Aqua Angels swam into action last weekend

The Meredith Aqua Angels presented a fantastic show last Thursday, March 29, and Friday, March 30 entitled "Water Colors."

Their hard work proved successful when applause filled the Weatherspoon Pool.

The first color to take the stage was purple in a number entitled "Total Panic" by Martin Rushent and Human League. Swimmers were Catherine Cole, Mary Kay McIver, Sandy Fitzgerald, Michele Roberson, Susan Hassell, Mia Sanderford, Laura Litchfield, and Cammy

Smith.

Next came the colors of the ocean, pink and blue in a number entitled "Here Comes My Baby" by Perry Botkin, Jr. and his Orchestra. Swimmers were Sarah Kendall and Melissa McLaney.

The Rose followed to the tune, "Those Were the Days" by Arthur Greenslade and his Orchestra. Swimmers were Sandy Fitzgerald, Penny Gooden, Susan Hassell, Michele Roberson, Cammy Smith, and Sarah Kendall.

Following the Rose came Colorless to the music "Lorelei" by the Tom Tom Club. Swimmers were Melanie Carawan, Susan Day, Betty Anne Divoky, Tara Owen, Farish Reed, Lisa Welsh, and Becky Hickmon.

Next was Calico in which the swimmers exhibited their talents as frolicking kittens. The song was entitled, "I Hope that Somethin' Better Comes Along" by Paul Williams and Kenny Ascher. Swimmers were Susan Hassell, Michelle Roberson, Mia Sanderford and Laura Litchfield.

Yellow followed to the tune of "The Wiz" by Peter Nero.

Swimmers were Catherine Cole, Sandy Fitzgerald, Jan Joyner and Sarah Kendall.

Next came the beautiful spectrum of the rainbow to the music "Over the Rainbow" by The Best of Leberace. Swimmers were Penny Gooden, Melissa McLaney, Jan Joyner, Mia Sanderford, Laura Litchfield, and Cammy Smith.

Following the rainbow came the black and white of the piano keys to the song "Ebony and Ivory" by Stevie Wonder and Paul McCartney. Swimmers were Catherine Cole and Mary Kay McIver.

Soon came the color green to the tune "Duppet on a String" by Frank Comstock and his Orchestra. Swimmers were Penny Gooden, Jan Joyner and Melissa McLaney.

The 1984 Aqua Angels have worked hard on this fantastic show. by Kim Sealy

Intramurals Update

Here are the final results of the MCPPT (Meredith College Ping Pong Tournament):

The individual class winners are as follows: senior class - Wynne Carey; junior class - Rhett Ellerbee; sophomore class - Laura Cochran, and freshman class - Susan Beck. The final championship was played Wednesday, March 28, between Susan Beck, freshman winner, and Wynne Carey, senior winner.

They played a two out of three match with Wynne winning the first game 21-16 and also winning the second game 21-11 causing her to be the victorious winner of MCPPT. Wynne received an intramural champion t-shirt for her victory.

Kickball

Now that spring is here and warm weather is too, it's time to play outside in the sunshine in front of weatherspoon gym. What? You ask. Kickball, of course! Kickball intramurals began today, April 9. Check for game schedules with intramural representatives or in Cate Center. Bring back fond "childhood memories" of kickball games and join in the fun!

Badminton

Also beginning today are badminton intramurals. Again, check with intramural representatives about game schedules. Come on "badmintoneers" and swat at those birdies down in Weatherspoon gym!

April intramurals are in full bloom, so "spring" into action and get involved!

Play Day is on the way

Runners ready... Take your mark... Go... and they're off. It's the Olympics, Meredith Style. Yes, it's MRA's Play Day, a take-off on the Olympic Games, and you won't want to miss this spirited afternoon of athletic events. All residents, non-residents, faculty, and staff are invited to complete in individual and team relays, an obstacle course, and more. You'll want to be there because there's no better way to spend Wednesday, April 11 from 3:00 - 6:00 p.m. than in the Meredith College Courtyard enjoying the cool breeze and sunshine while participating in PLAY DAY.
