

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK

November 18 - 20, 1991

featuring

KYLE AND SUSAN MATTHEWS

Kyle Matthews is a singer/songwriter who has studied at both Furman and Baylor Universities and whose training includes classical and jazz piano, voice, and composition. For the past 3 summers Kyle has worked at Centrifuge Youth Camp and now travels from coast to coast with his wife, Susan, performing full time as a songwriter, speaker, and creative worship leader. He has appeared at universities, conventions, churches, high schools, and youth events. Kyle's 2 albums include "The Bottom Line" 1988, and "Some Assembly Required" 1991.

Susan Matthews, originally from Anderson, South Carolina, attended Furman University and the University of Georgia. In April, 1990, Susan married Kyle Matthews. She sang background and lead vocals on Kyle's albums and currently travels the country performing with him.

Kyle and Susan Matthews

RELIGIOUS EMPHASIS WEEK SCHEDULE

Monday, Nov. 18, 1991

| | | |
|----------------------|-------------|------------|
| Freshman Convocation | Chapel | 10:00 a.m. |
| Dinner | Common Room | 5:00 p.m. |

Tuesday, Nov. 19

| | | |
|---------|--------|-----------|
| Concert | Chapel | 7:30 p.m. |
|---------|--------|-----------|

Wednesday, Nov. 20

| | | |
|---|-------------|------------|
| Worship | Chapel | 10:00 a.m. |
| Reception | Common Room | 10:40 a.m. |
| Luncheon (Bring your tray and join us) | PDR | 12:00 noon |

HOLIDAY FAIR & SALE

North Carolina State University

WHEN:

Saturday, November 23

10 am - 5 pm
one day only

WHERE:

The Crafts Center

lower level Thompson Building across from parking deck

Choose your gifts and collector's items and meet the people who made them.

All crafts will be handmade by the Crafts Center's students and teachers.

From Hillsborough Street or Western Boulevard, turn on Pullen Road onto the NCSU campus — then follow
the signs and balloons!

MEA Announces Its Winter Semi-Formal

The White Iris Ball

Friday
November 15
Raleigh Civic Center
9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Tickets on sale
November 11 thru
November 15 in Belk Dining Hall,
and November 12
and 13 in Cate
Center