

What's Happening This Week...

ABA sponsors film series

"The Lorraine Hansberry Story" will be shown in the Carlyle Campbell Library projection room on November 14 at 7:00 p.m. This is the second in a series of three films sponsored by the Association for Black Awareness (ABA). Vice-president Leticia Atkinson says the members of ABA "hope these movies will inform others of the national, education, and intellectual heritage of African-American women." The third film, "The Prettiest Piece in Greece," will be shown at 7:00 p.m. on November 28 in the projection room.

International House Events

Monday, November 19 from 6:00 - 7:30 p.m., Dr. John Saunders, Professor of Religion will review the changes and issues in the effort to end apartheid in South Africa in his presentation of Apartheid: The End of Racial Injustice in South Africa?

Monday, November 26 from 6:00 - 7:30 p.m., Drs. Frank Grubbs and Clyde Frazier, Professors in the Department of History and Political Science, will present a lecture on Desert Shield: The Crisis in the Middle East and United States Involvement.

All are welcome to attend these events.

Speech Club to Meet

The Watkins Communication Club will meet on Thursday, November 15, at 5:00 p.m. in Kresge Auditorium. All are welcome. For further information, contact Neha Vyas at 848-6521 or Dr. John Creagh at 829-8258.

Local newsman visits campus

WRAL-TV's Bill Lesley will cover topics relating to the local environment on Monday, November 19 in Kresge Auditorium at 7:15 p.m. His visit is sponsored by Faircloth Residence Hall.

Help stop the slaughter

Every day, animals die. 30,000 pets, 165,000 lab animals, 254,000 trapped for fur, 13 million slaughtered for food. Help stop the slaughter. Hear internationally known animal rights activist Tom Reagan speak on Wednesday, November 14 in 208 Harris at 3:30.

"Men, Women and Language"

The Psychology club is sponsoring the film "Men, Women and Language" on Tuesday, November 13 at 7:00 p.m. in Kresge Auditorium. A panel of invited guests will address questions from the audience.

All are welcome to attend.

What's Your Club Up To?

To announce your organization's activities, send your typed announcements to the Meredith Herald, Box X133 or drop it off at the Herald box beside the box office in Cate Center. All notices received by Wednesday, noon, will be published in the following Monday's edition.

Thanks for your participation!

MAA Sponsors Marketing Exchange

Your Step to the Future

By Susan Moore

The 3rd Annual Marketing Exchange will be held in Kresge Aud. on Nov. 15, from 2:00 to 5:00 pm. The theme of this year's Marketing Exchange is: Your Step to the Future. The Marketing Exchange is an event that brings professionals from advertising and marketing firms to share experiences with the Meredith community. The professionals are also available to critique resumes and answer questions that students may have.

Companies that will be represented this year include: JB Productions, with Mr. Joe Benaforado speaking; WRAL FM, with Ms. Peggy Page speaking; and Coleman Research, with Mr. Micheal Pelia and Ms. Marci Joye speaking. The speakers will talk from 2:00 until 3:00 pm. Then, from 3:00 - 5:00 pm, a reception will be given for students, providing a great opportunity for students to talk and question the speakers.

Also during this time, Ms. Dana Bailey of Beasley, Overcash, and Moore will join Mr. Benaforado in reviewing student portfolios. Members of Career Services Staff will also be on hand to help review resumes.

The Marketing Exchange is a great opportunity for students. Everyone is invited to attend. Freshman and Sophomores will find this a great opportunity to decide whether a Marketing major is worth pursuing; Juniors and Seniors will find this an excellent opportunity to learn what Marketing and Advertising careers are all about.

Classical Artist Visits Meredith

by Janie Mullis

Has anyone noticed an unfamiliar man hanging around Weatherspoon Gym? If so, don't fear. It is Tim Conboy from Manhattan, NY, invited to Meredith as a guest artist for the annual Fall Dance Gathering. Conboy will be on campus for two week teaching dance classes, leading master classes for the community and choreographing and performing a piece for Meredith Dance Theatre's Dance Works '90 on Saturday, November 17.

Until recently, Conboy was employed as a principal dancer with Dan Wagoner and Dancers. He is originally from Long Island, NY, and first became serious about dancing 14 years ago when he lived in Colorado. At that time, he was a "fanatic" about physical education and getting into shape. He discovered that dancing integrated one's mind, body and soul and this appealed to him.

Conboy obtained an undergraduate degree in French and later received a graduate degree in dance at the University of New York. He cites Maggie Black, Dan Wagoner, Kay Cummings and Don Redlich as influential instructors.

Conboy's focal study is "organic, physical, good classical ballet." He also studies modern dance choreography.

Dance Works '90 includes a piece in three sections choreographed by Conboy: one section is a solo which he performs; another is a duet performed by Conboy and dance instructor Alyson Colwell; the third includes members of the Meredith Dance Theatre.

Conboy plans to begin his own company in the future. He claims that he is not a dancer or a choreographer and says he studies dance and choreography as a "study of life."

"I'm more of a human being than a dancer or choreographer."

Non-Residents' Name Change Approved

At the November 2 meeting of the non-resident students, president Kim Howerton announced that the Meredith Senate has approved the name change of the Non-Resident Association to the Association of Meredith Commuters (AMC). Final acceptance by the Student Life Committee is expected.