Editorials

HARKNESS PRESENTS CHALLENGE TO MEREDITH

The fact that Kappa Nu Sigma has been able to engage Georgia Harkness to present the spring lecture is a fortunate opportunity for Meredith. Not only her scholarship, but her clear manner of presenting her ideas make her a person who will doubtless speak directly to our needs and understanding. Those who have read her work in Biblical study and interpretation of Christian concepts know her unusual combination of direct perception and simplicity of presentation.

We are limiting ourselves, however, if we stop in our appreciation of Georgia Harkness at her writings. We can gain much from having her here on this campus; but perhaps one of the most outstanding things will be a perspective for ourselves, for we as Meredith students have in common with her a quite important thing. We, too, are women who will, most of us, represent Christianity to at least some number of people. Whether we now realize it or not, our education at Meredith in the subject of religion has been of rare quality. This is not to say that by the time we are seniors we have all the answers and know exactly what to do for the world. Quite the contrary: perhaps the greatest thing we have learned is not a set of answers but the right questions; and our real and sometimes painful problem after graduation will be to lead our friends and husbands and children to see the importance of those questions.

Such questions have been out of fashion lately in the general activities of our society. Our hurry to advance in business and industry a world alone, even when she is has left little time to consider questions about history's meaning and the worth of people and God revealed. As graduates of a liberal arts and a Christian-oriented school most of us will find ourselves in possession of ideas that are different in many respects from those of our associates. We will be forced either to find expression for concepts that will often seem obscure and strange or to lose them ourselves.

Few of us will be writers as Georgia Harkness is; but all of us have two obligations. One is to decide, by self-involved study, what are our religious beliefs. The other is to consider how we will preserve and express them, be they traditional or revolutionary, among people who can build rocket ships and man them more easily than they can say a creed and risk their lives in its implications.

—H.J.M.

MEMBER Associated Collegiate Press

EDITORIAL STAFF

Edito.

Editor	Linda Kirby
Associate Editor	Hilda Maness
Managing Editor	Dianne Simmons
Feature Editor	Joan McGranahan
Sports Editor	Judy Crouch
Music Editor	Susan Leathers
Columnists	Rachel Dailey
	Velma McGee
Photographer	Kappie Weede
Reporters—Jean Hege Indiv Graveon Margaret McCuirt Voy Durne Michael
Uniterey, Frieda Farmer, Carroll Hicks, Millie Pe	earce and Nancy Williams
Faculty Sponsor.	Dr. Norma Rose
RUSINESS STADE

BUSINESS STAFF
Business Manager	Indu Martin
Advertising Manager	Pater Revent
Circulation Managers	Brenda Payne and Sulvia Noch
Mailing Editor	Gwen Picklesimer
Chief Typist	Linda Halan
TypistsJoyce Collie, Harriet Rivers, Ju	Idv Young
Advertising Staff. Carolun Nichalds Bot To	71 Y 75 W =

Advertising Staff-Carolyn Nicholds, Pat Taylor, Lou Perry, June Lawrence, Patty Steen Faculty Sponsor.....

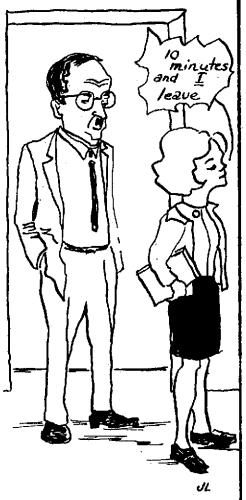

Entered as second-class matter October 11, 1923, at post office at Raleigh, N. C., under Act of March 8, 1879. Published semi-monthly during the months of October, November, and April; monthly during the months of December, January, February, March, and May. The Twig is the college newspaper of Meredith College, Raleigh, North Carolina, and as such is one of the three major publications of the institution—the other two being The Acon, the literary magazine, and The Oak Leaves, the college annual.

Meredith College is an accredited senior liberal arts college for women located in the capital city of North Carolina. It confers the Bachelor of Arts and the Bachelor of Music degrees. The college offers majors in twenty-one fields including music, art, business and home economics.

home economics.

Since 1921 the institution has been a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The college holds membership in the Association of American Colleges and the North Carolina College Conference. Graduates of Meredith College are eligible for membership in the American Association of University Women. The institution is a liberal arts member of the National Association of Schools of Music. Subscription Rates: $2.95 per year

THE Twig is served by National Advertising Service, Inc., 420 Madison Ave., New York 17, New York.

By RACHEL DAILEY

A flake here, a flake there, and it is snowing. The whirling whiteness makes one feel as if she is in walking to and from class. The tiny excitement-charged ions touch the hair, making it a shiny halo of glitter — touch the eyes, making them blink in childlike exuberance touch the hands, causing them to clutch at the tiny stars — touch the feet, magically moving them to skip along, picking their way quickly among the patches of ice and water. And still the flakes keep falling. Outside the windows late at night, the swirling snow whirls up and down and about picking up the lights and becoming minute pinpricks against the dark of the leaden sky. And in the morning the world is white; the heavens are hidden by the crowd of dancing specks; the green of the trees is contrasted by the milky stuff that sticks to them on one side. The frosty mass covers everything, hiding the mistakes of nature, enhancing the beauty spots. The rooms take on a supernatural glow, and eyes studying cannot help but stray to the new and strange world outdoors.

But soon the magic is gone. Puddles take the place of drifts, and ice goes away to mud. Soggy ground and churned clay hazard walking, and the air is warmer.

Yet in the hearts of those who are aware of life, the snow lives on in the mind, swirling and whirling and capturing the senses.

KAPPA NU SIGMA WILL SPONSOR EVENING LECTURE

The Meredith chapter of Kappa Nu Sigma will have its annual banquet on Monday, April 9. The banquet will honor Georgia Harkness, guest speaker, who will give a lecture to the student body in Jones Auditorium at 8:00 p.m. on the same

COUNCIL WORKS ON POSSIBILITIES OF EXTENDING SATURDAY HOURS

begin work again on certain legis- Chapel Hill area would benefit. lative matters which need attendweek-ends in Raleigh.

have felt that a good solution to this problem would be the exten-1:00 a.m.

body at large, has discussed such not misuse it.

Now that the new constitution a possibility. Not only would the has been completed and passed by week-end situation be greatly imthe student body, the Student Gov- proved by the new plan, but also ernment Council has been able to students who date in the Durham-

However, at the present time ing to. A problem that has become there are complaints, especially on particularly acute during the past first Vann, about the noise on the few weeks is that of girls taking hall at 12:00. Because the people not dating on Saturday nights would Miss Fleming recently explained most likely be in bed by 1:00, the in chapel the position of the school problem could become even more in this matter and the reason for serious, were the hour to be exsome restrictions set up by the Dean tended. This is where the students of Students Office. Many people will have to take the initiative and

The extension of the Saturday sion of the Saturday night closing night closing hour will have to be hour from 12:00 midnight until discussed further before anything can come of it. However, the pos-A committee, headed by Melinda sibilities at the present seem good Corpening and made up of students for its success, if the students agree from the Council and the student to use the privilege maturely and

Dianne Simmons to Be Editor Of Twig for Coming Year

The Twig will be sporting a versatile new editor when Dianne Simmons takes over her duties for the 1962-63 school year.

While at Mt. Airy High School, Dianne was active in many clubs and organizations. Being interested in athletics, she played on the basketball team as a guard for four years. Dianne was also in the Glee Club and served as chaplain for the Tri-Hi-Y. Her scholastic achievements earned her membership in the National Honor Society, and, consequently, she was chosen as a school marshal.

Dianne's interest in journalism first developed when she enrolled in a class of journalism her senior year and was elected editor-inchief of the local school paper, the High Spots.

Her interests at Meredith have ranged from athletics — she served on the A.A. Board and is a member of the Monogram Club — to the organ of student opinion. dramatics - she has been an active member of the playhouse — to Dianne Simmons as editor for 1962religious activities — she has been on the B.S.U. Council and has served as a committee chairman for Religious Emphasis Week — to journalism — she has the job of managing editor of the Twio this

As managing editor this year, Dianne has worked with lay-outs,

Dianne Simmons

student-run newspaper and hopes with her new position to be able to enlarge the TwiG's function as

We of the Twig welcome

Bernstein Directs Carmen Presentation

"The Drama of Carmen," a study head-writing, and proof-reading, as of Georges Bizet's opera was rewell as news-writing. While work- cently presented on television under ing on the Twig, Dianne has the direction of Leonard Bernstein realized the great possibilities of a with the New York Philharmonic.

The cast included a well known group of artists. Performing the title role of Carmen in her first American television appearance was Jane Rhodes, a French mezzo-The Reverend Charles L. Mar- soprano who first played Carmen at

Playing opposite Miss Rhodes as Don Jose was tenor, William Olvis, chapel service Wednesday, March another member of the Metropolitan Opera Company. Soprano Lee Rev. Charles L. Martin, Jr., Vernora and Baritone William Chapman also played important parts in

Maestro Bernstein used the original Opera - Comique version of vention. Currently on furlough in "Carmen" (1875), with dialogue spoken between the arias instead of sionary personnel associate for the the later grand opera form in which > Actress Zohra Lampert and actor James Congdon appeared in the dialogue sequences as Carmen and Don Jose.

Bernstein by using the dialogue form shows how much the character of both Carmen and Don Jose are made more believable by the dialogue.

Mr. Bernstein after each sesociate pastor of Mejiro ga Oka quence, explained the meaning of Baptist Church, Tokyo, teaches a the preceding section showing how ent members of the Kappa Nu Bible class for students there, and music is used to develop charac-Sigma, which is sponsored by Dr. writes curriculum material for the terization and plot, and how "Car-Norma Rose, are Hilda Maness and Japan Baptist Convention's training men" is tragedy developed through (Continued on page 4)

Also being honored at the affair will be two members of the Junior Class invited to associate membership on the basis of their scholarship. At the lecture the two sophomores with the highest grade averages will also be recognized. In addition to the president, Martha Stuckey, prestin Ir., an associate secretary in the the Metropolitan in 1960. youth department of the Japan Baptist Convention, spoke during the Southern Baptist missionary, is associate secretary, in charge of student the production. evangelism, in the youth department of the Japan Baptist Conthe states, he is serving as mis-Foreign Mission Board, assisting in recitatives were sung. work among college students.

MARTIN SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

Mr. Martin leads in the developing Baptist Student Union program of the Japan Baptist Convention and assists in other phases of youth work. His headquarters are in Tokyo, where there are 74 universities and approximately 300,-000 students.

In addition to his responsibilities for student work, he serves as as-