Mr. Davison Joins Staff as New Watchman

Mr. Earl Davison will replace Mr. R. L. Herndon as night watchman on Monday and Tuesday nights, each week, according to Mr. David Olmsted, college business manager.

It is at "Pops" request that the college has hired Mr. Davison. Mr. Herndon asked to be given two free nights a week, since his previous working hours had been quite long. Mr. Parker will also continue to assist "Pops."

Railroad Job

Mr. Davison is originally from Youngstown, Ohio, where he served as yard conductor with the Erie-Lacawanna Railway. He now lives in the Worthdale section of Raleigh. His wife and twenty-one-year-old daughter preferred the Capital City to Durham or Wilson.

The new watchman has attended college and is not satisfied to sit at home, he stated. Therefore, he has agreed to take the position here.

In addition to the job here, Mr. Davison is also working with teenage groups at Tabernacle Baptist Church.

Mr. Olmsted remarked that the college is lucky to have such a person on its staff.

The Elva Bryan McIver Amphitheater will be completed in April. Here it is seen from the large island.

Business manager, Mr. David Olmsted has stated that the lake and Elva Bryan McIver Amphitheater now under construction should be completed by the middle of April.

Although the amphitheater is virtually completed, he said, there remains several smaller matters to be completed. The lighting and walkways are not yet complete, and a vault to be used for electrical purposes has to be dug. In addition, a bridge to be constructed to the smaller of the two islands in the lake has not yet been built. Treated poles will be placed at the northeastern end of the lake to prevent erosion.
