McMillan Helps MEA

by Ivy L. Murrain
Contributing reporter

MEA's personality of the week is Sara McMillan. We would like to commend Sara on taking efficient notes and being very prompt in sending them to all members. We thank you Sara for a Great Job!

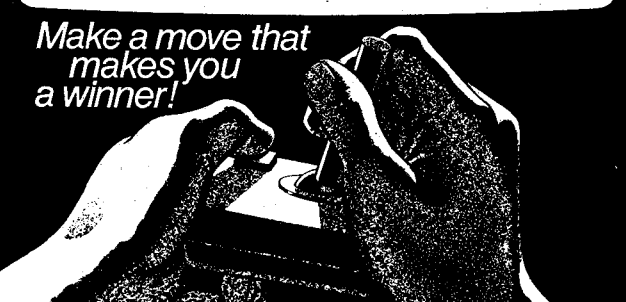

MEA has a great fall planned for Meredith. We have shown two movies already and have many more planned. The Luau will be held at the Lake October 3 at 4:30. Tom DeLuca will be back with more of his zany jokes and hypnosis on October 16 at 8:00 p.m. in Jones Auditorium. Movies this fall will be the Terminator - Oct. 6, 7:30 & 9:30 p.m.; The Creature from the Black Lagoon - Oct. 20, 8:00 & 9:30 p.m.; Ghostbusters - Oct. 27, 7:30 p.m.; Nightmare on Elm St. - Oct. 27, 9:30 p.m.; and Terms of Endearment - Nov. 7, 7:30 & 9:30 p.m. The Holiday Dance will be held this year on November 23 from 9 p.m. - 1 a.m.

Separation and Divorce

The Separation and Divorce Support Group is inviting you to attend our next meeting, Thursday Evening, September 26, at 7:00 p.m. in the Personal Growth Center on 2nd floor Cate. Our group is close, personal, and designed to help you vent your feelings concerning your family situation. Give it a try — you may never know how much you really need a group of this kind until you try. We are encouraging all of those who have not met with us previously to come next Thursday — you need this outlet more than you will ever know. We're all looking forward to seeing you.

ALL PROSPECTIVE EDUCATION MAJORS AND SNCAE MEMBERS!

ACORN INFO'

This Could be the Start of Something Big

by Lia Braganza

Great things from little acorns grow. That is our theme this year, because Meredith is budding with creative talent.

The Acorn is Meredith College's literary and art magazine, published yearly. We accept original photography, pen and ink drawings and literary works (poetry, prose, short stories - in any language).

This year, we are accepting material from now until February, in order to accommodate our Spring publication date.

Art and Literature should be submitted to Lia Braganza, editor (412 Brewer, No. 829-7794) or placed in the Acorn Drop Box outside the Acorn office (2nd floor Cate Center).

Please print name and address on each submission. If anonymous publication is desired, indicate below the previous instructions.

Our first organizational meeting for the Acorn will be held Wednesday, September 25 at 6 p.m. in the Fireside Lounge (2nd floor Cate Center).

Anyone who enjoys good artwork and exciting writing is welcome to come and join our staff of reviewers.

College Republicans: An Exciting Party

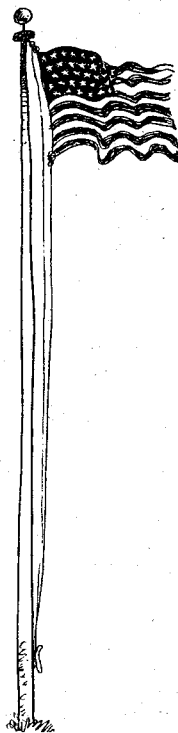

Just like the National Republican Party, Meredith's College Republican club is growing and we hope you will become a part of it. Last year at the National Convention Meredith won most outstanding College Republican Club for a woman's college on a national level. This year's State Convention will be at North Carolina State University the first weekend in November. We hope to do as well at this convention as the national convention last year.

Officers were elected September 3 and they have already made some exciting plans; including a trip to Washington, DC in the Spring Semester and a trip to Elon College February 25 to see former President Gerald Ford.

The College Republicans meet the first Tuesday of each month at 7:30p.m. in 103 Joyner. The next meeting is October 1. The film, "Media Bias" will be shown and discussed. Please contact one of the officers:

President: Joan Proctor
V.-President: Sara B. Fulford
Sec-Treas.: Mary K. Fox
Co-Publicity: Honey Greene and Alisa Phelps
