Recently 31 Meredith students were nominated to the Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. A campus nominating committee made the selections based on a decidedly above average academic standing, community service, leadership ability and future potential. A student was considered eligible if she had completed 90 semester hours and had at least a 2.5 quality point ratio.

This year's students will be recognized with a biographical entry in the 48th edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Who's Who, a recognized institution of the American academic community, is conferred annually upon outstanding student leaders. Over the past 46 years, more than 1,300 colleges and universities have adapted this program as part of their annual campus honors.

Changes for The Twig

by Lori Howell

New Years brings changes and The Twig is no exception to these changes. Over the past semester I, as editor, have studied many of The Twig's problems and through the changes to be implemented spring semester, I hope to have remedied many of the problems.

The next couple of years will be growing years for the paper. Attitudes of the students here at Meredith are changing and as we graduate and new students take over, new blood and new life will be pumped into The Twig.

The Twig is vital to this campus and because of the vitalness our publication dates have been changed to Mondays, so that you'll have the news at the beginning of the week instead of the middle.

Changes are for the better, but with our changes

The Twig has lost some of its staff members due to schedule conflicts. We need more help to function properly and efficiently. The areas we need the most help in are: staff reporting, features, photography and sports writing. Although these are the needy areas, The Twig can use anyone willing to help in any area. If interested please call me Lori Howell at 828-0735 or come by my room -- 215 Poteat.
