

Seniors Harriet Cole, Betsy Benthall, and Jean Ratchford fit caps and gowns which they will wear for the first time on Founder's Day.

Dr. Arnold Nash To Be Principal Speaker For Traditional Founder's Day Exercises

Founder's Day, the traditional celebration of the birthday of the college, is to be held Thursday, November 8. The special occasion will be the first time that seniors dress in academic regalia.

Dr. Nash To Speak

The principal speaker for the eleven o'clock program is Dr. Arnold Nash, outstanding author and lecturer. Born in England, Dr. Nash is now a naturalized American citizen holding graduate degrees in chemistry, economics, and philosophy. Ordained in the church of England, he has been director of Student Christian Organizations in England. At the present, Dr. Nash is professor of religion at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill.

College To Hold Reception

From 4:30-6:00 in the afternoon, the college is sponsoring a reception in the parlor of Johnson Hall, to which the graduating seniors, faculty and administration, and other friends of the college are invited. Among those in the reception line will be Dr. and Mrs. Campbell, the President of the Board of Trustees and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. L. M. Massey, and all new members of the faculty and administration. The elaborate food for the occasion will be prepared by the home economics department.

Professor Lawenstein to Open Series on October 31

On October 31, 1962 at 7:00, Mr. Allard K. Lawenstein, a member of the social studies department at N. C. State College will open a new series entitled, "Images of Man," which is being co-sponsored by the B.S.U. and the Student Activities Board.

phrey. Mr. Lawenstein is interested in education and has worked with the United Nations in this field. He has also served as President of the United States National Student Association.

Political Activities

Mr. Lawenstein has many other political activities. He was a representative of South West African Tribes at the United Nations. In 1960 Mr. Lawenstein was an alternate delegate to the Democratic National Convention. He worked with the Young Democrats in 1956 and was chairman of Students for Stevenson in 1952. He has written a book, Brutal Mandate, which was released by MacMillan Publishers.

Purpose Of Series

The purpose of the series is to show the influence of vocation on ones world view. Meredith professors as well as professors from other schools and other professional persons will be featured throughout the series.

UNC Graduate

Mr. Lawenstein received his A.B. degree at the University of North Carolina in 1949. After receiving his L.L.B. at Yale Law School, he returned to the University to do graduate work in history. He also did graduate work in international law at Georgetown University.

Varied Interests

Before coming to N. C. State, Mr. Lawenstein was Assistant Dean of Men and a lecturer in political science at Stanford University. He practiced law in New York City and later served as foreign policy assistant to Senator Herbert Hum-

Baptist Student Union Plans Convention In November

The theme of the annual state B.S.U. Convention to be held in the Temple Baptist Church in Durham, North Carolina on the weekend of November 2-4 will be "God's Redemptive Love." The purpose of this theme is to explore the concept of missions today and to make an attempt to determine its importance in the modern world.

Blane To Be Featured

A graduate student at Harvard University, Andy Blane, who has recently returned from a year's study in Russia, will head the list of program personalities.

Bill Lawson, who was the B.S.U. director at Texas Southern University in Houston, Texas, for several years will lead the worship part of the program.

Peace Corps Director To Speak

Bill Mayers, who is the associate director of public affairs for the Peace Corps, will also be one of the speakers. Howard Houde, pastor of the Madison Baptist Church in Madison, New Jersey, and Bill Dyal, an associate in the department of missionary personnel of the Foreign Mission Board will also participate in the program for the convention.

Haselden To Speak At Faculty Dinner

Managing editor of The Christian Century, Dr. Kyle Haselden will speak at the faculty dinner on Saturday evening.

The convention, which will begin on Friday afternoon with registration, will be attended by several hundred B.S.U. members from the seven North Carolina Baptist colleges.

THE HEIRESS TO BE PRESENTED BY PLAYHOUSE

On November 2-3 at 8:00 p.m., the play entitled The Heiress by Ruth and Augustus Goetz, will be presented in Jones Auditorium. The setting of the play is the year 1850 in New York City. The plot concerns a plain, but wealthy, daughter of a doctor who is threatened by her father with disinheritance if she marries a young fortune hunter.

The cast is as follows: Catherine Sloper, Maxine Jones; Mrs. Montgomery, June Leonard; Elizabeth Almond, Linda Pulliam; Maria Almond, Carol Bagby; Marian Almond, Paula Brown; Lavinia Pennington, Jerrie Preston Bibb; Arthur Townsend, Gus Reavis; Morris Townsend, Larry Baucom; and Dr. Austin Sloper, Ray Ellington III.

The committee chairmen are: publicity, Margaret Rackley; costumes, Elizabeth Haywood; lighting, Andra Smith; properties, Virginia Browning; programs, Christine Stallings; set, Peggy Pruitt; make-up, Jean Poole Smith; sound, Frances Gorham.

Dr. Arnold Nash.

Club To Center Interest On Arts

"Literature and the Arts" is the theme in which the Colton English Club will center its programs for the year. At each of its monthly meetings, one of the arts is to be discussed in its relationship to literature.

Pat Hutchins, president of the club, presented the October program on subjects of art taken from literature. Dr. Campbell is to be the speaker at the November meeting to be held at the S & W cafeteria.

December Program—Music And Literature

The December program, literature and music, is to be led by Berna Jean Davenport, who will emphasize Christmas music, the themes of which are taken from literature. January's meeting will be under the direction of the Creative Writing Club. Members of the club will read the best of their creative efforts.

Williams And Christian To End Series

The final programs in the series will be given during the first two months of the spring semester. Nancy Williams is in charge of the February program. Her topic is literature from operas and ballets. Carol Christian will conclude the series with a program on literature and sculpture.

Other projects for the year include sponsoring Suthie Joseph, an orphan from India, and the annual book auction to be held in the spring.

Ground-Breaking Ceremony For New Additions Highlights Twenty-Ninth Alumnae Council Meeting

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the new additions to the Alumnae House highlighted the annual twenty-ninth Alumnae Council meeting on Saturday, October 20, 1962. The ceremony was presided over by Mrs. Jack Morris (the former Mrs. Margaret Martin formerly of the foreign language department).

Several Participate In The Ceremony

Others participating in the ceremony were Dr. Carlyle Campbell, President of the college; Mrs. Charles Sullivan, President of the Alumnae Association; Miss Mae Grimmer, Executive Secretary of the Alumnae Association; Mrs. Foy Johnson Farmer, trustees' representative; Jane Link, student body representative; nine past presidents of the Alumnae Association, and twelve chapter presidents.

Two New Wings To Be Added

The two new wings which will be added will contain three offices and four guest rooms.

At the meeting it was also announced that the annual seminar to be held April 6 will be sponsored by the science department.

Dr. Campbell Speaks

Dr. Campbell was speaker at the general meeting after which the class representatives and chapter representatives met separately.

Participating in the ground breaking ceremony were Mrs. R. Jack Morris, Mrs. Charles Sullivan, Dean L. A. Peacock, Miss Mae Grimmer, and Mrs. L. R. Harrill.

COMING UP

- October 27 Chamber Music
- October 30 Friends of the College Concert
- November 2-4 State B.S.U. Convention
- November 6 Tomorrow's Business Women
- Art Club S.A.I.
- November 7 Nominating Committee Creative Writing Club Friends of the College Concert
- November 8 Founders' Day Beginning of Block Exams
- November 9-10 Block Exams