

What's Going On...

Master Classes with Jack Arnold

As part of a two-week residency at Meredith, Jack Arnold, formerly of the Pilobolus Dance Theatre, will offer a master class on Saturday, January 19 from 10:00 - 12:00 noon in Weatherspoon Gymnasium.

Arnold is a BFA graduate from the North Carolina School of the Arts and an MFA graduate of University of North Carolina-Greensboro. He has returned to North Carolina after a three-year association with Pilobolus.

The fee for the class is $5.00, $3.00 for North Carolina Dance Alliance members, and free for Meredith students.

For more information, contact the dance department at Meredith, 829-8388.

Amnesty Week Reclaims Lost Dishware

Meredith's Student Government Association, along with Belk Dining Hall, is sponsoring an Amnesty Week in order to reclaim "lost" dishware. From January 14 through 18, tables will be set up in the dining hall for students to return dishes that have been hiding in residence hall rooms, at the ends of hallways, in parlors or laundry rooms.

Please use this opportunity to help the college save money. Each plate that has to be replaced costs the college $1.71; glasses cost 56¢.

Taking dishes from the dining hall is an Honor Code violation and, as of January 22, 1991, penalties will be enforced.

Use this opportunity to do the college and yourself a big favor!

Tomorrows Business Women Meet

There will be a TBW meeting on Wednesday, January 16 at 6:30 p.m. in 214 Harris. A guest speaker will address the group and refreshments will be served. All members are urged to attend. Our speakers can be valuable sources of future employment.

Student Activities Calendar Update

Please note the following corrections to the Meredith College Student Activities Calendar:

Friday, April 26—Last day of classes;
Monday, April 29—Reading Day;
Wednesday, May 8—Last day of exams, music juries.

Career Connections

Seniors

Registration Workshops begin Monday, January 14 at 10:00 a.m. You have only three opportunities this semester to sign up for on-campus recruiting. Only students who did not register during fall semester are required to register if they plan to attend the recruiting sessions.

Resumé workshops begin Friday, January 18 at 10:00 a.m. and all students who wish to prepare a resumé should plan to attend one of the three sessions offered.

Workshops will be held in the Career Resource Room 2nd floor Cate Center.

Workshops brochures as well as recruiting schedules have been mailed to students. If you did not receive one of these, please come by Career Services to pick up a copy.

Recruiting

Sign up this week in Career Services for the following recruiters:

Carolina Power and Light (1/8 - 1/22)
Carolina Telephone and Telegraph (1/10 — 1/24)

NCNB (1/15 — 1/29)

NC Office of State Personnel (1/16 — 1/30)

Xerox (1/17 — 1/31)

Interview workshop geared to all students

On January 23, Steven Mitchell will present "Job Interviewing Techniques" at 6:00 p.m. in Cate Auditorium.

Mr. Mitchell is Special Projects Manager at Burroughs Wellcome in Research Triangle Park.

The presentation covers six major topics: Workforce 2000, Sources of Job Referrals, Cover Letters and Resumés, Interview Preparation, Common Interview Complaints, and Asking Questions.

All students are urged to attend this helpful seminar.

The presentation is sponsored by District II, North Carolina Paralegal Association, Inc.; Durham Orange Paralegal Association; and Raleigh Wake Paraleglia Association.

What is your group doing?

Use the Meredith Herald to advertise your organization's activities!

Submit your short articles (typed, please) by Friday at noon for insertion in the following week's edition. Drop it in the Herald box beside the Cate Center box office window.

Include all pertinent information and include the date, time, and location of your activity. Be sure to include a contact name and telephone number.
