

What's Going On...

Auditions for The Fantasticks

Auditions for Meredith Performs production of The Fantasticks will be held Monday-Wednesday, December 3-5, at 7:30p.m. in the Studio Theatre. Auditioners need to be prepared to sing an up-beat song and read from selected script. There are selected parts for men and women. The musical will open on Valentine's Day, February 14, 1991 and run for eight performances.

On opening night special romantic doorprizes will be awarded.

Call 8586 for details.

Meredith Organization Wins State Award

The Society of Human Resource Management (SHRM) has received the North Carolina Student Chapter of the Year Award. The award was presented by Magie Fishbourne of the Raleigh-Wake Chapter of SHRM at the club's November 14 meeting.

Bobbie Little, president-elect of the American Society for Training and Development (ASTD) was the guest speaker. She discussed employee training and what types of skills employers are looking for today. Anyone interested in ASTD may acquire an application by contacting Janice Kopenhaver at 968-2705 or Bobbie Little at 782-4695.

Getting Crafty

Do you want to learn how to handcraft paper jewelry or fine furniture, gain some expertise in Chinese brush painting or lapidary, develop photography skills in sports, news or police lifestyles? The University Crafts Center at North Carolina State University has a class or workshop for you!

The only requirement for these classes is a desire to discover an outlet for your creativity. Other offerings cover weaving, watercolor, pottery, flat glass, woodturning, lap quilting, and raku firing.

Classes vary in starting dates (from January through April) and fees charged. You can register by telephone.

The Crafts Center is located in the lower level of the Thompson Building on the corner of Baise and Dunn Streets (across from the Coliseum Deck) on the NCSU campus.

Call the Center at 737-2457 for more information.

Help Light the Campus

Luminaries will be sold in Cate Center and Belk Dining Hall during lunch and dinner hours on Monday and Tuesday, December 3 and 4. Prices are $1.00 for one and $5 for six.

The luminaries will be placed around the drives and walkways and lit after dinner on Tuesday.

Sponsored this year by Meredith's Student Foundation, the luminaries add a serene and peaceful glow to the campus.

Raleigh residents enjoy an annual ride through the campus to enjoy this part of our holiday celebration.

Please support the Student Foundation by purchasing a luminary.

Career Connections

Summer Internships

On Monday, December 3, a representative from the Institute of Government will be available in the Career Services Resource Room, 2nd Floor Cate Center, to discuss paid internships for Summer 1991 for all majors. Internships will be available in local governments, county governments, with the N.C. Association of County Commissioners, and other offices and agencies. Students are invited to attend this presentation to learn more about these important work opportunities.

Seniors! Have you picked up your specially prepared Senior Source Book from Career Services? Don't leave Meredith without it, even for the holidays. You will want to use the contents starting now in your successful job search. Just stop by the Career Services office on 2nd floor Cate today.

Juniors Play Santa

by Jane Kennedy

Soldiers serving in Operation Desert Shield may have some of their Christmas wishes granted, thanks to the Class of 92.

The junior class Middle East Crisis Project donated $90.70 to Operation Desert Santa, sponsored by Raleigh radio station WRAL-FM.

The troops in the Middle East made a wish list for Christmas which the Santa Project is taking part in fulfilling. The list includes items such as: toothbrushes, toothpaste, mouthwash, razors, lotion, shampoo, and conditioner. Entertainment-starved soldiers also requested games and magazines to help them pass the time.

The gifts from Operation Desert Santa should arrive in time for Christmas to boost some sagging holiday spirits.

The junior class gift included funds earned in the Cornhuskin' Can Art competition and leftover donations collected for ribbons and bows which the juniors displayed around campus.

Call for Directors

Do you have a contemporary play you've always wanted to direct? Raleigh Ensemble Players announces a call for directors and their projects for the 91/92 season. All positions are paid. Call the REP office at 832-9607 for application and guidelines. Deadline: December 31, 1990.

Pi Delta Phi Inductions

by Kathy Craig

On November 19, 1990 two new members were inducted into the Pi Delta Phi Honor Society. Bonnie Bugnar and Sabrina Matheny were nominated in recognition of their academic achievement in upper-level French. Eligible students must rank in the upper 35% of their class in general studies, as well as in French, with a minimum GPA of 3.00 in French and a minimum of 2.8 in general studies.

The first chapter of Pi Delta Phi was established in 1906 at the University of California at Berkeley. At present, the organization has 242 chapters.

Congratulations to Bonnie and Sabrina for their outstanding achievement.
