The litter situation at Merdith has become unbearable. Newly built facilities are being sacrificed for incendiary trash, glassware from the cafeteria, drink cans, etc., etc. Student responsibility could easily "clean up" this problem. Why hasn't it?

Marine archaeology

Mr. Jerry Branch, Chief of Diving Operations, Mr. John Broadwater, Chief of Underwater Photography; Mr. Randy Peacock, Chief of Underwater Survey; and Mr. Wayne Strickland, Chief of Underwater Excavation will be speaking about the various aspects of marine archaeology. The group is currently excavating the sites of the sunken Civil War blockade runners ELLA and RANGER, located off the southern North Carolina coast. The program will be at 7:00 p.m. in the Continuing Education Auditorium of the College Center. Admission is open to the public and is free of charge.

aid of life-giving machines, a medical care proposal and some more environmental protection legislation. The student legislators banquet was held on Saturday night, beginning at 6:30 p.m. During the banquet, President Bunn delivered an address which preceded an "original" play, "Frontier Mortician," in which various delegates participated. A dance followed the banquet. On Sunday, April 1, the session closed after a second Plenary Session during which final reports, awards, and installation of officers occurred. Members of the Meredith delegation included Ann Wall (chairperson), Carolyn Carter, Jean Jackson, Janice Sams, Mary Allen Pickett, Mary Lynn Roberts, Cindy Snipes, Debbie Lakin, Marilyn Horney, Genie Bailey, Genie Rogers, Rita Ritchie, Woody Davis and Janet Tysinger.
