

Kinnard Keeps MEA Alive and Active

Charlotte Kinnard

by Kim Allen
Features Reporter

The Meredith Entertainment Association (MEA) President Charlotte Kinnard, has accepted various responsibilities. Among these are such things as organizing meetings, lending support to fellow committee members, and reporting to faculty members.

MEA is divided into five subcommittees: the movie series committee, the Holiday Dance committee, the Spring Fling committee, and the publicity committee.

Kinnard became involved in MEA, because she liked what MEA did and she thought that it was interesting. Because of this, she wanted to become a part of MEA and to have an input as to the types of entertainment that the students have at Meredith. Her sophomore year she was treasurer of lectures and concerts, then, her junior year she ran for vice-president. She had enjoyed her two previous years with MEA, so her senior year she ran for president.

Outside of being a member of MEA, Kinnard is also a member of Student Foundation, she serves as second vice-president for Tomorrow's Business Woman, Student Life, and she is also an active member in the Astros. She enjoys being active in intramurals, all Outdoor Activities, and being with her friends. She is majoring in Business Management and may go into sales.

Kinnard feels that this year with MEA will be very successful, "This is the best year since I have been involved in MEA, because my fellow officers are so responsible and enthusiastic."

Tennis Team Update

by Amy Gupton

The Meredith tennis team hosted Campbell University on Thursday, September 19. The Angels played very well, but Campbell took the match 4-5. Number one seed, Theresa Duffy beat Missy Register 6-2, 6-3. Meredith's number two netter, Barbara Bulla took Campbell's Lisa Van Meter 6-1, 6-2. Karen Pool swept the next match from Elizabeth Hornthal 6-3, 6-4. Meredith's Adrienne Gore lost to Kathy Riley 6-3, 4-6, 6-4. Campbell's Susan Maddox beat Amy Messick 4-6, 6-1, 6-2. The Angels came back with Laura Cochrane who swept the last match from Laura May 3-6, 6-4, 7-5.

The number one and number three doubles teams were changed due to Theresa Duffy's elbow injury. Meredith's Barbara Bulla and Kissie Stevens lost to Missy Register and Karen Pool 6-4, 6-4. However, Meredith came back fighting and Elizabeth Hornthal and Amy Messick captured the next match 2-6, 6-4, 6-4. Campbell came back and took the next one with their Susan Maddox and Laura May defeating Laura Cochrane and Julie Johnson 6-3, 6-3.

Coach Massey said that this was the best they had played against Campbell in a long time. Meredith had a very good chance to win, but Duffy's injury was crucial. The match was very long, it lasted from 2:30 until 8:10.

Apple Festival set for Oct. 5

continue through the day.

The apples grown in the Brushy Mountains provided the excuse for an apple festival in the beginning, but the festival has turned into a celebration of mountain life. The festival includes exhibits featuring moonshine stills (producing what the operators term only as "gasohol"), a threshing machine, cider press, a steam tractor, wood carving, a hit-and-miss engine and a corn grinder.

For art lovers, there will be a juried art show, sponsored and conducted by the Wilkes Art Council. The show will feature cash prizes and purchase awards.

For photo buffs, there is the 5th Annual Snap-Shot Contest, first prize is $100.

In addition, there will be a wide variety of crafts available at the various booths which will line the city streets. The list of items which will be offered included leather goods, stone jewelry, wooden toys, stained-glass items, candlewicking accessories, crochet, macrame and quilts.

As in years past, the accent will be on apples and other food items prepared by 70 other Wilkes civic clubs and organizations. The menu will include barbecued chicken, pork chops, Moravian sugar cake, fried apple pies, barbecued ribs, pizza, funnel cake, hamburgers, candy, beef jerky, German-Polish link sausage, chicken and dumplings, Brunswick stew, pinto beans and cornbread, country ham, honey, molasses, apple cider, apple butter, and candied apples.

The Brushy Mountain Apple Festival will begin at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, October 5, and will continue throughout the day with the craft booths set up along the streets. Ample free parking will be available in spaces and lots along the perimeter of the festival grounds. Plans call for shuttle-bus service to the downtown area to be available from satellite lots in the out-lying areas of the town.

North Wilkesboro is located 55 miles west of Winston-Salem on U.S. 421.

LIBERAL ARTS CAREER DAY: LIGHT UP YOUR FUTURE

Phones are ringing and flyers are flying as plans for Meredith College Liberal Arts Career Day are beginning to spark. Friday, September 20 was the first meeting of the Liberal Arts Student Committee, selected by faculty to make preparations for the day. The hospitality and publicity sub-committees began working as a team to make sure all the detailed work from name tags to parking and traffic will be taken care of for the event. Some committee members are Lynn Graham, Howell Stoner, Kimberly Harrelson, Sara Pace, Lee Edgerton, Kelly Milstead, Laura Milano, Lucia Revels, Dottie Bass, Molly Hogg, Collette Corr, and Annette Thorpe.

The next meeting of the Liberal Arts Student Committee is scheduled for Monday, September 30, at 10:00 AM in Cate Center. The phrase "hard work pays off" will be attributed to our committee's success on October 28th. If you're curious about where your college career is taking you, don't miss this exciting day!
