Just Rappin'

Little Friends Weekend is coming up Aprll 27 and 28 and it's, time for us to either ask the little friends of ours or meet some little ones so we can Invite them.

This weekend is a unique aspect of Meredith and I encourage everyone to take advantage of this opportunity. If you don't think you'd enjoy having a friend up because you are afraid that it won't be that much fun, ask several of your friends to participate. Make it a fun weekend to remember and to share with your friends - little and big.

Make your arrangements soon to get involved.

Little Friends, SPRING BREAK, Sports

I'm looking forward to the April 1st issue of The Twig for several reasons; however, the biggest reason is because it is the first annual "SPRING BREAK ISSUE." Yes, you heard it right. This Twig will feature our activities over Spring Break, with the names of everyone and also the title or lyric of a song that best describes your trip.

Second, we need you to write up what you did during Spring Break. If you visited your grandparents, went to Atlanta, New York, FLORIDA, or home - tell us what you did.

Third, we need you to submit anything else you want to to make this issue worth bringing back next year. If you've written a note, a poem, or have a funny saying you've come up with, we want to know.

When you complete all (or one or two) of the above, bring them by 113 Heilman or drop them in The Twig box located outside the Cate Center Box Office, by March 25. I'm counting on you to make this issue one to remember Should you have any questions, feel free to call me.

Meredith's softball and tennis teams have started their seasons and I urge all of you to go out and support them. Our teams practice and play hard to bring home victories and it is imbortant fato appreciate them.

Carrying a class load and playing sports is difficult. I admire our athletes for doing their best to maintain their grades and a winning season.

If you are unable to see one of the games, make an effort to wish the best to the team members and coaches.

Good luck teams! We're behind you.

Little Friends Weekend

Saturday and Sunday, April 27 and 28, are the dates for Little Friends Weekend this year. An annual event sponsored by Student Foundation, this weekend is a time when little sisters, nieces, cousins, and friends of Meredith students are invited to the Meredith campus to participate in activities planned especially for them. "Little Friends" must be in the 7-12 age group, and and each must have a Meredith student sponsor. More information will be delivered to residence halls soon.

Divorce group successful

by Jenny Beavers

The Divorce and Separation Support Group had a very successful first meeting last Wednesday night. A small group of four students along with Marge Shelton, college counselor, met in the Personal Growth Center last week for a personal time of openess and honesty. We related our similar emotions stemming from different family circumstances, each student seeking comfort, support, and a bit of justice. Meeting as strangers was a difficult thing; however, the familiar heaviness at heart that we all felt soon gave way to ready conversations. We seek not to find solutions or answers, because most of the time, in divorce and separation situations, answers are beyond our realms of acceptance. Talking about it and getting it out from under our student facades made our evening worthwhile and our company very special.

As none of us had really talked among our friends about our familles' separations and divorces, we felt sure that numerous other students must be suffering the same trauma alone without any outlets for steam. We invite those students to join our group this Wednesday night at 8:00 in the Personal Growth Center on the second floor of Cate. We are not following any sort of format, just our feelings and impulses.

Please work it into your schedule for your own sake.
