Meredith Graduation Exercises Include Class Activity, Socials, and Speeches

The Meredith College commencement program will begin on Saturday, May 30. The sophomore class will begin the day by picking daisies for the traditional daisy chain. At 9:30 a.m., there will be a meeting of Kappa Nu Sigma, which will be followed by a meeting of the Alumnae Association. Dr. Patricia Smathers of Chapel Hill will address the group. Following the meeting, the alumnae will proceed to the school cafeteria for lunch.

Class Day

Open House will be held in the Mac Grimmer House at 2:30 and will be followed by Class Day Exercises at 4:30. The seniors will march into the court where they will be sung to by the sophomore class. The little sister class will carry the daisy chain, which they will have made earlier in the day. They will then proceed to the front of Johnson Hall, where they will form a '64 and sing to their big sisters.

In the evening, the Meredith College Chorus, under the direction of Miss Beatrice Donley, will give a concert at 8:00. Following the concert, there will be a meeting of the Silver Shield.

Sunday Activities

On Sunday, May 31, the Baccalaureate Sermon will be held at 11:00. The Reverend Carlyle Marney, minister of Myers Park Baptist Church in Charlotte, will speak. At 4:30 on Sunday afternoon, a recital for organ and strings will be given by Mr. Stephen Young. The recital will be followed by a tea for seniors and their parents. Senior vespers at 6:30 will finish Sunday's activities. On Monday, June 1, at 10:30, the commencement address will be given. The Reverend George A. Buttrick, Professor, Garrett Theological Seminary, Northwestern University, will make the address.

Leake and Gentry Announce Counselors for Coming Year

Counselors for incoming students for the 1964-65 school year have been chosen by Miss Leake, Assistant Dean of Students, and Robin Gentry, Chief Counselor. These girls, mostly from the rising sophomore class, were chosen on the basis of recommendations from their own counselors, their faculty advisors, the Dean of Students, and the Chief Counselor. The girls must be on eligibility to serve. Each girl will have a group of six or seven incoming students. They will help throughout Orientation as well as in counsel meetings during the year. The new counselors have elected Julia Bragg their secretary.

Counselors Named

The girls who will serve as counselors for the incoming freshman dormitory students are Anne Ashburn, Nina Banner, Kay Barnes, Janie Bostic, Julia Bragg, Rachael Brown, Martha Ann Butler, Retta Clements, Leah Franklin, Rebecca Grant, Carol Ann Griffin, Kay Hedrick, Martha Henderson, Mary Beth Hinkle, Janie Hocutt, Ann Huggins, Beth King, Linda Laney, Sara League, Kay McCorkle, Jan McCrary, Paula Marks, Rita Nurkin, Diane Pritchard, Judy Ramsey, Nancy Roebuck, Mackie Rudisill, Martha Jay Staton, Merry Swanson, Joan Thompson, and Linda Wright.

The counselors for the day student freshmen are Janny Blalock and Susan Grant. Those for the boarding transfers are Mary Ann Britt and Martha Plyler. Those for the day student transfers are Pat Ennis and Nancy Jones.

All Meredith Pays Tribute To Campbell

On Wednesday evening, May 20, at 8:00, the faculty, staff, trustees, and student body of Meredith College honored Dr. Carlyle Campbell in recognition of his twenty-five years as president of the college. The informal ceremony was held in the newly completed Elva Bryan Melver Amphitheater.

Class Gives Book As Lewis Memorial

The sophomore class has presented a book entitled Washington: Capital City by Constance W. Green to the Meredith College library.

This book is being placed in the library in memory of Temple Lewis, the late president of the sophomore class. Temple died in an automobile accident in January of this year. Miss Hazel Baity, the librarian, has ordered the book which will be placed in the library upon arrival.

Tilley Writes Church Text And Devotions

Dr. Ethel Tilley, of the psychology and philosophy department at Meredith, has recently written a textbook, He Was Called Jesus, for use of juniors in vocational church schools.

The text is published by Westminster Press for the Division of Christian Education of National Council of Churches. This work is the revision of another textbook published by Dr. Tilley in 1958.

Author of Devotions

A teacher and pupil quarterly for juniors also written by Dr. Tilley, is being used by the United Presbyterian Church and the United Church of Christ. The selection for June 2 (Continued on page 6)

N. C. Fund Selects Meredith Students

Two Meredith students, Sandra Butler, a senior, and Nancy Ehle, a freshman, have been selected to work under the auspices of the North Carolina fund this summer. This Fund has been termed as the Peace Corps of North Carolina and is a creation of Governor Terry Sanford. There were approximately a thousand applicants for this work with a group of a hundred being chosen. Next summer, it is hoped that there can be five hundred openings to be filled.

The group this summer will travel to Duke University June 18 for a five-day training session. Following this preparation, the students will be divided into different groups, which will go to ten underprivileged areas in the state and help the people directly.

Christian Studies School Is June 15-19

The Meredith School of Christian Studies will be held Monday-Friday, June 15-19, 1964. During the week there will be lectures, special guided tours, and afternoon recreation available.
