

New Building

The Meredith Infirmary: Explanation and Appreciation

One of the most complained about, and perhaps misunderstood, facilities on the Meredith campus is our infirmary. If this facility were explained more fully, students would better understand and appreciate its functions.

In charge of the infirmary are two registered nurses who live in the building, Mrs. Hurst and Mrs. Saunders. They were classmates at Roanoke Rapids Hospital where they took their R.N. training. Mrs. Hurst spent five and one half years in the Army and was the Director of Nursing Service at Roanoke Rapids Hospital prior to coming to Meredith in 1958. In Raleigh she is a member of the Business and Professional Women and the Y.W.C.A. for which she does volunteer work. She attends the Edenton Street Methodist Church and is a member of the Guild. She is also a member of the National League for Nursing. She has one daughter, Elizabeth.

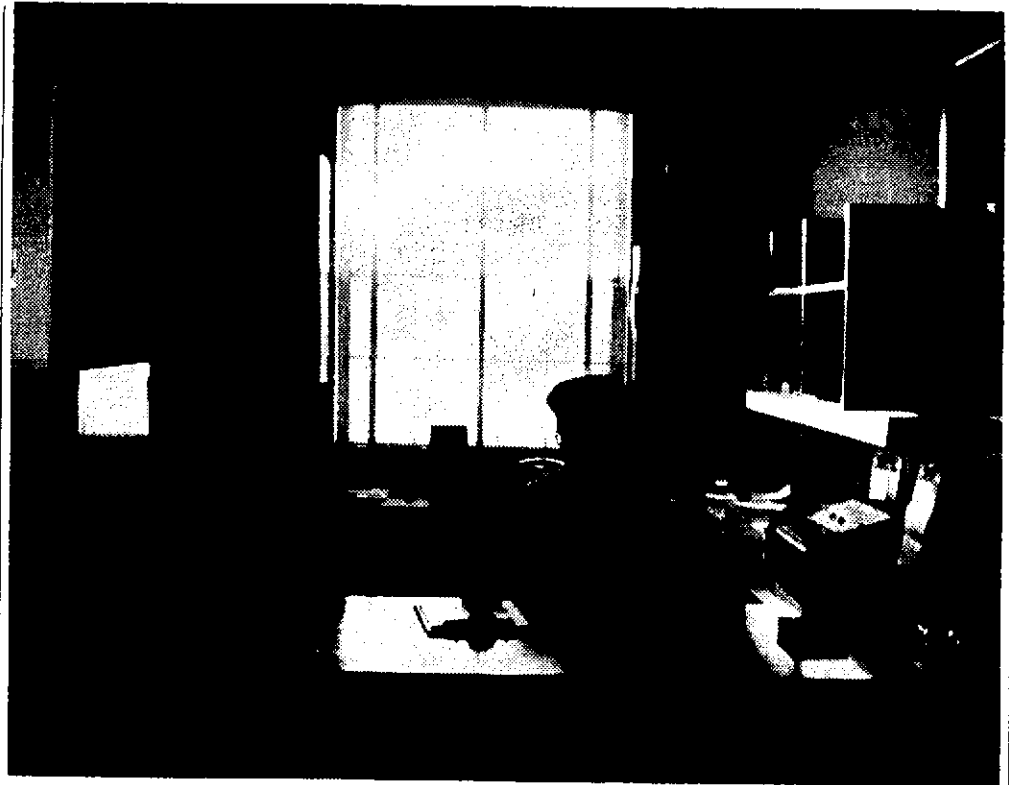

Mrs. Hurst stands on the porch of the new infirmary remembering when it was located on fourth Faircloth.

Mrs. Saunders attended East Carolina College before entering nurses' training. She is also a Methodist. In the summer she works in Enfield at the Brown's Nursing Home. She also does work with the Blood Mobile. Mrs. Saunders has one son and three grandchildren.

Working with the nurses is the college doctor, Dr. Senter, who graduated from Wake Forest College, University of Maryland Medical School, and did his internship and residency at Grady Memorial Hospital in conjunction with Emory University. Dr. Senter has four children including a set of twins. He is a past president of the Raleigh Civitan Club, president of the Wake County Heart Association, an elder of the White Memorial Presbyterian Church, and a past board member of Hilltop Home. He is also a member of the Wake County Medical Society and the Raleigh Society of Internal Medicine.

There are also two maids who work in the infirmary, Louise Brown and Novella Dunstan, who replaced Heddy Hatfield.

The nurses' duties are to attend bed patients, to see the girls who come as out patients at office hours, and to be on call for any emergencies, especially after 7:30 p.m. They cannot go to girls' rooms except in cases of extreme emergency because there are simply too many students for them to make "house calls." However, they both expressed a desire to work with the students in every way possible. They suggested that girls observe office hours, as cooperation from students is needed if they are to do their job well. They both stressed especially that girls call the infirmary in cases of nighttime emergencies, so that they can meet the students at the door. The doors are kept locked after 9:00 p.m. to insure the safety of the patients. The nurses are perfectly willing to open the doors, but they cannot be there unless they know someone is coming.

Mrs. Hurst looks over the chart of students who have come into the infirmary for the day.

Mrs. Hurst and Mrs. Sanders both wanted the students to know that Dr. Senter is on call at all times, not just at his Monday, Wednesday, and Friday office hours.

"We appreciate suggestions and constructive criticism," Mrs. Hurst stated, "and we would like for girls to come to us with their problems. We would be glad to talk with them."

Meredith Girls Ride in N. C. State Horse Show Grumbles and LeRoy Win Championship Trophies

The North Carolina State Championship Horse Show, one of the largest in the nation, was held in Dorton Arena from Wednesday, September 22 through Saturday, September 25, and included a Meredith College Class especially for Meredith riders. In preparation for the show, responsibilities were given to Donna LeRoy, a senior day student. Mrs. Mary Edwards, director of the Meredith College Stables, was unable to perform her duties because she had a baby girl September 17.

First Place

In the Meredith Class at the show, riding ability was judged, and Donna LeRoy placed first winning the Zeno Martin Challenge Trophy. The trophy was donated by Mrs. Martin, alumnae Secretary, and Zeno Martin, Jr., whose father as business manager for Meredith saw the founding of the Meredith College Stables. Other winners in the Saddle Seat division of the class were Murilla Oates, second; Ann Partin, third; Sara Jane League, fourth; Mary Helen Bradley, fifth; and Jeannie Sams, sixth.

Hunt Seat

Lynn Grumbles won the Hunt Seat division and received a ribbon and trophy. Second place winner was Janie Hocutt; third, Pat Gudrino; Fourth, Macki Rudisill; and fifth, Pat Sterling.

Meredith horses were also entered in other classes in the show. Lake Champlain, owned by Mrs. Bozick and ridden by Janie Hocutt, placed fourth in the Open Pleasure Championship, competing against three dozen entries. His winnings were a ribbon and a check for $15 which Meredith receives.

FRESHMEN ELECT

(Continued from page 1)

and Monogram Club, Gail Poe of Chapel Hill, will supervise the freshmen's finances.

Representing their class on the Judicial Board will be Marilyn Childress and Patsy Wilson. Marilyn was secretary of her class and a student government representative in Lutherville, Maryland, while Patsy of Thomasville was secretary of the student council and a National Honor Society marshal. Jane Burwell of Lewisville and Nancy Utley of Whiteville will serve on the Legislative Board. Both were student government representatives; and Jane was DAR Good Citizen, while Nancy was president of the Beta Club.

Stunt and Corn Huskin'

Coming from Wake Forest, Ruth Ann Walters, will use her experience in drama at the Governor's School to direct her fellow freshmen in Stunt. Corn Huskin' will be supervised by another experienced dramatist, Bet Garrett from Raleigh. Patricia James, a junior class president from Herdon, Virginia, will represent the freshman class in the MCA.

Thus, with the election of officers, the freshman class has completed an important stage in its organization and is ready to participate in Meredith's many traditions.

La Tertulia Club

For the first meeting of La Tertulia Spanish Club, the featured speaker was Marcos Aurelius Borgerth, of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Mr. Borgerth, an engineering student at N. C. State University spoke to the group in Spanish on his recent visit home and the changes he observed in the political and economic life of his country. He also contrasted the industrial South with the dry and arid northlands, which offer an economic problem to the country. He told also of the differences between affluent city life, such as Rio and Sao Paulo with the simpler rural living. Comparing the interior of his country to our West of seventy-five years ago, he said the new capital Brasilia, located in the interior, is causing rapid development of the Amazon basin.

At this meeting Sandra Hobbs was elected the club president to replace Jacqueline Chadwick Emmons who did not return to Meredith this year. The other officers elected last spring are vice president, Ruth Ann Sloop; Treasurer, Jeannie Ebelein; Secretary, Judi Dean.

norman's

North Hills Shopping Center
Raleigh, North Carolina

IMPORTED & DOMESTIC CLOTHING AND ACCESSORIES for Ladies and Gentlemen

Factory Outlet Sportwear

CLOTHING FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY

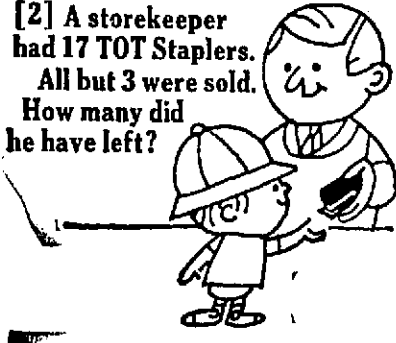

Blouses, Skirts, Etc.

3631 N. Blvd. Raleigh, N. C.
Across from King of Sea

Swingline RIZZLEMENTS

[1] How far can a dog run into the woods? (Answers below)

[2] A storekeeper had 17 TOT Staplers. All but 3 were sold. How many did he have left?

This is the

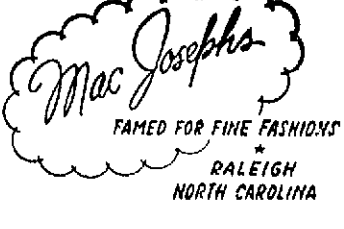

Swingline Tot Stapler

98¢
(Including 1000 staples)
Larger size CUB Desk Stapler only $1.49

No bigger than a pack of gum—but packs the punch of a big deal! Refills available everywhere. Unconditionally guaranteed. Made in U.S.A. Get it at any stationery, variety, book store!

Swingline® INC.
Long Island City, N.Y. 11101

FAMED FOR FINE FASHIONS
RALEIGH
NORTH CAROLINA

Girls, if you haven't already been to the State Fair, Mac Josephs urges you to come in and select an outfit suitable for the fun and excitement of this event. Ellen Kirby says that the bellbottomed slacks and
"Poor Boy" sweater

she found at Mac Josephs were perfect for the wild rides at the fair. Choosing between slacks or wool
bermudas and knee socks was difficult for her though, because Mac Josephs has such a wide selection of styles and colors. Let's all go to the fair!