Kate Kenney prepares for USA pageant

Twenty-three year old Kate Kenney of Raleigh won the title of Miss North Carolina U.S.A. 1985 in Greensboro last August. On April 20, she will depart for Lakeland, Florida to begin an exciting month of activities which will culminate in Kate's competing for the coveted title of Miss U.S.A. 1985, to be telecast live from Lakeland on May 13, on the CBS Television Network. Should she win this competition she will go on to represent the U.S.A. in the Miss Universe Pageant.

The vibrant Miss Kenney is currently spending most of her time preparing for her departure. Kate is busy choosing a wardrobe for the pageant which includes a carefully selected evening gown since that is one-third of the competition. Kate says, however, "the bathing suit competition is more important so I'm working out a lot. I want to be in the best shape I can for the Pageant." To ready herself, she jogs three times a week, lifts weights every other day and does the Jane Fonda workout every day.

Representing your state as Miss North Carolina means making public appearances which is something else Kate has fit into her busy schedule. One such appearance was for the Lung Association where her brother, Steve, who is with the Eagles Football Team, was also a guest. As for appearing with her brother, Kate says, "it was very exciting."

Kate is a student and has managed to find time to go to classes, study and help other students prepare for cheer-leading tryouts.

Amid all this activity Kate still finds time to daydream about the Pageant and what will happen but is a bit nervous and also very excited. She will do her best to represent North Carolina and is looking forward to her departure. Let's send Kate off to Lakeland on April 20 with our best of wishes.

Crook

15. If the Crook is not found, it will be carried in Class Day by the Senior Class President with a bow attached of the class colors.

16. These rules may be changed through time as tradition lives on and the need is seen for change.

Mrs. Thorne or the Housing Director in Poteat keeps the Crook. Get it from her and return it to her.

There are two crooks - one for hiding and a nicer one for Class Day.

Beth '83

We hid the Crook during Easter Break, Don't let the rain wash it away or uncover it though.

Congratulations

New McDonald's

RALEIGH--On April 13, McDonald's found Raleighites who were "hungry like the Wolfman", as it celebrated the opening of the world's newest McDonald's restaurant on Hillsborough Street.

The new restaurant, located in the site of the old Varsity Theater, has been designed with a 50's theme in honor of McDonald's 30th birthday.

Renowned disc jockey Wolfman Jack led a procession of 50's automobiles and the NCSU Marching Band down Hillsborough Street on Saturday, April 13.

Those visiting the restaurant registered for an authentic 1955 Chevy Bel Air, to be given away April 22.

The restaurant's 50's motif is unique to the McDonald's system and is authentic all the way down to its 1952 Seeburg jukebox, which was fully restored specifically for the restaurant.

Up in Lights

Raleigh, March 29--McDonald's has put its name "up in lights" on the marquee of its newest and most unique restaurant, located on Hillsborough Street. The restaurant, former site of the old Varsity Theater across from N.C. State, opened Tuesday, April 2. The entire building has been completely redone in a 50's motif, authentic all the way down to its neon lights, both inside and out.
