

THE TWIG

Newspaper of the Students of Meredith College

Volume XXXIX

MEREDITH COLLEGE, RALEIGH, N. C., NOVEMBER 20, 1964

No. 5

All Classes Vie for Stunt Trophy Tonight

The annual Stunt Night will be held on Friday, November 20, in Jones Auditorium. Stunt, a program in which each class presents an original skit, is sponsored by the Meredith College Athletic Association. Class chairmen are as follows: Elizabeth Maynard, freshman; Martha Ann Butler and Betty Webb, sophomore; Susan Caison and Sue Kelly, junior; and Sue Lynn Teachey, senior.

The panel of judges will consist of two citizens of the city of Raleigh and three members of the Meredith faculty and administration. The names of the judges will not be announced until the night of Stunt.

Judging Based on Points

The judging will be based on 100 points with the class having the most points receiving the trophy. Theatrical effectiveness of the play will count a total of fifty-five points. Presentation, costumes and make-up, and programs will count twenty, fifteen, and ten points respectively. The freshman and senior classes will be allowed twenty-five minutes and the sophomores and juniors will be allowed thirty minutes. The extra minutes for the sophomores and juniors will be used in the changing of scenery.

Freshmen girls get together as Elizabeth Maynard graphically describes their stunt.

After the judges retire to decide on a winner, the Meredith Ensemble, under the direction of Miss Beatrice Donley, will sing several popular musical selections. The members of the Ensemble are Agnes Yelton, Polly Finan, Nancy Sue Buffalo, Cindy Swayne, Elizabeth Holland, Charlotte Burgess, Charlotte Mitchell, Joan Thompson, Nileen Hunt, Crystal Hartness, Sarah Parker Martin, Janet Grogan, Linda Frederick, and Margaret Simmons.

Walkers, 37 Students Attend BSU Convention at High Point

November 6-8, thirty-seven members of the BSU, including Mr. and Mrs. R. A. L. Walker, attended the BSU Convention at Green Street Baptist Church in High Point. The theme, "When Students Worship God," was first introduced by a modern interpretive dance Friday night and later discussed by Dr. Theron Price Friday night and Saturday morning. The Saturday evening service consisted of a presentation by the eight North Carolinians who participated in the Korean work camp project this past summer.

Several items were acted upon in the business session Saturday afternoon. One of the most important to us was the adoption of a resolution to be presented to the North Carolina Baptist Convention urging them to adopt the use of the Federal Facilities Act. If this is passed, it will enable Baptist colleges to make use of federal funds for building libraries, classroom buildings, and for hiring instructors. Another major item before the business session was the LISTEN project for the summer of 1965. The plan presented and adopted was the Cherokee work camp project in which sixteen North Carolina Baptist students will participate.

MCA to Hold Dec. 2 Forum On Catholicism

The Meredith Christian Association will hold its second forum on December 2 at which time Father Breunig will speak on "The Spirit of Catholicism." Having taught at a Delaware academy and at St. Norbert College in Wisconsin, Father Breunig has been at State College for the last six years.

After receiving his undergraduate degree from St. Norbert Abbey, Father Breunig did graduate work at Catholic University in Washington, D. C., and at the University of Chicago. Part of this graduate work he did in sociology. Although he holds no graduate degree, Father Breunig, in his own words, "has just gone to school a long time."

The upcoming forum is an outgrowth of a recent interest and general desire to know more about the Catholic faith on the part of many Meredith students. At the 10:30 a.m. chapel period Father Breunig will speak on "The Spirit of Catholicism: the Essence of the Faith." The evening forum will be held at 7:00 p.m. in the Blue Parlor.

Four Students Make Plans For Retreat

Kadiga El - Kammast, Verona Chow, Elizabeth Reavis, and Dee Ann Dozier will represent Meredith at the International Student Retreat in Williamsburg, Virginia, November 26-29. Elizabeth Reavis was chosen as one of the ten American hostesses for this retreat.

This annual retreat is sponsored by the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, and the Department of Student Work of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

It is a presentation of the Christian faith to the international student. The main speakers are the Honorable Brooks Hayes, Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, and Dr. Samuel Southard.

Don't Forget Stunt

Library Given Three Volumes In Memoriam

Three memorial books have been presented to the Meredith library, according to Miss Hazel Baity, librarian. Dr. Norma Rose presented the Oxford Book of Nineteenth Century English Verse in memory of Mrs. Harry E. Cooper. The Collected Poems of Edith Sitwell was given to the library by the Charlotte Chapter of the Meredith Alumnae Association in memory of Peggy Lane Knauff.

Historical Volumes

The North Carolina Portrait Index, 1700-1860, was presented in memory of Mr. William Presstman Lemmon, II by Mrs. William Presstmann Lemmon, III, and Dr. Sarah Lemmon. This book is of special interest to the Lemmon family, for it contains a portrait of Dr. Lemmon's grandfather, William Presstman Lemmon, who owned and operated a line of clipper ships and who participated in the War of 1812 as a member of the Navy.

Above is one of the scenes from "Blithe Spirit," which was presented by Meredith Playhouse, November 6-7.

MCA Initiates Service Projects; Six Students Chosen To Tutor

The MCA at present is working on two community service projects. The first is called the Brafford or community survey project. This is a survey of families in the Western Boulevard area about the feasibility of a city park. It is feared this area might become a slum area, and a city park might help prevent this. The second project is the tutoring project. This project will involve six Meredith girls working with six Raleigh children — three white, three Negro. These children have high I.Q.'s but are not doing well in school because they are culturally, socially, or economically deprived. It is hoped that this project will help break the cycle of poverty for these six children by helping them achieve their potential. The tutoring will take place in Meredith College classrooms. There will also be field trips in Raleigh.

The Meredith girls chosen for the project are Martha Henderson, sophomore; Barbara Hall, sophomore; Sandra Flynt, junior; Nancy Sue Buffalo, senior; Helen Smith, senior; Anne Mintz, senior. These girls were chosen by a special committee appointed by the MCA. This group consisted of four faculty members and two students.

Lemmon Attends History Meetings

Dr. Sarah Lemmon, chairman of the history department, accompanied by her mother and Miss Carolyn Barrington, attended a meeting of the Historical Society of North Carolina at Duke University on November 6, 1964. While there, the group heard speeches about the first newspaper published in North Carolina, about Josephus Daniels as Secretary of the Navy in President Wilson's cabinet, and about Governor Murphy who was an early North Carolina governor. The Historical Society of North Carolina has about sixty invited members who have Ph.D. degrees. These members also have had some work published, preferably in the field of North Carolina history.

On November 9-11, Dr. Lemmon served on a fifteen-member committee acting as a visiting team to study the teacher - training program at Pembroke College. Dr. Lemmon worked with the social studies teacher-training program and the general education program for freshmen and sophomores. She interviewed everyone teaching social studies, some student teachers, some faculty members and random students. Dr. Lemmon also wrote her findings up in daily reports.

History Majors Given Coffee By Department

On Tuesday, November 17, a coffee hour was held in the faculty parlor in Vann Hall from 7:00 to 8:00 to honor all juniors who had declared their majors in history the preceding spring. One of the purposes of this social hour was to allow the students to become better acquainted with the members of the history department and their fellow history majors. During the coffee hour, a subscription to a news magazine was presented to the history student who had maintained the highest average in her history courses during her first two years at Meredith. The recipient of the award was Becky Shaver.

Knight Publishes Dissertation

Dr. Ione K. Knight of the Meredith College English department has recently had her dissertation which she began while working on her doctorate at the University of North Carolina, accepted by the Duquesne University Press for publication in the spring of 1966. It will be published in the Philological Series, No. 8.

Criticizes Medieval Sermon

The work is a critical edition of a medieval sermon entitled "Redde rationem villicationis tuae" or "Day of Reckoning." The sermon is thought to have been preached by Thomas Wimbleton in 1387 at St. Paul's Cross in London.

Many Sources

Dr. Knight gathered material for this dissertation from the Oxford and Cambridge British Museum in England, Huntington Library in California, and from Helmingham Hall, where a private collection is kept. Of the fourteen manuscripts, twelve are in English and two are in Latin. Originally there were fifteen manuscripts, but one has been destroyed.

According to Dr. Knight, the chief interest of this sermon is its language and its medieval flavor rather than its content.

College Calendar

- Nov. 20—Stunt Night, Auditorium, 8:00 p.m.
- Nov. 21—Movie, Auditorium, 7:30 p.m.
- Nov. 23—Teachers' Scholarship Loan Group, Blue Parlor, 3:00 p.m.
- AA, MCA, SG Boards, 7:00 p.m.
- Nov. 24 — SAI, SAI Room, 7:00 p.m.
- NEA, 103 J, 7:00 p.m.
- IRC, Alumnae House, 7:00 p.m.
- Nov. 25—Sunrise Service, Small Auditorium, 7:00 a.m.
- Thanksgiving Recess, 1:00 p.m.
- Nov. 30—Classes resume, 8:25 a.m.
- AA, MCA, SG Boards, 7:00 p.m.