

Meredith shows new film series

Pioneers of Modern Painting, the new six-part film series written and narrated by Kenneth Clark, has been made available to Cooperating Raleigh Colleges, in the co-sponsorship with the North Carolina Museum of Art, free of charge from the Extension Service of the National Gallery of Art in Washington. The distribution of Pioneers of Modern Painting has been made possible by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

The first film on Edouard Manet was shown on Monday October, at 11:00 a.m. in the Meredith College College Center Auditorium.

The showing of the Paul Cezanne film was held on Tuesday at 10:00 a.m. at Meredith College in 103 Joyner.

The distribution and showing of these films follows the pattern of the Extension Service's distribution of Civilization, Lord Clark's previous highly acclaimed film series, which has now been viewed on more than 600 campuses and in their communities.

The new series covers the life and works of six leading artists of the late 19th and early 20th centuries; Edouard Manet, Paul Cezanne, Claude Monet, Georges Seurat, Henri Rousseau, and Edvard Munch. A 45-minute color film has been devoted to each of the six artists whom Lord Clark considers to be "the pioneers of what we still call modern painting".

Most of the series was filmed in France, with the exception of Edvard Munch which was photographed in Norway, the artists' native country. Lord Clark has not relied solely, however, on the painting found in the artists' own country.

Pioneers of Modern Painting was produced by Colin Clark, Lord Clark's son. Although Colin Clark has been a television producer since 1956, this is the first father-son venture.

Volleyball team wins match and asks support for season

The Volleyball team has begun its season with a victory over Chowan on Oct. 9, winning two out of three matches.

The team members are Amy Garber, Susan Daniels, C. C. Wiggins, Beth Weasey, Pam Hall, Pam Powers, Robin Sweezy, Karen Blalock, and Karen Greace.

C. C. is the captain of the team this year. None of the players have had previous experience except C.C., so this year has been spent in building the team. The team was started in the form of an unscheduled class and this was the reason that there were no tryouts as such.

The schedule is Nov. 1 - Elon and High Point (7:00); Nov. 6 - Atlantic Christian and Duke (5:00); and Nov. 8 - N. C. Wesleyan (4:00). The matches are at home except for the last one, so everyone is asked to come out and support the team.

SYNCHRONIZED SWIMMERS

Meredith's synchronized swimmers will put on a workshop this week at Catawba College. Mrs. Fran Vandiver and six of her swimmers will conduct a demonstration workshop for the Catawba Club on November 2 and 3. This workshop will include basic stunts, strokes and choreography. The girls who will lead the workshop are Sherri McGee, Beth Gray, Chris Speight, Lee Pennington, and Linda Huneycutt.

Also, last week's TWIG incorrectly stated that the swimming group contained nine girls, rather than the fourteen members who include Sherri McGee, Beth Gray, Chris Speight, Gail Phelan, Mary Charles Whitehurst, Robin Byington, Kathleen Morgan, Lynn Champion, Lee Pennington, Reya Blount, Janet Koonce, Debbie Coggins, Kathy Fuller, and Linda Huneycutt. The TWIG regrets the error.

made for the special activities for the "Special People (the mentally retarded, the physically handicapped, and the visually handicapped) in Raleigh and Wake County. If you would like to become involved in this fulfilling experience, please come!

DR. FRAZIER

Dr. Lois Frazier, Chairman of the Department of Business and Economics, spoke at the annual convention of the South Carolina Business Education Association on October 13. The meeting was held at Columbia College in Columbia, South Carolina. The topic of her address was "Prescription for Transcription."

Sophomore slump Marsha Allen cleverly typifies that "blah" feeling that hits second year college students everywhere.

breakfast on Saturday morning to discuss further the program topic. At 10:30 a.m. all groups and other interested persons will attend a second general session in which Dr. Nash will respond to questions from the groups.

At 11:30 a.m. on Saturday departmental representatives will be available to talk with any Merit visitors wishing information about a specific academic department at Meredith. The Admissions staff will also be available for conferences at that time and after lunch.

Placement office notes

The Placement Office has some new plans in store that will begin in December and carry on throughout second semester. Instead of students simply meeting with various recruiters that come on campus, the recruiters will be present in the President's Dining Room during the lunch hour. This way, any student (not just seniors) will be able to eat lunch with the representatives in an informal atmosphere. Insurance companies, schools, banks, and industrial companies will be represented. Meredith students are urged to begin contemplating plans for after graduation in order for them to take part in these discussions.

November 2, Friday, a representative from American University's graduate school will be on campus for discussion with students.

Students majoring in the sciences who are interested in a summer job in a technical field in Europe contact the Placement Office. Literature on the LAESTE - US (International Association for the Exchange of Students for Technical Experience - United States) program is now available.

Students interested in taking a vocational interest test may do so in the Placement Office. Stop by any time.

December graduates - If you have not already done so, please stop by the Placement Office.

The GRE's will be given on December 8 at NCSU. Registration must be in by November 13. Applications available in Placement Office.
