Meredith warms up with opening scrimmage

by Lisa Britt

Meredith College opened its softball season with a scrimmage at Louisburg College on Wednesday, February 27. The Angels fared well in the doubleheader but Louisburg walked away with both victories. The losses will not count against Meredith's seasonal record.

Louisburg jumped ahead quickly in the first game and held Meredith scoreless to win, 5-0. The Angels got their bats crackin' in the second game, though, and held a 3-run lead. But Louisburg returned the favor and rallied to win 9-8.

Veteran Sandy Dupree began her 3rd season and pitched for the Angels in the first game. Other juniors included centerfielder Teresa McMaster, who hit 3 of 6 and batted in 2 runs, Renee Godwin, who was on the mound during the second game and hit a triple to bring in a run. Sophomore Terri Marks excelled at the plate by hitting 3 of 5 and scoring 2 runs. Sophomore shortfielder Buzze Mann played well defensively as well as hitting a double to add another run.

Those players returning for a second season are outfielders Margaret Gill and Becky Smith, catcher Beth Kennedy, first basemen Aileen Jenkins and Carlissa Oakley, and third baseman Joan Wyatt. Freshman team members are Kelly Bagby, Debra Kirkland, Kathleen O'Brien, Carla Quinn, and Lou Anne Stephenson.

Dr. Cindy Bross coaches the Meredith College softball team, and is assisted by Dr. Jack Huber, Clare Lyn Brock, and Jeff Moore. Susan Beck manages the team while Fannie Rowland is the scorekeeper. Meredith plays Peace College tomorrow and Mt. Olive on Friday. Both games are scheduled for 3:30 at the Meredith field.

Meredith Netters open season

by Lisa Britt

The Meredith College tennis team begins its regular season play with a match against Christopher Newport (Virginia). The match was played at home at 2:30.

Coach Joy Massye has 8 players returning from the fall season. Junior Theresa Duffy and sophomore Barbara Bulla played the number 1 and 2 positions, respectively.

Rounding out last season's line-up are juniors Pam Fisher, Laura Cochrane, and Melinda Wrenn. Sophomore Dorcus

Hostetler returns for the spring, as well as freshman Elizabeth Hornthal, who played the third position, and Sara McMillian. Sophomore Kinney Neal played last year but was unable to play in the fall due to illness. Newcomers to the tennis team are sophomore Meshelle Cox and freshmen Karen Lamonds and Jessica Perry. The Angels' next tennis match will be at St. Mary's tomorrow at 2:30. They travel to Queens College on Thursday.

First fair wins basketball title

by Aileen Jenkins

The Intramural Basketball Championship was an exciting one between 3rd Barefoot Ballskins and 1st Faircloth. First Faircloth edged out the Ballskins 29-15. Steve's Ice Cream's Most Valuable Players were selected from each team, with Carole Jeanne Ricks from 3rd Barefoot and Phyllis Karres from 1st Faircloth taking the honors! Coach Marie Chamblee and Theresa Duffy did a great job of officiating. Thanks to all teams, participants, and referees for making Basketball Intramurals a success!
