

STUNT AND CARNIVAL HILITES IN PICTURES

Margaret, Dennis and Joey helped win third place for the Juniors, when the comics revolted in Stunt, '74.

The Seniors' "A Night in a Speakeasy" won first place with Ruby Red and gang.

"Love, Meredith Style" was the Freshman theme depicting the memorable moments of your first roommate and first blind date.

"Water We Worried About?" brought the Sophomores second place with the household antics of a family facing a water shortage.

Four of Meredith's loveliest fairies, Allen Burris, Larry Williams, T. C. Parramore, and Bernie Cochran) entertained the crowd at February's Country Carnival.

The Farmer and Siamese Pigs (l to r, Elaine Williams, Cookie Guthrie, Meg Pruette) react to winning first place in the carnival costume division.
