seminary. He has been an Assistant Professor of Church Music at the seminary in Louisville since 1958.

The program included four arias for tenor voice, "Fifteen Variations and Fugue in E Flat" by Beethoven, various selections from "Songs on Spanish Lyrics" by Wolf, four Chopin piano selections, and concluded with "Candlelight" (a cycle of nursery jingles) by Warlock.

AA, BSU, SG, SPONSOR SERIES

(Continued from page 1)
younger is a sophomore at Carolina. Her husband, Dr. Arnold Nash, is a member of the religion department at the University and has written several books.

Seniors line up on Brewer breezeway before Founders' Day procession.

Seniors Don Caps and Gowns For First Time at Celebration

The Senior Class donned scholarly regalia for the first time as they dressed for the Founders' Day celebration on Thursday, November 9.

The morning chapel service was the occasion for the formal attire, after which caps and gowns were returned to storage until June and graduation exercises.

Speaker for the morning was Dr. Clyde A. Milner, President of Guilford College. Other participants in the program were Dr. Carlyle Campbell, Dr. L. A. Peacock, and Rev. W. W. Finlator, minister of Pullen Memorial Baptist Church.

Later events of the day, for which classes were suspended after the morning service, included a tea in the afternoon given for guests and seniors by the faculty and staff of the college, with the faculty members composing the receiving line.

The chief event of the evening was the dedication of the new organ, highlighted by a program of music by Dr. Harry E. Cooper of the music faculty. The organ, a gift of Mrs. G. T. Cornwell of Morganton, an alumna of Meredith, replaces the old one in the small auditorium of Jones Hall.

AA Sponsors Class Competition

For the past weeks the Athletic Association has been occupied with one of the best-loved traditions of Meredith College—the annual Stunt Night. In all the tumult of Stunt preparations, students have been participating in another annual event sponsored by the AA. The volley ball tournament is raising keen competition among the four classes.

On Tuesday, November 7, the sophomores won over the freshmen. On Tuesday, November 14, the juniors, who were scheduled to play the seniors, won by a forfeit. The championship match will be on November 21. Come out and support your class or sister class.

Classes defeated and victorious will have a chance to compete again in the annual basketball tournament. The time of the tournament will be announced at a later date.

The AA wishes much luck to all participants in Stunt.

Johnson's Jewelers

Catering to Brides
309 Fayetteville Street
Raleigh, North Carolina

McCOMMONS SHOE SERVICE

Cameron Village
TE 4-2409

NEWTON'S, INC. LAUNDRY—CLEANERS

Cameron Village
Ridgewood Shopping Center
Wash and Dry Service

VILLA CAPRI RESTAURANT

3625 HILLSBORO STREET
DIAL TE 4-2086

OFFERING YOU THE BEST IN ITALIAN FOODS AND PIZZA

OPEN SUNDAYS
OPEN 'TILL 11 O'CLOCK P.M.

For the Best in Cosmetics Visit—

VILLAGE PHARMACY
CAMERON VILLAGE
DIAL TE 3-1507

Village

BOOK & STATIONERY, INC.

CAMERON VILLAGE
RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

BOOKS
GIFTS
STATIONERY
OFFICE SUPPLIES
CARDS
FRAMES

COLUMBIA

MASTERWORKS

Robert Schumann
Symphony No. 4
Leonard Bernstein
New York
Philharmonic
Monaural
&
Stereo

STEPHENSON'S MUSIC CO.

Cameron Village
Open Fridays 'Till 9:00

RIDGEWOOD BEAUTY SHOP

"At the back door of Meredith"
8 Operators Including Stylist,
Mr. Edwards
FULL TIME MANICURIST
Dial TE 3-4634

RIDGEWOOD SHOE SERVICE

In Ridgewood ShoppingCenter

Specializing in Dye
Work and all
Ladies' Shoe Service
"Have your skin shoes
reglazed"

Dial VA 8-7141

VESTER'S 66 SERVICE

BRAKE RELINING & SERVICE

Monday—Saturday
7:30 a.m.—9:00 p.m.

Just Behind Meredith

Dial TE 4-1610

Charm Bracelets and Unusual Gifts

Watch & Jewelry
Repair

BOSSE JEWELERS

129 Fayetteville Street