

Freshman Elections!!!!

REGULATIONS FOR CAMPAIGNING!

Each candidate is allowed to have TWO 8 1/2 x 11 posters on each hall of each dorm. THREE posters of the same size are allowed in Cate Center or on the information boards adjacent to Cate Center and the Library. No posters are allowed on the glass doors in Cate Center.

No posters or table flyers are allowed in the dining hall or on the doors entering the dining hall. Also, no posters are allowed in the class buildings or in Johnson Hall.

Flyers are allowed to be distributed at each door in the dorms and door to door campaigning is encouraged.

Anyone violating these regulations will have their posters removed.

After elections have been held, each candidate is required to remove her posters from the sites at which they were placed. If a candidate is involved in a run-off election, her posters may remain up until the run-off results are tallied, then they should be removed promptly. All campaign paraphernalia should be removed within 24 hours of the results of that election.

If there are any questions concerning this, or any other facet of the elections process, please contact me at 828-5890.

Apply for Internships

Each semester more than 250 students from colleges and universities across the country come to Washington, D.C. to work as interns under the auspices of the Washington Center for Learning Alternatives. They gain experience and academic credit for working full time in Congressional, Executive or Judicial offices; public interest organizations; national associations, or private businesses.

The WCLA Internship Program, open to juniors and seniors in all academic majors, includes: placement; orientation, counseling, supervision, and evaluation of intern progress; academic seminars and group discussions with other interns; guest lectures; social and cultural events with other interns; and centrally-located housing.

WCLA is not a credit-granting institution; it does, however, function as an adjunct to the university-college campus. Students participating in the internship program receive from their home institutions academic credit.

WCLA Internship placements sites have included such diverse settings as the U.S. Congress, the C.C. Superior Court, the U.S. State Department, the National Trust for Historic Preservation, the U.S. Department of Commerce, NBC News, the AFL-CIO, the Smithsonian, the National Institutes of Health, Common Cause, and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

WCLA requires all students to enroll in one of our seminars, which are taught by qualified Washington professionals (attorneys, Congressional staff, policy analysts, etc.) and cover a distinct area of an academic discipline. Seminar offerings include: "Trial by Jury," "Art Comes to the Nation's Capital," "U.S. Foreign Policy in the Third World," "Petro-Dollars," and "An Inside Look at the Washington Press Corps."

The application deadline for the 1983 Winter Quarter Internship Program is October 15; for the 1983 Spring Semester, November 1, 1982. For an application and more program information, write or call: The Internship Program, The Washington Center for Learning Alternatives, 1705 DeSales Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. SOME OF THE MOST IMPORTANT WORK FOR CANCER IS BEING DONE OUTSIDE THE LAB.

It's being done by people like Madeline Mitza and Theresa Barbieri.

They met when Madeline was in treatment for breast cancer and Theresa was the volunteer who drove her to her therapy appointments. Now, like Theresa, Madeline is bringing help and hope to others as a Reach to Recovery volunteer.

The work in the lab must continue. So must the work outside. We need your help.
