The truth, the way, the light

"Truthfulness is something we need in politics." Dr. James David Barber is right. But, not only do we need the truth in politics, we need truthfulness in all walks of life.

Dr. Barber's references to the Scriptures sparked an interest. "The truth shall set you free" and "Jesus is the way and the truth and the life" are just verses to some, but the truth is an important part of Meredith. The verses in the rotunda of Johnson Hall signify that for which Meredith stands. The college seal represents the light or the truth with its torch and the Latin LUX meaning light or illumination. Meredith's honor system is based on the honesty of her students, faculty, and administration. By adhering to the honor code, we gain knowledge of ourselves and others in the truest light; however, we must decide in our own lives whether to walk in the truth, the way, and the light.

Meredith Asks...

by Susan Worley and Beth Outland

This week's "Meredith Asks..." question is "What do you think of the new format of the Meredith Herald?"

"I like it. The new format is easier to read." Debra Davis, Sophomore, Clemson, S.C.

"I like it. It looks much more professional. The new format is easier to read." Bridget Ramke, Junior, Fayetteville, N.C.

"I really liked it. The smaller format is better. The content was really good, too." Lori Parrish, Senior, Roanoke Rapids, N.C.

"I like the smaller pages. It's easier to fold and put in your notebook when you're on your way somewhere. It's more convenient." Marge Stevens, Residence Director, Potat

"I hate it. It looks like a business or professional newsletter and quite unlike a newspaper. It looks as though Meredith is selling something. I hope you'll go back to a recognizable newspaper format." Dr. T. C. Parramore, History Department

"I liked it. The size doesn't bother me. It's smaller but it's full. I like that." Richard H. Behrman, Business Department

CORRECTION:

In the September 13 issue the country of Eritrea was spelled incorrectly. The Herald apologizes for any inconveniences.
