

Genesis: A New Beginning

Are you tired of the same old routine? Need a break from studying? Feel like you need a new beginning? If so, join us this week for some fun, fellowship, and new perspectives during our 1985 Religious Emphasis Week.

The week began on Sunday with the Kick-Off, featuring Mrs. Carol Snow Naqui from the Women's Correctional Center. Monday's morning worship included one of Meredith's favorite speakers, Dr. Albert Edwards, as well as Mark McMasters performing mime. A youth minister and dynamic mimist, Mark will also lead the unwinding on Monday evening in the Chapel Commons Room.

Tuesday's activity starts bright and early at 7:15 a.m. with a Prayer Breakfast with Meredith's Dr. Dorothy Preston. Moving on to Wednesday, Mrs. Esther Burroughs from Home Missions Board will be leading our morning worship and our 11:00 communion service. Mrs. Burroughs is the lyricist of seven different musicals, has served as director of several different youth programs, and is presently Assistant Director of the Special Ministries Department of the Home Missions Board. She is a dynamic speaker who will be sharing with us on the topic "Renewing Relationships."

The grand finale to this week will be the Michael Card concert on Thursday evening in Jones Auditorium. Michael is a contemporary Christian vocalist who is well-known for his works "El Shaddai" and "I have Decided", both of which are on Amy Grant's Age to Age album. Michael's music varies from soft ballads and hymns to high energy rock, making his music enjoyable to any audience of any age. Tickets are available to Meredith students for only $1.00 in Cate Center Box Office and are available to the public for only $4.00. Don't miss this outstanding performer as well as this action packed week concerning "Genesis: A New Beginning."

Regulations for Campaigning

by Kim Tansky

Chairman of Elections Board

Each candidate is allowed to have TWO 8½x11 posters on each hall of each dorm. THREE posters of the same size are allowed in Cate Center or on the information boards adjacent to Cate Center and the Library. No posters are allowed on the glass doors in Cate Center.

No posters or table flyers are allowed in the dining hall or on the doors entering the dining hall. Also, no posters are allowed in the class buildings or in Johnson Hall.

Flyers are allowed to be distributed at each door in the dorms and door to door campaigning is encouraged.

Anyone violating these regulations will have their posters removed.

After elections have been held, each candidate is required to remove her posters from the sites at which they were placed. If a candidate is involved in a run-off election, her posters may remain up until the run-off results are tallied, then they should be removed promptly. All campaign paraphernalia should be removed within 24 hours of the results of that election.

If there are any questions concerning this, or any other facet of the elections process, please contact me.

New 1040 Makes Filing EZ

Greensboro- Single taxpayers with no dependents can do their taxes the easy way this year by using Form 1040EZ, the Internal Revenue Service says.

The IRS estimates that 400,000 North Carolina taxpayers, many of them college students, will use this simple tax form when filing their 1984 tax return. The Form 1040EZ is only 11 lines long and is specially designed for single taxpayers with no dependents, who do not itemize their deductions and whose taxable income is less than $50,000 a year. Income on the Form 1040EZ must be only from wages, salaries, tips, and interest of $400 or less with no All-Savers interest.

Taxpayers who use the Form

1040EZ to file their federal income taxes will need to use care when filling out the form. If at all possible, filers should use the peel-off label provided by IRS. The special label contains the name, address and social security number of the taxpayer and any errors in these items can be corrected right on the label.

Step-by-step instructions for completing the Form 1040EZ can be found on the back of the form, but filers must look up their tax in the Tax Table in the Form 1040EZ and Form 1040A tax package.

Additional information is available by calling the IRS at 1-800-424-1040, toll-free.
