Intramural Update

Never fear, sports fans, Meredith's 1984 Intramurals are officially getting underway once again for another semester of excitement and fun! First on our agenda is basketball intramurals which will be starting the week of January 30. So put on your "high tops" and practice your "slam dunk" and join in the fun of 1984 basketball intramurals.

Once basketball gets in action, get your bathing caps and "speedos" out and join in MRA's official (half serious-half wacky) Swim Meet! This will be a one night event; the specific date will be set soon.

Now that you're back in the "swing" of intramurals, you can keep on "swinging and swatting" at ping-pong balls and badminton birdies, because we plan to get some tournaments set up in February.

So don't just sit around during the long, dreary months of January and February with the "winter blahs," get your body moving on down to the gym and get in shape while having lots of fun participating in intramurals! Yea - let's get started today!

Meredith hosts St. Mary's

By Karen Mann and Carmel Swanson

Each year around this time the Meredith Angels Basketball team hosts the St. Mary's Sprites. The Sprites are the Angel's biggest rivals. The date is Tuesday, January 31. You won't want to miss the angelic gathering at Meredith's own Weatherspoon Gymnasium at 7:00 p.m.

Be a part of this great rivalry by supporting your Meredith Angels basketball team. The first 100 fans receive free admission. Free snacks will be given to those Meredith girls who dress like St. Mary's girls. This includes lots of make-up, jean jacket, blue jean mini-skirt or crop pants, athletic socks, clogs, and many add-a-beads.

A Pep Rally will be held before the beginning of the game, so come early. Retired cheerleaders bring your cheers and voices. There will also be a special halftime program that you won't want to miss.
