Who's Who Selected From Meredith

by Susan Worley

Selections have been made for the 1988-89 Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges award. Thirty-three outstanding Meredith seniors have been chosen to be included in the 1988-89 edition of Who's Who.

The selection process for selecting students for Who's Who involves the Meredith faculty and the Student Life Committee. Each faculty member is asked to nominate up to 30 students. The Student Life Committee then makes the final selections from these nominees.

Write on no more than two taped pages why you think your parent(s) should be nominated as "Parent(s) of the Year." All essays are due on March 23 by 5 p.m. Please turn in your essay to Chandy Christian in The Alumnae House.

Writing Center Active This Semester

by Jayne Potter

The Writing Center is going strong again this semester. In fact, the center has been so busy that there has been a waiting list on several occasions.

Since the Writing Center is on a first-come, first-serve basis, it is important for students to make an appointment and to be on time. Nan Miller, the director, suggests that students actually go down to the center, in 122 Jones, and sign up themselves rather than calling.

Because the Writing Center has so many students needing help, Mrs. Miller and the tutors ask that you call ahead of time if you cannot make your appointment. That way students on the waiting list can be called in in your place.
