

A LOOK AT CAMPUS

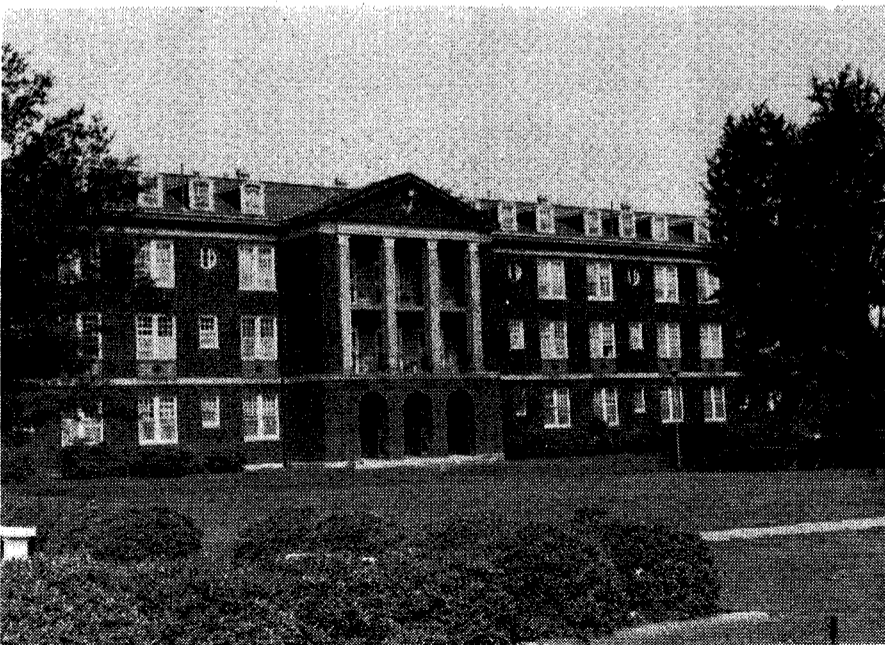

Joyner Hall: Located on the first floor is the English department, alias 'The Pit'. Many students enter 'The Pit and never come out.

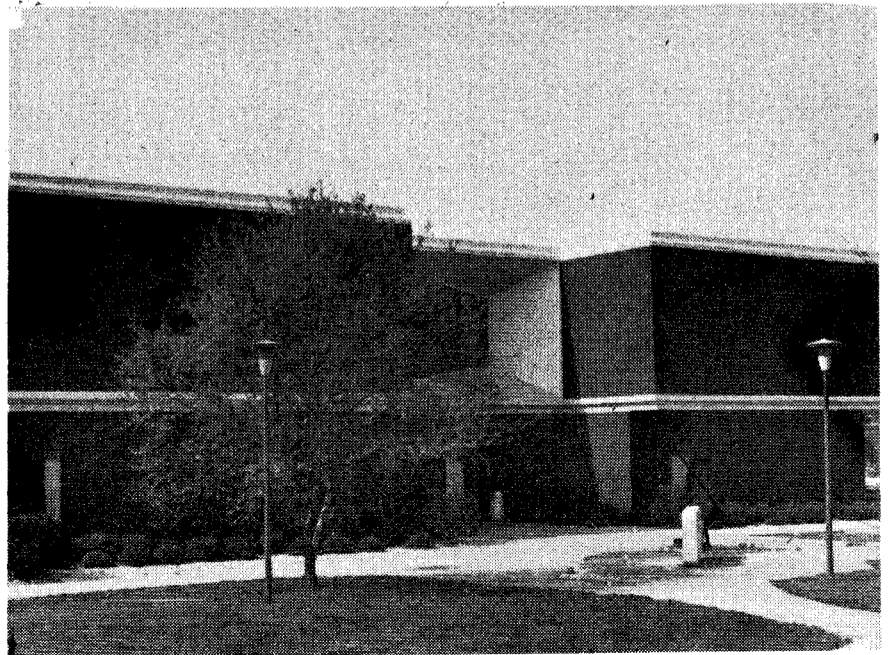

Belk Dining Hall: The Surgeon General has proclaimed that frequent visits to Belk Dining Hall can be hazardous to your health. However, missing special meals and picnics could prove to be more hazardous. [above]

Carlyle Campbell Library: This is definitely the place to be on Friday nights. Don't forget to take your electric blanket to weather the Alaskan temperatures.

Stringfield Dorm: If this is not your home away from home, then may its twin, Vann is. Sister Carrol or Carrol Annex may provide your shelter. Wherever you live - welcome to Meredith.

Cate Center: Need to get away? Come to Cate, eat a good meal in Le Greenhouse, watch television, play ping pong or pool. Sit in the fireside lounge, write an article and submit it to The Twig located on 2nd Cate.
