

A Decision to Make

GO ASTRO

Students at this time of year find themselves frantically involved in Rush Week activities. As President of the Astros, I welcome this opportunity to help straighten out some of the confusion for the freshman and transfers.

Students join a society mainly because they have to, but after they are initiated, freshmen and transfers understand why upperclassmen give their all to the respective societies. The societies started out as literary organizations, but our focus is much different now. The Astros realize more and more our responsibility as a service society. We sponsor a project as the Governor Morehead School for the Blind, visiting them throughout the year and helping them to produce an ad-free annual. In response to our interest and affection, they developed the Rhythm Kids, a combo that sings for the Astros during our school year. We have been working on more activities in connection with the Governor Morehead School, but our Society needs the manpower and enthusiasm of freshmen and transfers to help us succeed in our endeavors.

The Astrotekton Society receives its initiative both from the Governor Morehead School and from the individual pride that comes from being an Astro. We enjoy seeing others happy.

The Astrotekton Society hopes

cheated by this revelation and may even delude themselves into feeling that their flowers must have been delivered to the wrong person. It's, after all, a harmless delusion.

These, then, are the facts about Dan Cupid's visit to Meredith. Valentine's Day has gone for another year; candy boxes are almost empty and flowers are drooping badly by now, strewing petals over desks and floors. And already students here (and everywhere) are thinking about next year's February 14 and hoping — hoping for that special one-in-900 valentine or those dozen red roses — hoping that next year the statistics will include them.

GO PHI

Phi is friendship. Have you ever reached out to a child who could not walk alone, and helped him stand, if but for a moment, with his peers? Have you ever seen the happiness in those usually pain-filled eyes, as a fake Santa Claus reads his name on a cheap present? Have you ever seen him cry when he leaves the Christmas Party in a drafty, run-down gym? Phi is being a special friend to kids cursed with cerebral palsy! "Service" is the formal word for it — but friendship is the real word.

Phi friendship — not just to these kids, but among ourselves. It's a fellowship which is obvious at regular meetings, in the dorms, at Rush. It's co-operation, enthusiasm, vivacity, affection. It's staying up till three o'clock to decorate halls, getting up at four to transform the court, and serenading the freshmen at seven. It's "Come on and sing with me, sing with me, P-H-I . . ." and it's Milton.

Phi is "Brave Mother, lead the Way." Phi is a product of much and of many. Phi is friendship.

AROUND CAMPUS

CHAPEL TO VARY

Chapel programs will be varied this semester. There will be, according to Charlie Parker, "everything from Israeli Amba to a drama to Tom Dunn — Life of a chaplain at Central Prison to talks by Dr. Crook, Dr. Johnson and Dr. Heilman."

The Concerts and Lectures Committee is sponsoring a Chamber Music group from the North Carolina School of Performing Arts in an upcoming chapel.

Other programs will include a talk by Dr. R. H. Bing of the University of Wisconsin and a concert by Jane Bostick, a noted pianist and a Meredith graduate.

There will also be two free days, probably close to mid-term.

MEREDITH HOSTS MEETING

Meredith hosted a meeting of foreign language teachers recently. At this meeting, Dr. John Yarbrough explained the interinstitutional co-operation among the Raleigh area colleges and universities.

SPANISH STUDENTS TO ATTEND MUSICAL

About 50 Spanish students are planning to attend the one performance of the Broadway musical,

"Man of La Mancha," which will be held in Raleigh February 22. The musical is a combination autobiography of the Spanish novelist, Cervantes, and excerpts from his work, Don Quixote.

February 18, the French Club joined the Cary Senior High Club for a ride on their activity bus to Greensboro to see "Antigone" by the contemporary French dramatist, Jean Anouilh.
