

Meredith librarians expand responsibilities

by Anne Earp

Meredith's librarians are doing more than stamping books and handing out overdue slips. Many exciting accomplishments are being made in the maze of offices behind the circulation desk.

Dr. Jonathan Lindsay, head librarian, was appointed editor of North Carolina Libraries in December by the president of North Carolina Library Associates. His duties include coordinating the editorial board and editing with the assistance of the editorial board.

This quarterly journal includes both academic and non-academic articles of interest to libraries, and articles providing communication with the membership of North Carolina Library Associates. The first issue Dr. Lindsay edits will circulate in March. "We are very pleased that North Carolina Libraries will be produced at Meredith College," commented the new editor.

Mr. Herbert Williams, Technical Services Librarian, is associate-editor of the journal. He proofreads articles, helps to decide which ones are to be printed, and assists with editing.

Mr. Williams is also Secretary-Treasurer of the O.C.L.C. Users Group for libraries in the Computer Cataloging Network which was formed in December. This network simplifies inter-library loans and obtaining reference materials.

The new group, a supplement to local and national meetings, allows members to solve problems of computer cataloging through panel discussions and question-and-answer sessions. Its next meeting will be in May at Meredith.

Herb Williams and Jonathon Lindsay examine a copy of North Carolina Libraries.

.....What are you doing?

(Continued from Page 1)

and Budget Department, has an internship program in city government. Application deadline: March 2, 1979.

7. Virginia's Commonwealth Intern Program offers you the opportunity to explore Virginia's State Government. You must be a graduating senior, and the internship lasts a year. Application deadline: March 9, 1979.

8. The National Women's Political Caucus offers a summer internship possibility to any student interested in living in D.C. and in participating actively in the political process of legislation important to women. There is no stipend.

There are also exciting

internships in the media:

1. WPTF, Durham Life Broadcasting (also operates WQDR-FM) has a great opportunity in a summer internship. They will begin accepting applications in March.

2. A Magazine Internship may allow you to work for a national magazine in N.Y. City this summer, learn about a career as a magazine editor, and learn how magazines are edited.

If you are interested in the arts, there are internships for you:

1. The N.C. Arts Council has a summer Community Arts Management Intern Program. You must be a graduating senior. Application deadline: March 1, 1979.

2. The Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. offers a ten-week summer internship for art history students. You must be a rising or graduating senior. There is no stipend. Application deadline: March 1, 1979.

3. The National Art Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. has summer internships within the Gallery. You must be a graduating senior with a background in art history. You will receive $202.00 per wk. Application deadline: March 16, 1979.

Students with an interest in Anthropology could go to Utah on an archeology internship.

The American Chemical Society's Division of

Analytical Chemistry has an Internship Program designed to introduce undergraduates to the modern analytical chemistry area. Application deadline: February 15, 1979.

The Tobe-Coburn School for Fashion Careers, Ltd. in N.Y., N.Y. has fellowships for graduating seniors to attend a one-year course of study at their school. Application deadline: February 15, 1979.

The Career Services Office has details and applications on many of these internship opportunities and others. Also, the Resource Room has an on-going display this semester on where the summer employment is and how to obtain it. CHECK IT OUT!

February Recruiting

Schedule

- 8 - Bank of North Carolina
 - 8 - Kinston City Schools
 - 8 - Electronic Data Systems
 - 12 - Camp Seafarer
 - 13 - Radio Shack
 - 13 - Metropolitan Life
 - 14 - Southern National Bank
 - 14 - Prudential Life Insurance
 - 15 - OCCUPATIONAL OUTLOOK DAY '79
 - 16 - Naval Surface Weapons Center
 - 19 - High Point Schools
 - 20 - Burroughs-Wellcome
 - 20 - Research Triangle Institute
 - 21 - Burlington Industries
 - 21 - Chatham County Schools
 - 22 - Granville County Schools
 - 27 - Fauquier County Schools, MD
 - 27 - Square D Company
 - 28 - Moore County Schools
- BE AT 0079!!

Join the highroad to adventure

Delaplane, Virginia, December 14, 1978 -- Discover a quiet mountain stream, unravel the mysteries of an ancient abbey, become a part of cosmopolitan Paris or London. American Youth Hostels (AYH), specialists in low-cost travel for over 45 years, offers some creative ways to see the world.

Most of the Virginia based organization's 70 trips are designed for those who want to see the world under their own steam -- by bicycle, foot or canoe. Varying from six to 44 days, from bicycling in Hawaii to backpacking in the Canadian Rockies to sight-seeing in Moscow, the trips share one common element: hosteling.

Hosteling is high adventure on a low budget. It is living out of backpacks and saddlebags and staying in hostels, low-cost overnight travel accommodations. It is for the young at heart, and not, as the name implies, for only the young in age. AYH offers 25 trips for adults (21 years and over), both in the United States and abroad.

American Youth Hostels' free "1979 Highroad to Adventure" travel brochure describes each of the trips. In addition to these pre-planned trips, their Travel Department will design and make arrangement for organizers of special groups who wish to create their own tour plans.

Groups are composed of seven to nine members and a trained AYH leader. AYH groups follow definite itineraries, yet are free to make group decisions along the way. Abroad, groups stay primarily in youth hostels. In the United States and Canada, AYH groups stay both in hostels and at campgrounds.

The American Youth Hostels' "Join the Highroad to Adventure" brochure is available free. Call toll free: (800) 336-6019, or write:

American Youth Hostels Travel Department, Box T, Delaplane, Virginia 22025.

Ole Time HOTDOGS

are gooOOOod

MAN-MUR CENTER

Open til 9 Mon.-Fri.

COUPON --

Buy 1 pizza,

Get the next smaller one

FREE.

VILLAGE INN

PIZZA PARLOR

Western Blvd.

851-6994

Ridgewood

Beauty Shop

Ridgewood Shopping Center

833-4632

YOU...

AS A WOMAN

LINE OFFICER

IN THE NAVY

Your first step in applying for the Officer Candidate (Women) Program will be to take the Officer Aptitude Rating examination.

You can make an appointment to take the test through your local Navy recruiter or the Officer Programs officer at a Navy Recruiting District office. Your recruiter will provide the necessary application forms and assist you in compiling the other documents required for your application.

Lt. Cmdr. Bill Starnes will be at "00-79" which will be at Cate Center on Thursday, Feb. 15 from 1 to 5 p.m. Stop by his table and talk to him about the many opportunities in the Navy. Or call Officer Programs in Raleigh at 872-2005.

NAVY OFFICER. IT'S NOT JUST A JOB, IT'S AN ADVENTURE.