Libby Mullinix

by Susan Moore

Why is Libby Mullinix, Vann Residence Director wearing such a big grin these days? She's graduating!

Libby is completing her studies at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary on December 15 with a Master of Divinity degree.

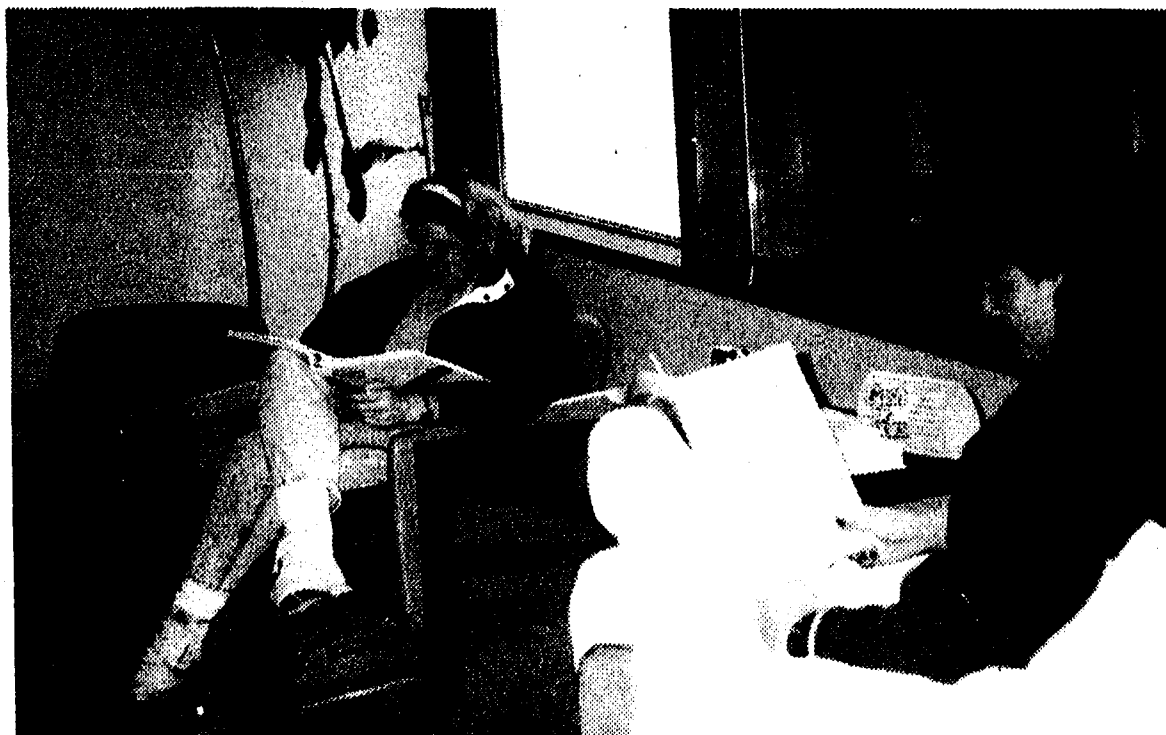

She began at Seminary in 1984 and spent two years as a full-time student. In 1986, she started working at Meredith as an RD and took a semester off to get used to her new job before heading back to school. Now Libby is finally able to relax a little.

Libby says she has no desire to leave Meredith now that her studies are completed. She is satisfied with her ministry here. She says she feels that the college community is more open to challenge and growth than the church would be.

Libby's graduation on December 15 will be held at Binkley Chapel in Wake Forest.
