Kappa Nu Sigma Inducts Twenty

by Beth Lowry

On March 15, Kappa Nu Sigma inducted twenty new members to their society. Alumnae, current society members, parents and the inductees all joined in the President's Dining Room for a banquet. Judge Sarah E. Parker, a judge for the North Carolina Court of Appeals addressed the group. Judge Parker attended Meredith College, 1960-62 and graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1964. She spent two years in Turkey with the Peace Corps and then received her law degree from the UNC-CH School of Law.

The purpose of Kappa Nu Sigma is to promote scholarship at Meredith. Membership is determined by quality point ratio. All inductees must have a 3.7 grade point average or better and outstanding academic achievement. President Amanda Brooks recognized Senior Holly Bivins for academic achievement. Bivins was awarded the Helen Price Scholarship in the fall of 1988.

Spring Dance Reminders

by the Student Government Association

The Student Government Association looks forward to two successful dances on April 7th. The Winter Dance this year caused considerable damage to Howard Johnson's as well as Meredith's reputation. Meredith College is at present limited as to the places the dances may be held. If the same destruction of property and abusive behavior, during the dance and after, all future Meredith dances will be held in the gymnasium. Please keep the following rules in mind when attending the dance: 1- alcohol is not allowed in the dance at anytime; 2- respect chaperones—any abusive behavior towards chaperones will be tried before Honor Council; 3- act responsibly Please remember that you are responsible for your date and his actions. Please inform your date of Meredith College rules. Any alcohol in the hotel is to remain in the rooms. Remember - don't drink and drive.
