Meredith Tennis

by Lisa Britt

Meredith tennis team's hopes of capturing its seventh win of the season were dashed by thunderstorms instead of the opposing team. The season finale was April 16 against Salem College but the rains hit Raleigh before the Angels could win the decisive fifth match that would have given them the win. Nonetheless, Meredith ends the spring season with a respectable record of six wins and three losses.

In the rained-out match against Salem, only four singles matches were completed and Meredith won all four.

Theresa Duffy blanked Margaret Mays 6-0, 6-0. Barbara Bulla defeated Janet Horne 6-2, 6-1. Kinney Neal won over Lindsey DeRose 6-2, 6-0. Melinda Wrenn posted the final victory over Sally Amon 6-4, 6-1.

Pam Fisher was playing in the middle of her second set when the rain ran the players off the courts. The match could have gone either way as the score read 4-6, 4-2 in Pam's match against Nanette DeGrot. Laura Cochrane took her first set against Catherine Perry by a score of 7-5 but was unable to play any further.

So you've slept through the semester, time to wake up and do well on your exams!
