

AROUND CAMPUS

PRINTMAKERS' EXHIBIT

An art exhibit by the Five Winston-Salem Printmakers will be on display in Joyner Gallery through November 26. The gallery is open every class day for student visitation.

FINANCIAL AID TIME

Students who plan to apply for financial aid for 1970-71 should obtain the proper forms from the financial aid office prior to the Thanksgiving holidays, announces the admissions office.

The completed forms should be returned to this office before the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Audrey Gardner, Financial Aid Assistant, whose office is in the Blue Parlor, has office hours from 9:00 a.m. until 12 noon Mondays through Friday. Questions about the application procedure should be directed to her.

1969 Graduates

(Continued from page 3)

return to Charleston; Linda Helms, Mrs. J. H. Roberts, lab technician in food microbiology at NCSU; Shera Jackson, admissions counselor at Meredith College; Dolores Little, Mrs. Holmer Gray, III, Montgomery, Ala., accounting clerk; Jayne Mesin, Mrs. Louis Elliott Strother, computer programmer with the Dept. of Administration; Kathy Millsape, assistant home economics extension agent in Louisburg; Michele Tew, Sumter, S. C., as electric living specialist for Carolina Power and Light Company; Carolyn Todd, Mrs. Robert Moore, working with Va. Electric and Power Company and teaching adult art class one night a week with the Charlottesville, Va., Department of Recreation; Louise Watson, Mrs. T. W. Lamm, Jr., working as library assistant at St. Mary's Jr. College; Cathryn Woodbury, Mrs. James F. Curran, Jr., market analyst for Carolina Power and Light Company in Raleigh.

Some of the homemakers who have kept in contact are Barbara Bivens, Mrs. Kenyon C. Neul of Dallas, Texas; Nancy Blalock, Mrs. Maurice Cook of Raleigh her 23 month old son; Beth Brady, Mrs. William W. Richards of Pittsboro; Ellen Derby, Mrs. Monroe Bent, Jr., of Goldsboro expecting a baby in March of 1970; Linda Harris, Mrs. Darryl Martin, living in Winston-Salem; Sandra Martin, Mrs. Cheyney Nicholson of Raleigh expecting a baby in February; Alice Smith, Mrs. Terry Nichols of Lexington; Ruth Ann Walters, Mrs. James Dyer, substitute teaching.

So girls, this gives one an idea of what one might do when one graduates from Meredith. Whether as a teacher, homemaker, secretary, social worker, or other type of worker — these girls now reaping the rewards of their years at Meredith.

Meredith Marchers

(Continued from page one)

was not requested. The marchers were asked, however, that any special insignia, such as religious emblems or flags, clerical or academic robes, not be used or worn. These requests came specifically from the Washington headquarters.

MERLE NORMAN COSMETICS
THREE STEPS TO BEAUTY

146 NORTH HILLS
PHONE 782-0255

Columnist Comes to Meredith, Brings Touch of "Stardust"

By Jane Holt

Earl Wilson, world-famous New York man-about-town and syndicated columnist, was the guest of the Concerts and Lectures Committee Monday night, November 17.

Greeted at the Raleigh-Durham airport by several members of the committee, Mr. Wilson was escorted to the Meredith cafeteria to dine on meat loaf and carrots with the rest of the student body.

After supper, Dr. Lois Frazier accompanied Mr. Wilson, flanked by Meredith girls, to the Blue Parlor to relax and chat informally before his speech.

The conversation centered around the growing teenage drug problem and Vietnam. Noticeably more at ease with a small group, Mr. Wilson commended Meredith girls for not allowing the drug situation to become a problem here.

At 8 p.m. Mr. Wilson was greeted by an auditorium full of Meredith faces and a scattering of the Raleigh public, who laughed good-naturedly at his remarks throughout his talk.

Surprisingly, the "midnight Earl" confessed that he had "never faced hundreds of single girls before" and was frankly "scared."

He prefaced his talk by patting Meredith girls on the back for apparently not being radical, but still having independent spirits.

The nation-wide author of "Earl Wilson's Night" also commented briefly on Liz's million-dollar diamond, Jackie Onassis, Groucho Marx, Vanessa Redgrave and Barbra Streisand.

His remarks about the celebrities were fragmented and tagged with frequent jokes. He especially delighted his audience with his personal account of reporting a nudist convention. He recalled his B.W.'s (beautiful wife's) saying when he told her he planned to attend the convention, "Thank God! one trip you're going on I won't have to pack a bag for you!"

Following the talk, Mr. Wilson met with a large group of listeners in the Hut for coffee and doughnuts and additional talk.

All in all, Monday evening spent with "Oil" Wilson, was an interesting and welcome change of pace for many Meredith students.

Miss Sara Dean (left) and Dr. John A. Fincher, both members of the accreditation committee from the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, pose with SGA president Cindy Griffith at the Sunday night dinner meeting welcoming the committee to the campus. The committee left Wednesday following three days of interviews and observations in connection with re-accreditation.

RIDGEWOOD BEAUTY SHOP

RIDGEWOOD SHOPPING CENTER
833-4632

12 Stylists & 1 Manicurist to Serve You

18 FINE SHOPS AND SERVICES
YOUR BACK-DOOR NEIGHBORS ON WADE AVE.

SNOOP SCOOP

Wow! Only five dates and pinned! Freshmen, what's the secret?

Who was it that put a jinx on Mr. Ead's car after the test Friday?

You say you lost your glasses where, Marcia??

What was a certain sophomore doing out in First Faircloth hall talking to her Religion professor in her gown?

Have fun at Arby's eating and dancing, Susan?

Has everyone seen the new comedy show on Third New, where the self appointed Deputy Dog has taken over Huckleberry Hound's spotlight?

Sorry, Charlie . . .

Hey, Second New—how do you like vinegar?

Who were the girls on third New that locked their doorknob in the john?

Douglas — tell us all how you managed to fall into the bed-well.

Talk about long distance calls. . . . How much does a three-minute call from Viet Nam cost, anyway, Annette?

Wonder what girl on Second Faircloth going under the assumed name of Sue Dean Morris called the AGR house about a job as a cook. Hey, Lewis, why didn't you take the job?

Congratulations to Ann Merritt —to her mother's diamond—and to the people she fooled with it.

Go, Zeta Eta Theta!

Just think—only Three more days of classes and then, whatchout—for it's home for the holidays.

VILLA CAPRI RESTAURANT

RIDGEWOOD SHOPPING CENTER
DIAL TE 4-2086

OFFERING YOU THE BEST IN ITALIAN
FOODS AND PIZZA

OPEN SUNDAYS
OPEN 'TIL 11 O'CLOCK P.M.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

All Meredith Students,
Faculty & Employees

25% Discount on all Dry Cleaning
until further notice

Our Expert Service Includes Hand Cleaning

JOHNSON'S LAUNDRY & CLEANERS

RIDGEWOOD SHOPPING CENTER