A Girl's Best Friend and Such

By Geni Tull

Often, when a girl reveals that she attends an all girls' college, contemptuous comments can be heard flowing out of the mouths of all listeners. The classic one is usually, "Well, what do you major in? MRS.?"

Just to see how much validity lay in such snide remarks, a poll of the "Mrs." status of Meredith students was conducted by the hall proctors for the TWIG. After all, with over a thousand beautiful gals running around on a campus conveniently located between Carolina and Duke, with State just across the highway, the odds have the tendency of being in our favor!

Response to the poll, pertaining to dorm students only, was received from 70% of the halls. The results of the poll are as follows:

Three girls have actually double-majored: a B.A. in some academic subject, and the related "MRS." degree.

The astounding number of 54 girls have cornered a guy into admitting, "I'm engaged!"

The next degree of attachment comes with the familiar fraternity pin. Over 34 dorm students represent a total of 15 fraternities by sporting the various styles of jewelry. Furthermore, three NCSU fraternities have chosen Meredith girls as their Sweethearts. The pins seen in the largest number are those of State's Delta Sig house. Second is State's chapter of the Pi Kappa Phi

Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society Elects Officers, Holds Induction

On Monday, Sept. 28, eight new members were inducted into Kappa Nu Sigma Honor Society. The new members are Peggy Allen, Shirley Baker, Jane C. Curtis, Gail B. Kiker, Boyd King, Jessie Markert, Nancy J. Morgan, and Vickie R. Rolfe.

A dinner meeting was held Monday night at which new officers were elected. New officers include; Suzanne Reynolds, president; Boyd King, vice president; Peggy Allen, secretary; Anne Bryan, treasurer; and Gail B. Kiker, reporter.

Dr. Norma Rose of the English department, faculty advisor to the honor society, spoke at the dinner meeting.

Members of Kappa Nu Sigma are chosen on the basis of their scholastic ability as well as leadership, character, and other qualities. The membership is not to exceed two per cent of the senior class.

TV Panel on 'You and Drugs'

A Meredith College group will participate in a television series concerning the problem of drug abuse in North Carolina today.

The series is entitled "You and Drugs," and the first program will be presented on Sunday, October 11, from 7:00 to 11:00 p.m. on Channel 11, WTVD.

The program will last three hours. Students will watch the panel discussion the first hour, discuss the panel discussion and raise questions the second hour, and call in their questions to the panel the third hour.

The panel will consist of: Dr. Everett Ellinwood, psychiatrist at Duke University; Charles Dunn, director of the SBI; Dr. Sidney Cohen, former chief of narcotics and drug abuse of NIMH; and two young people familiar with the drug scene.

A Meredith group will meet in 103 Joyner. All interested persons should see Dr. Gloria H. Blanton as soon as possible for advance materials.

Around Campus

United Fund

Dr. Mary Yarbrough has been appointed by Dr. Heilman to head the United Fund Campaign on campus this year.

Home Economics Club

More than seventy girls attended the first meeting of the Home Economics Club at Mrs. Stuber's home.

Jody House, Jane Holloway, and Carolyn Barrett told about their summers, which they spent working in fields related to home economics.

Dr. Syron Attends AAUW Meeting

On Saturday, October 3, Dr. Leslie W. Syron, Professor of Sociology, will lead a session for liaison representatives from colleges throughout the state at the annual North Carolina Division meeting of American Association of University Women in Durham.

Dr. Frazier Honored

Dr. Lois Frazier, Professor of Business and Economics, was honored by the Raleigh Business and Professional Women's Club at their September meeting when they dedicated their 1970-71 yearbook to her. The dedication read in part:

In appreciation for her Influence as a leader, Cooperative Spirit as a follower, Knowledge as a designer of new programs, Example as a professional woman, Personal Loyalty as a friend, Responsible Participation as a citizen.

NOTICE
 The next issue of THE TWIG will be published on Thursday, Oct. 15. All contributions should be brought to 110 Jones or 221 New Dorm by Friday, Oct. 9.
