Trailways offers Raleigh students $59 round-trip

Savings Of Up to $189 Over Regular Ticket Price

Trailways Lines, Inc., the nation's "low fares everywhere" bus line, is now offering college students in Raleigh a $59 round-trip fare from Raleigh to any other Trailways location nationwide. According to Tom Kissell, Trailways' director of passenger sales marketing, the regular round-trip ceiling fare is $248.

"Students can now save up to $189 when they travel on Trailways. It's so cheap that even if you weren't planning a trip, you should," he commented.

The new fare is available for sale through May 24, 1984. The tickets may be used for travel until June 24, 1984. "To receive the discount, students need only to show their college I.D.," stated Kissell.

Trailways serves over 12,000 cities, towns and communities from coast-to-coast. The special fare is good on Trailways Lines, Inc. and participating Trailways carriers. For information on schedules, contact your local Trailways terminal.
