

THE TWIG

Newspaper of the Students of Meredith College

VOL. XLIII

MEREDITH COLLEGE, RALEIGH, N. C.

SEPTEMBER 13, 1973

NO. 1

Fifteen new faculty members added to staff this year

Dr. William Bradley Turpin of Pfeiffer College has been appointed chairman of the department of psychology at Meredith College. Seven other full-time and seven part-time appointments have been announced by Dr. Allen Burris, vice president and dean of Meredith.

Dr. Turpin has been an associate professor of psychology at Pfeiffer College since 1971. He received his B. A. from the University of Virginia, his M. A. at Princeton University and his Ph.D. from the University of Alabama. His area of specialization is cognitive development. His wife is a pediatrician and moved her practice from Albemarle to Raleigh in July. The Turpins have one son.

Dr. Allen Freeman Page has joined the Meredith faculty as an assistant professor in the Department of Religion and Philosophy. Page received his B. A. from Wake Forest University, his M. Div. from Union Theological Seminary and his Ph. D. from Duke University where he was a visiting scholar in religion and culture in the fall of 1972. He is married to Dr. Sally R. Page, assistant professor of English at Meredith. They have two children.

Dr. James Eric Wiechert has joined the chemistry and physics department as an assistant professor. He received his B. S. from Eastern Illinois University, and his Ph.D. from the University of Tennessee where he was a teaching assistant. Before coming to Meredith, Weichert was assistant professor of chemistry at Brevard College. He and his wife, Lea, have two children and live in Garner.

In the education department, Dr. Kenneth Harbison Calvert is assistant professor. Born in Cullman, Ala., Dr. Calvert received her B.S. from Jacksonville State University, and her M. A. and Ed. D. from the University of Alabama. She has taught in public schools for 16 years and served as reading consultant and coordinator of the N.C. Right to Read Program with the N.C. Department of Public Instruction this past year.

In the music department, Dr. Peter Ballard Klausmeyer is a full-time instructor. Klausmeyer received his A. B. from Cornell University, and his M.M. and A. Mus.D. degrees from the University of Michigan where he was a teaching fellow.

A full-time instructor in sociology, Eugene Murphy Sumner received his B. A. from Atlantic Christian College, his M.Div. from Southeastern Baptist Seminary, and his M.S.W. from UNC-Chapel Hill. Sumner was assistant superintendent of the Free Will Baptist Childrens Home in Middlesex from 1969-1971 and is a native of Duplin County. He will also plan and coordinate the Human Services Program at Meredith.

Joining the foreign language department as a full-time instructor in German is William Wallace Finlator, Jr. He received his B. A. from Wake Forest University, his M.A. from the University of Pennsylvania, and is presently a Ph.D. candidate at Yale University. He and his wife, Silke, reside in Raleigh. Finlator is the son of the Rev. W. W. Finlator, pastor of Pullen Baptist Church in Raleigh.

Michael Ross Dodge has joined the faculty as an assistant librarian. He received his A.M.L.S. and M.A. degrees from the University of Michigan. Dodge is a native of Ann Arbor, Mich. He and his wife, Jane, live in Raleigh.

Dr. Jean Griffith Wall has joined the psychology department as a part-time instructor. A 1947 graduate of Meredith, she received her M.S.H.E. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Dr. Wall and her husband, Percy, a Greensboro attorney, live in Greensboro.

Douglas McCreary Greenwood, a part-time instructor in the Department of English, received his A.B. degree from Dartmouth College, his M.A. at Georgetown University, and is presently a Ph.D. candidate at UNC-Chapel Hill. He is married to Suzanne Reynolds Greenwood, a 1971 alumna and director of foundation relations at Meredith. The Greenwoods live in Chapel Hill.

A part-time instructor in the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation, Mrs. Suzanne Drake Crigler received her B.A. at UNC-Chapel Hill. She and her husband, Norris, live in Durham where he is a student at Duke Medical School.

William F. Irish has joined the Department of Business and Economics as a part-time instructor. Irish received his B.S. and M.S. degrees from Montana State University. He lives in Cary.

Mrs. Carolyn G. Jarmon is a part-time instructor in the home economics department. Born in Wilmington, Del., she received her B.S.H.E. from the University of Delaware and her M.S. from Cornell University where she was a graduate assistant. She and her husband, Randall, a captain in the U.S. Army, live in Fayetteville.

A new faculty member in the music department, Mrs. Patricia Greene Long, a part-time instructor, received her A.B. at Meredith College and her M.C.M. at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Last year she worked as minister of music at James Island Baptist Church, Charleston, S.C. Married to James C. Long, minister of education and administration at First Baptist Church in Raleigh, the Longs have four children.

Dr. Stewart Albert Newman has joined the Department of Religion and Philosophy as a visiting lecturer from Campbell College. He received his A.B. from Hardin Simmons University and his Th.M. and Th.D. degrees from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He and his wife, Sara, reside in Buies Creek.

Dean of Students Office makes three additions

Three appointments in the dean of students office at Meredith College for the 1973-74 academic year have been announced by Dr. Marie Mason, dean of students.

Mrs. H. Glenn White, Jr. of Raleigh has been appointed assistant dean of students for campus life, Miss Elizabeth Wilson of Albemarle as counselor, and Mrs. Lois Renfrow as resident advisor.

Mrs. White was dean of students at Peace College for four years and an admissions counselor for one before she joined the staff at Meredith. She also taught in the Raleigh Public Schools for five years and served as a guidance counselor for two years.

At Meredith, Mrs. White will be advising all campus student related associations and will serve as dean of students in Dr. Mason's absence.

Dr. Gloria H. Blanton, associate professor in the psychology department at Meredith College, is one of three women appointed by the Board of Directors of the American Association of University Women to serve on the Fellowships Program Committee during the 1973-74 biennium. The committee meets in Washington and develops policy for all aspects of the program.

Miss Blanton is program vice president of the Raleigh Branch of AAUW and legislative program chairman for the North Carolina State Division.

Income from the fellowships endowment of $74 million, together with current funds, resulted in more than 100 fellowship grants to American women and 50 to international women for 1973-74.

(Continued on page 4)

She received her A.B. and M.Ed. degrees from UNC-Chapel Hill. Her husband is president of White Oil Company in Raleigh. Mrs. White is a native of Mount Olive and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Daughtery of South Chapel Road.

Miss Wilson is the first full-time student counselor on the dean of students staff at Meredith. She received her A.B. and M.Ed. degrees from UNC-Chapel Hill and previously taught French in Albemarle for two years.

Miss Wilson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Wilson of 807 Pee Dee Avenue, Albemarle.

Mrs. Lois Renfrow who has served as administrative secretary to the president at Meredith for 20 years, will serve as resident advisor in Brewer Hall and part-time secretary to the president.

She served as administrative secretary at Meredith under the administrations of Presidents Carlyle Campbell, E. Bruce Heilman, and John E. Weems.

Formerly, she was co-owner and business manager for a weekly newspaper in High Point with her husband, the late Wade P. Renfrow.

Mrs. Madge Dillard, former secretary to Governors Luther Hodges and Dan K. Moore and Rep. Nick Galifanakis, will serve as administrative secretary to the president on a full-time basis.

Mrs. Dillard is married to O.H. Dillard and they have four children. During the past year, Mrs. Dillard served as secretary to the director of continuing education at Meredith.

New counselor Elizabeth Wilson, whose office is located in the Placement Office, suite, is available from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. for all students.

TWIG newsbriefs

The London trip is still on. For further information contact Mrs. Jane Sullivan, Ex. 277.

Mrs. Erika Fairchild, instructor of political science here at Meredith, left on Wednesday, September 5, to attend the yearly meeting of the American Political Science Association which was held in New Orleans last week at the Jung Hotel. She was a participant on a Public Law panel titled "Sanctions and Sanctioning Policy." Mrs. Fairchild has done research on prisoners in the field of criminal law.

Mrs. H. Glenn White, Jr., new assistant dean of students, welcomes all students to her office in Johnson Hall.