

Meredith College faculty art show

Sponsored by the Craven Arts Council and Gallery, a Meredith College Faculty exhibition will be held at the Bank of the Arts, 317 Middle Street. Art Faculty exhibitors are Dr. J. Craig Greene, John Givvines, Joseph Maron, and Leonard White all of whose work explores the current trend in which they are working.

The paintings, prints, and functional and sculptural clay pieces in this show will be full of visual and intellectual surprises.

The Craven County Chapter of the Meredith College Alumnae Association encourages the public and prospective Meredith students to meet four distinguished professors and to view their works. Sunday, March 2, from 2 to 4 p.m. is reserved for this event.

German films set for March

The cinema of Germany will be presented at the North Carolina Museum of Art this spring as a complement to the exhibition "Modern Germany Masterpieces from The Saint Louis Art Museum." The films will be screened Fridays at 8:00 p.m., March 7 through April 4.

The series concludes on April 4 with "A Love in Germany" (1984), directed by Andrzej Wajda, in which a man and his son investigate an illicit World War II romance.

All films in the series have English subtitles. Series tickets are $11 ($9 for Art Society members); single tickets are $3. For information, call the museum at 833-1935.

All orchestral concert planned for mid-February

The North Carolina Symphony, under the baton of Music Director Gerhardt Zimmermann, will perform an all-orchestral concert on Thursday, Feb. 20 at 8:00 p.m. in Raleigh Memorial Auditorium.

Featured on the program are Dvorak's Symphony No. 9 in E Minor ("From the New World"), Richard Strauss's Death and Transfiguration and Holst's Ballet Music from The Perfect Fool.

A limited number of tickets is available from the North Carolina Symphony Box Office, lower level, Raleigh Memorial Auditorium or at the door on concert night. Call 733-9536 for more information.

NCSU prepares for annual concert

The annual concert by the North Carolina State University Symphonic Band will be held Tuesday, Feb. 18 at 8:00 p.m. in Stewart Theatre on the NCSU campus.

The program includes works by Shostakovich, Wagner and Saint-Saens. Admission is free. For more information, call the NCSU Music Department at 737-2981.

China in film

"China in Film" will be shown in the Projection Room of the Carlyle-Campbell Library at Meredith on Tuesday nights according to the following schedule.

Qui Jin
January 14
Ah Fei
January 28
Run Away
February 11
At Middle Age
February 25
Boat People
March 25
Chan Is Missing
April 8

Funding for "China in Film" is provided by the North Carolina China Council, China Council of The Asia Society, New York; Asian/Pacific Studies Institute, Duke University; and Continuing Education, Meredith College.

KEYBOARD PLAYER NEEDED

for
Part-Time Top 40/Variety Band

Looking for mature person with flexible schedule. No prior band experience necessary, but need to have keyboard background and ability to learn quickly or 781-1752

CALL
467-4628

"Hark the Meredith Herald sings..."

We are accepting applications for staff positions.

For more information, call Cynthia Church.