Academic Success

whether you are negotiating your first research paper, learning to manage your time, or studying for a final exam. Session topics include Writing Skills, Stress Management, Taking Notes, and Success in a Foreign Language. You may attend all or any part of the series. If you choose to attend all six seminars, you will receive a certificate of participation upon completion of the series. Interested students should pick up a brochure in the box office in Cate Center, and return the registration form to the Office of Student Activities and Leadership Development by Friday, January 31. If you have any questions, please call Cheryl Smith, X8660

Senior Seminar to Help Seniors with Transition to "Real World"

Seniors who attended the first session of the Senior Seminar Series on Monday, January 27, will be better prepared to discuss financial information in the "real world." Rhoda Sowers, former director of Student Activities at Meredith College and currently an account representative for Metropolitan Life Insurance, spoke on a variety of topics that will help seniors to survive independently after college. Topics discussed included the following: budgeting, renting or buying a home, managing credit, saving money, and creative tax planning.

The next three sessions will be just as informative and will be on the following subjects: Success Through Self-Assurance: Understanding Life Insurance and Other Investment Products, February 17; The Game of Life: Understanding Transition and Exploring Your Values, March 16; Realizing Your Dreams Beyond Meredith College: What Does the Future Hold?, March 30. All sessions are held at 10:00 am in Kresge Auditorium.

Any interested senior can sign up in the Office of Student Activities and Leadership Development, 1st floor, Cate Center. If you have any questions, please call Cheryl Smith at X8660.
