Registration by mail

Students who do not plan to make any changes from pre-registration on change day, January 13, 1981, have the option of completing spring semester registration by mail. By doing so, a student may return to campus at her convenience, prepared to begin classes on Wednesday, January 14, 1981.

To register by mail, pick up a form in the Registrar's office, fill out completely and return with initial tuition payment to: Accounting Office, Meredith College, Raleigh, N.C. 27611.

The amount of the first payment is:

1. $1050 for resident students
2. $700 for non-resident students

3. One-half of anticipated tuition at $95 per credit hour for part-time students. Students on financial aid may deduct one-fourth (1/4) of their annual aid from the above amount.

Those students who do not register by mail must complete registration on January 13. Deadline for mailing is January 7.

Rose visits

The History Department announces that Mr. John Rose, Clerk of the House of Commons, will be a Kenan Visiting Fellow in August for four weeks.

Mr. Rose is thoroughly familiar with British Parliamentary law, government, and is an English representative to the European Economic Conference. He associates with every major British and European politician and economist.

Mr. Rose will teach a module on British government or the European Common Market—precise subject to be determined. He will address the College and be available as a resource person to any interested in his expertise.

Mr. Rose will return to Great Britain about September 26th to attend the meeting of the European Economic Conference in Strasbourg.

He was obtained by the Department of History and through the good offices of Dr. Roger Crook, London Study Abroad Director.

Panel notes

On Monday, November 10, 1980, the Mediation Panel met at 7:30 to discuss three cases. The first case involved a student accused of theft. The case after being heard, was referred to Judicial Board.

The second case concerned a freshman accused of falsification of college documents. She was found guilty and denied Late Permission for five days.

The third case dealt with another freshman accused of falsification of college records and leaving the dorm after closing hours. On the first charge, the student was found guilty and denied Late Permission for five days. For her second offense, she was found guilty and was given a strict weekend campus.

The Mediation Panel met on November 24, 1980 at 6:30 to hear a case concerning four students who had been driven around to their dorm by a male after closing hours. The regulation regarding this action can be found in the Handbook on page 67, Number 4. Three of the girls were given two call-downs each, and the other was given five call-downs due to circumstances of conduct.

The Judicial Board then met at 8:00 to hear another case. This case involved a student accused of theft. She was found guilty by a jury and suspended by the Board. She is appealing her case.

Best Wishes

We're sending you glad tidings of happiness... wrapped with sincere thanks for making this year a successful one!
