

College Trustees Meet February 26

The Board of Trustees of Meredith College convened Tuesday, February 26, for the second meeting of the year with nineteen of the twenty-eight members present. The business before them consisted of reports by Dr. Sankie Blanton, Director of Public Relations, Howard Belcher, Secretary-Treasurer of the Board, and recommendations by Dr. Carlyle Campbell, college president.

Mr. Belcher reported that the college had recently received gifts from the First Baptist Church of Greensboro, the late Mrs. Charles Edward Brewer, and a grant from the Mary Reynolds Babcock Foundation. In addition, he stated that Meredith will share in the $100,000 estate of T. F. Pettis to be administered by the North Carolina Baptist Foundation.

Recommendations to the Board, by Dr. Campbell, which were accepted were an increase in student fees of $40 for tuition, $10 for residence, and an increase in teachers' salaries of $300 to $400. The teachers' retirement program was also expanded by the removal of the $6,000 ceiling. The professors will now receive retirement benefits based on their entire salaries, five per cent to (Continued on page 6)

Organist and Wife To Perform Here

The Concerts and Lectures Committee will present Thomas Curtis, organist, and his wife Louise Curtis, soprano, in a joint recital in the Recital Hall, Jones Auditorium on March 4 and 5 at 8:00 p.m.

This concert will not be required and is open to all Meredith students. Because of lack of space in the recital hall, the same program will be offered on both evenings.

Mr. Curtis, who comes from Pennsylvania, received his education at Duke, Michigan, and Boston Universities and at Union Theological Seminary. Since that time he has appeared in numerous recitals. Presently, he is serving as Minister of Music at First Congregational Church, Elyria, Ohio. In addition to his musical interests, he is also active in many community organizations in Elyria.

A native of Massachusetts, Mrs. Curtis received her musical training in Boston and New York. As a church, oratorio, and recital soloist, she, like her husband, has had wide musical experience. Much of Mrs. Curtis's time, however, is spent at home with the Curtis family which includes two children, a son and a daughter.

Although they have heavy schedules, both husband and wife find time to read. As a family project, outings during the summer in their tent trailer are a must.

The Registration Fee of $25.00 for a student now at Meredith who wishes to reserve a room for next session (1963-64) "must be paid before March 1, 1963." This fee will be credited on the account of those students who re-enter in September 1963. The fee will be refunded if the request is received by June 15, 1963.

Registration Books Open Today First Slate To Be Elected March 7

Election officials, Galloway and McPhaul, discuss procedures.

The Meredith student body will begin elections for campus offices for 1963-1964. The nominating committee has already been at work setting the preliminary questions of registration and election dates, polls, and officials. Carol Calloway has been selected to fill the position of registrar; and the registration date has been set for Thursday, February 28. Registration books will be open from 8:20 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on the first floor of each dormitory and in the day students' room. Everyone who wishes to vote must register.

First Slate March

One week after registration, elections will begin. First slate election will be on March 7; the second slate, March 21. Voting hours and polls will be the same as for registration—8:20 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. in the day students' room and in each dormitory. Each girl must vote in her own precinct. Election Chairman, Ellen McPhaul, and the elections judges will supervise the voting process. Freshmen judges are Marion Bunch, Elizabeth Nieuwenhuis, and Nell Wilkerson; Verona Chow, Donna Haverstock, and Cindy Swain fill the same position for the sophomores.

Having settled these preliminary problems, the nominating committee is now getting down to the task of nominations. Straw ballots were given out on Tuesday, February 19. Using these ballots as guides, the committee began nominating students for offices on Monday, February 25.

Members of Committee

Serving this year on the nominating committee, of which Frances

Knight is chairman, are the following: Jane Link, Mary Frances Carver, Velma McGee, and Judy Avery, representatives from the Student Government Association; Sylvia Cooper, B.S.U. president; and Nancy Jones, A.A. president. Berma Jean Davenport, Peggy Klick, and Nancy Williams, editors of the Acorn, Oak Leaves, and Twig respectively are also members, as are society presidents Brenda Bunn and Joan Strickland. The day students are represented on the committee by their president, Judy Swain, and by Martha Elliot. Harriett Rivers, Chief Counselor, Helen Daniel, College Marshall, and June Leonard, Playhouse president fill positions of this committee. The four class presidents — Mary Lou Davis, Martha Rivers, Marion Welch, and Kay Taylor are also members. Each class, except the senior class, has additional class representatives, who are the following: Marie Louise Allen and Betty Godwin, juniors; sophomores, Nell Cox and Kathy Ratley; freshmen, Mary Haverstock and Carlton Lipscomb. In addition, there are three faculty members: Dr. Susanne Freund, Dr. Norma Rose, and Mr. Richard Goff.

(Continued on page 6)

Mock UN Assembly—The Scene Of Opportunity, Confusion and Ideas

On February 21-23 three hundred students from sixty-one colleges and universities attended the Middle South Model United Nations General Assembly at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Sandra Sue Horton, Sandra Fisher, Lou Mathis, Fran Johnson, and Diane Daugherty from Meredith College represented Bolivia. Serving as alternates were Ann Noce, Claire Bolton, Murilla Oates, Sue Ellen Moody, Margaret Strickland, Linda Thomas, and Martha McMakin. These delegates attended meetings of the five standing committees and then returned to the General Assembly where their resolutions were acted upon.

The delegation from the United States Air Force Academy, representing the United States, and the UNC delegation, representing the USSR, were superior and set the pace for the entire session. The President of the plenary session, Duke Marston of Duke, summed up (Continued on page 6)

Dr. Wayne Oates, Leader

The conference leader will be Dr. (Continued on page 5)

Aim of Conference Is Religious Truths

The Raleigh Intercollegiate Conference will take place this year in the State College E. B. King Religious Center.

This year's conference will convene at 2 p.m. on Saturday, March 9. Dr. Wayne Oates will be heard twice on Saturday and a third time on Sunday morning. The conference will close with 11:00 worship on Sunday, March 10. The worship will be the Celebration of Holy Communion in the Episcopal form.

Study Topic

Study will be centered in the meaning of Jesus the Christ for the student's search for his selfhood, or self identity. The meaning of Christ will be interpreted theologically and as communicated to us in the bib-

B.S.U. Forum Discussion to be Led By Dr. William Hardman Poteat

On March 6, at 7:00 p.m. in 103 Joyner Hall, the third of a series of B.S.U. forums will be led by Dr. William Hardman Poteat. His topic will be "Kierkegaard and Wittgenstein." In his discussion of philosophy today Dr. Poteat will continue the year's theme of "A Study of Twentieth Century Culture." He will also address the student body at the morning chapel service.

William H. Poteat

Dr. Poteat was born in Kaifeng, Honan, China. After receiving his A.B. degree from Oberlin College and his B.D. degree from Yale University Divinity School, he was a fellow of the National Council on Religion in Higher Education and received his Ph.D. from Duke University. His scholastic achievements won him a Phi Beta Kappa membership.

For several years he was associate professor of Philosophy at the University of North Carolina. At the Episcopal Theological Seminary of the Southwest, he was professor of Philosophical Theology and Christian Criticism. He is now at Duke University as associate professor of Christianity and Culture.

Dr. Poteat's professional affiliations include the American Philosophical Association, the National Council on Religion in Higher Education, and the Southern Society of Philosophy and Psychology.

College Calendar

- February 28
- I.R.C.
  - Alumnae House .....7:00 p.m.
  - Religion Movie .....7:00 p.m.
  - Auditorium
- March 1
- Art Exhibit
  - Gallery .....7:30-9:30 p.m.
- March 4
- Concert Auditorium ....8:00 p.m.
- March 5
- Creative Writing .....7:00 p.m.
  - First Stringfield
  - S.A.I. ....7:00 p.m.
  - Concert Auditorium ....8:00 p.m.
- March 6
- B.S.U. Forum .....7:00 p.m.
  - 103 Joyner
  - Playhouse 202 Joyner.....7:00 p.m.
  - Spanish Club .....7:00 p.m.
  - Faculty Parlor
  - New Arts Concert.....8:00 p.m.
  - State College
- March 7
- Societies .....7:00 p.m.
- March 8
- Chamber Music .....8:00 p.m.
  - Auditorium
  - Spring Concert .....8:00 p.m.
  - Band and Glee Club
  - State College
- March 9
- Movie Auditorium .....7:00 p.m.
  - Chamber Arts Duke....8:00 p.m.
- March 12
- Student League .....7:00 p.m.
  - Alumnae House
  - Y.W.C.A.
  - First Brewer .....7:00 p.m.
  - S.A.I. ....7:00 p.m.
- March 13
- English Club .....4:00-6:00 p.m.
  - Faculty Parlor
  - Book Tea
  - Sociology Club Hut.....7:00 p.m.