Basketball Update

by Darla Stephenson

Gardner-Webb

The Meredith basketball team travelled to Gardner-Webb on Friday, Jan. 26 where they were defeated 60-88. The Gardner-Webb team were good shooters, quick and played several defenses effectively. The opposing team pressed and caused costly turnovers for the Meredith squad. Coach Marie Chamblee said that the Angels played rather well and commended the well-coached opposers. Kay Pollock was top scorer and rebounder with 16 points and 9 rebounds. Sharon Sawyer followed Pollock with 11 points and Jane Campbell had 10.

Davidson Community

The Meredith team was on the road again the following day when they met at Davidson Community College on Jan. 27th. The Angels were victorious 56-53 with Kathy Owen as top scorer with 14, Kay Pollock following with 12 and Jane Campbell with 12. Lynn Helms who had 10 points, and was 4-4 from the foul line was the clutch player in the game. Helms was fouled in the last minutes of the game and had to make the shots from the free throw line to assure the Angel victory. Coach Chamblee said it was Lynn's best game. Top rebounders were Jane Campbell with 10 and Alisa Robertson with 10.

UNC-Wilmington

On Tuesday, Jan. 30th, the Angels were again on the road, this time to Wilmington where they were defeated by a tough UNC-W team 57-75. The lead changed hands numerous times and was tied often throughout the game. At the 4 minute mark, UNC-W made 4 unanswered baskets and then went into a stall with an 8 point lead. In desperation, the Meredith team fouled, hoping the opposers would miss the free throws. But UNC-W hit 15-15 from the line and widened an 8 point lead to 18 points in just 1 minute and 30 seconds. Alisa Robertson was credited as playing her best game. Coach Chamblee really commended Alisa as she scored 17 points and 10 rebounds which were both game highs for the Meredith squad. Also, in double figures was Jane Campbell with 10.

As far as the actual playing goes, Coach Chamblee said it was the best team defense, a zone defense, that the team has played. The Angels also ran the best man-to-man offense so far this year. The Meredith team made good passes and took good shots. The overall play was excellent and surely it was a heart-breaking loss for the team.
